Africa Dispatches From A Fragile Continent:

Africa Blaine Harden,1991 The powerful and the powerless are here in dramatic narratives that explain a land swept up in change lurching between an unworkable Western present and a collapsing African past By focusing on individuals Blaine Harden uncovers an Africa that endures behind the sum of its statistics Christian Reflection in Africa Paul Bowers,2018-07-05 This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one paragraph description and evaluation Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal s history The core intention both of the journal and of this compilation is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations including the secular as well as the religious The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars theological educators libraries ministry leaders and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there Dances with Devils Jacques Pauw,2011-02-28 For more than a decade Jacques Pauw has traversed his native continent in pursuit of warlords and drug traffickers child soldiers and charlatans adventure and anarchy What he found was a rich array of personalities and a panoply of stories ranging from the profoundly tragic to the intensely personal Pauw s stories range from South Africa to Rwanda from Sierra Leone and the Sudan to Mozambique Readers are taken behind the scenes of sensational news reports with compassion humour and occasional cynicism and emerge in the knowledge that even if it s true that there is nothing new out of Africa the writer has found fresh ways to present time honoured tales of love life misery and mortality The Christian Churches and the Democratisation of Africa Paul Gifford,2023-08-07 This volume focuses on the role Christian churches have played in Africa s democratisation movements since the late 1980s In some cases churchmen have presided over national conferences in many Christians comprise arguably the most significant segment of civil society In some countries pastoral letters have challenged dictators in others churches have provided an essential support for the status quo The book comprises both theoretical analyses and case studies The theoretical discussions include the history of Church State relations theology and democracy Pentecostalism and democracy the problems of consolidating democracy The 13 case studies sketch the historical context and then critically examine developments up till late 1993 The book will prove particularly useful to students of Third World Christianity African historians and political scientists and all interested in the socio political role of Christianity Historical Reflections on

Kenya Munene, Macharia, 2015-03-16 This book thematically tackles issues that relate to the perpetual struggle between the forces of control and the forces of mental and intellectual liberation in Africa and Kenya in particular The book addresses the colonial legacy of poverty creation as well as the socio political conditioning of Africans to dislike each other and to be irresponsible and disunited in the face of external threats Poverty hatred of other Africans and excessive dependency on European powers can be traced to the policies adopted by colonial officials Related to these issues is post colonial Kenya s attempts to address the political developments the involvement of different types of media in those developments Kenya s foreign policy and the problem of political party transition Ultimately there are topical issues that continue to affect Kenya which include the question of coalition politics the lessons of the 2002 elections the media and corruption parliament and foreign policy and Africa s relations with the United States of America The African Inheritance Ieuan Ll.

Griffiths, 2005-09-30 Africa is a continent gripped by civil wars and widespread famine The causes of many of the continent s problems are deep rooted and can be traced to Africa s colonial past when European powers divided the spoils of the continent into separate sovereign states The African Inheritance examines the effect this balkanization of Africa has had and is having on the political and economic well being of the continent From a brief history of pre colonial Africa and its subsequent European partition and inevitable decolonization the book discusses the consequences of such an inheritance small and weak states destructive secessionist movements irredentism and African imperialism Attempts to tackle these problems and assert independent development are inhibited by the colonial inheritance Encyclopedia of the Peoples of

Africa and the Middle East Jamie Stokes, 2009 Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Africa and the Middle East is a two volume A to Z reference to the history and culture of the peoples of Africa and the Middle East African Political Economy, 2001

Examines FDR and the New Deal era from the perspectives of social and cultural history political science popular culture and political history Seeking Viable Grassroots Representation Mechanisms in African Constitutions Charles

Mwalimu, 2009 In this book Charles Mwalimu explores viable grassroots representation mechanisms in African constitutions in order to positively integrate indigenous and modern systems in Sub Saharan Africa A comparative study method is used to examine the constitutional principles of chieftaincy and local government and their impact on human rights To establish and prove lack of positive integration Mwalimu connects this failure to poor constitutionalism development and stultified growth and human rights violations This book proposes remedial actions to build nondiscriminatory constitutional regimes eradicating violations of human rights Animal Farm Prophecy Fulfilled in Africa Chiku Malunga, 2014-09-08 Animal

Farm Prophecy Fulfilled in Africa A Call to a Values and Systems Revolution discusses why deep levels of poverty and suffering persist in Africa despite all the successive regime changes over the last half century It discusses why more people are poorer now than they were in the colonial era The author argues that this is so because most of the leadership change efforts on the continent focus on replacing individuals rather than changing or overhauling the negative systems and the values inherent in the systems that the individual leaders inherit create or perpetuate The problems persist because they are systemic rather than personal in nature Deep and lasting change that could result in lifting millions of people out of poverty will only occur when the systems rather than only the individuals are changed or replaced The author challenges ordinary citizens especially the youth to rise up against animal farm systems in order to create the tomorrow to which they aspire and deserve
