Turflop a Conscious Pariah Kanyane Chris Kanyane,Chris Kanyane,2010 This book provides reflections on the butterfly effect on how Turflop brought in the Age of Barack Obama What is the Age of Barack Obama To paraphrase Dr Ineke Van Kessel a prominent historian at the Leiden University in the Netherlands The University of the North also known as Turflop played a vital role as the center of communication coordination ideological direction the engine of bringing the new South Africa was University of the North We approached this book like detectives Fortunately in our detective work we were not concerned with a particular agenda we were not trying to prove that a certain method of thinking was right or wrong We didn't want this book to be filled with personal opinions and biases We wanted this book to be juicy and accessible to every person who reads it in whatever corner of the world We have to back up our story with facts of course and get other people to do practical analysis and later we added our own perspectives When we completed writing this book we passed it around amongst critical people spread across the globe Most of them said that the book is somehow highbrow and at the same time all together lowbrow which came as a compliment A lot of people are somewhere in between We want this book to embody that because there are many people there we want them to appreciate this book The Black Consciousness

Reader Baldwin Ndaba,Therese Owen,Masego Panyane,Rabbie Sermula,Janet Smith,2019-04-25 There is a current revival of Black Consciousness as political and student movements around the world as well as academics and campaigners working in decolonization reconfigure the continued struggle for socio economic revolution Yet the roots of Black Consciousness and its relation to other movements such as Black Lives Matter have only begun to be explored Black Consciousness has deep connections to the struggle against apartheid The Black Consciousness Reader is an essential collection of history culture philosophy and meaning of Black Consciousness by some of the thinkers artists and activists who developed it in order to finally bring revolution to South Africa A contribution to the world's Black cultural archive it examines how the proper acknowledgement of Blackness brings a greater love a broader sweep of heroes and a wider understanding of intellectual and political influences Although the legendary murdered activist Steve Biko is a strong figure within this history the book documents many other significant international Black Consciousness personalities and focuses a predominantly African eye on Black Consciousness in politics land women power art music and religion Onkgopotse Tiro Vuyelwa Mashalaba Winnie Madikizela Mandela Assata Shakur Marcus Garvey Neville Alexander Thomas Sankara Malcolm X Don Mattera Keorapetse Kgotsile W E B DuBois Walter Rodney Mongane Wally Serote Ready D and Zola are among the many bold minds included in this amalgam of facts ideas and images On Your Own Mosibudi Mangena,1989 Written by Herself: Women's

Heffernan, Noor Nieftagodien, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, Bhekizizwe Peterson, 2016-06-01 A detailed account of the incredibly influential Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 The Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 was a decisive moment in the struggle against apartheid It marked the expansion of political activism to a new generation of young activists but beyond that it inscribed the role that young people of subsequent generations could play in their country's future Since that momentous time students have held a special place in the collective imaginary of South African history Drawing on research and writing by leading scholars and prominent activists Students Must Rise takes Soweto 76 as its pivot point but looks at student and youth activism in South Africa more broadly by considering what happened before and beyond the Soweto moment Early chapters assess the impact of the anti pass campaigns of the 1950s of political ideologies like black consciousness as well as of religion and culture in fostering political consciousness and organisation among youth and students in townships and rural areas Later chapters explore the wide reaching impact of June 16th itself for student organisation over the next two decades across the country Two final chapters consider contemporary student based political movements including RhodesMustFall and FeesMustFall and historically root these in the long and rich tradition of student activism in South Africa 2016 marks the 40th anniversary of the 1976 June 16th uprisings This book rethinks the conventional narrative of youth and student activism in South Africa by placing that most famous of moments the 1976 students uprising in Soweto in a deeper historical and geographic context

New Histories of South Africa's Apartheid-Era Bantustans Shireen Ally, Arianna

Lissoni, 2017-06-26 The bantustans or homelands were created by South Africa's apartheid regime as ethnically defined territories for Africans Granted self governing and independent status by Pretoria they aimed to deflect the demands for full political representation by black South Africans and were shunned by the anti apartheid movement In 1972 Steve Biko wrote that politically the bantustans are the greatest single fraud ever invented by white politicians With the end of apartheid and the first democratic elections of 1994 the bantustans formally ceased to exist but their legacies remain inscribed in South Africa's contemporary social cultural political and economic landscape While the older literature on the bantustans has tended to focus on their repressive role and political illegitimacy this edited volume offers new approaches to the histories and afterlives of the former bantustans in South Africa by a new generation of scholars This book was originally published as various special issues of the South African Historical Journal
