The Definitive Journals of Lewis and Clark

John Ordway, 2003-01-01 The dependable and matter of fact John Ordway was one of the mainstays of the Corps of Discovery promoted early on to sergeant and serving as an able leader during the captain's absence Fascinated by the peoples and places he encountered Ordway became the most faithful journalist on the expedition recording information not found elsewhere and making an entry for every day during the expedition Ordway later married and became a prosperous owner of two plantations in Missouri His honest and informative account which remained undiscovered for a century offers an unforgettable glimpse of an enlisted man's experiences and observations as he and the Corps of Discovery embarked on the journey of a lifetime In contrast to Ordway's extensive chronicle stands the far too brief but intriguingly detailed eyewitness account of Sergeant Charles Floyd the only member to die on the expedition The journals of John Ordway and Charles Floyd are part of the celebrated Nebraska edition of the complete journals of the Lewis and Clark expedition which feature a wide range of new scholarship on all aspects of the expedition from geography to Indian cultures and languages to plants and animals

The Journals and Letters of Susan Burney Philip Olleson, 2016-03-09 Susan Burney 1755-1800 was the third daughter of the music historian Charles Burney and the younger sister of the novelist Frances Fanny Burney She grew up in London where she was able to observe at close quarters the musical life of the capital and to meet the many musicians men of letters and artists who visited the family home After her marriage in 1782 to Molesworth Phillips a Royal Marines officer who served with Captain Cook on his last voyage she lived in Surrey and later in rural Ireland Burney was a knowledgeable enthusiast for music and particularly for opera with discriminating tastes and the ability to capture vividly musical life and the personalities involved in it Her extensive journals and letters a selection from which is presented here provide a striking portrait of social domestic and cultural life in London the Home Counties and in Ireland in the late eighteenth century They are of the greatest importance and interest to music and theatre historians and also contain much that will be of significance and interest for Burney scholars social historians of England and Ireland women's historians and historians of the family
