Art & Visual Culture 1850-2010: Modernity to Globalisation Steve Edwards, Paul Woods, 2013-09-05 An innovative exploration of art and visual culture Through carefully chosen themes and topics rather than through a general survey the volumes approach the process of looking at works of art in terms of their audiences functions and cross cultural contexts While focused on painting sculpture and architecture it also explores a wide range of visual culture in a variety of media and methods 1850 2010 Modernity to Globalisation includes essays which engage directly with topical issues around art and gender globalisation cultural difference and curating as well as explorations of key canonical artists and movements and of some less well documented work of contemporary artists The third of three text books published by Tate in association with the Open University which insight for students of Art History Art Theory and Humanities Introduction stories of modern art Part 1 Art and modernity 1 Avant garde and modern world some aspects of art in Paris and beyond c 1850 1914 2 Victorian Britain from images of modernity to the modernity of images 3 Cubism and Abstract Art revisited 4 Modernism in architecture and design function and aesthetic Part 2 From modernism to globalisation 5 Modernism and figuration 6 From Abstract Expressionism to Conceptual Art a survey of New York art c 1940 1970 7 Border crossings installations locations and travelling artists 8 Global dissensus art and contemporary capitalism Art & Visual Culture, 1850-2010 Steve Edwards, Paul Wood, 2012 Art & Visual Culture 1850-2010 Tate Publishing (London, England), 2012 Through carefully chosen themes and topics rather than through a general survey this title approaches the process of looking at works of art in terms of their audiences functions and cross cultural contexts It includes essays which engage directly with topical issues around art and gender globalisation cultural difference and curating 1850-2010. Modernity to Globalisation, 2013 This is the third of three text books published in association with the Open University which offer an innovative exploration of art and visual culture Through carefully chosen themes and topics rather than through a general survey the volumes approach the process of looking at works of art in terms of their audiences functions and cross cultural contexts While focused on painting sculpture and architecture it also explores a wide range of visual culture in a variety of media and methods 1850 2010 Modernity to globalisation includes essays which engage directly with topical issues around art and gender globalisation cultural difference and curating as well as explorations of key canonical artists and movements and of some less well documented work of contemporary artists 0ISBN of other volumes 1100 1600 Medieval to Renaissance ISBN 978 1 84976 093 5 1600 1850 Academy to avant garde ISBN 978 1 84976 093 5 Contemporary Chinese Art, Aesthetic Modernity and Zhang Peili Paul Gladston, 2019-10-17 In recent decades the previously assumed dominance within the international art world of western ized conceptions of aesthetic modernity has been challenged by a critically becalming diversification of cultural outlooks widely referred to as contemporaneity Contributing to that diversification are assertions within mainland China of essential differences between Chinese and western art In response to the critical impasse posed by contemporaneity Paul Gladston charts a historical relay of mutually formative interactions between the artworlds of China and the West as part of a new transcultural theory of artistic criticality Informed by deconstructivism as well as syncretic Confucianism Gladston extends this theory to a reading of the work of the artist Zhang Peili and his involvement with the Hangzhou based art group the Pond Association Chi she Revealed is a critical aesthetic productively resistant to any single interpretative viewpoint including those of Chinese exceptionalism and the supposed immanence of deconstructivist uncertainty Addressing art in and from the People s Republic of China as a significant aspect of post West contemporaneity Gladston provides a new critical understanding of what it means to be contemporary and the profound changes taking place in the art world today Deep-Time Images in the Age of Globalization Oscar Moro Abadía, Margaret W.

Conkey, Josephine McDonald, 2024-05-13 This open access volume explores the impact of globalization on the contemporary study of deep time art The volume explores how early rock art research s Eurocentric biases have shifted with broadened global horizons to facilitate new conversations and discourses in new post colonial realities The book uses seven main themes to explore theoretical methodological ethical and practical developments that are orienting the study of Pleistocene and Holocene arts in the age of globalization Compiling studies as diverse as genetics visualization with the proliferation of increasingly sophisticated archaeological techniques means that vast quantities of materials and techniques are now incorporated into the analysis of the world s visual cultures Deep Time Images in the Age of Globalization aims to promote critical reflection on the multitude of positive and negative impacts that globalization has wrought in rock art research The volume brings new theoretical frameworks as well as engagement with indigenous knowledge and perspectives from art history It highlights technical methodological and interpretive developments and showcases rock art characteristics from previously unknown in the global north geographic areas This book provides comparative approaches on rock art globally and scrutinises the impacts of globalization on research preservation and management of deep time art This book will appeal to archaeologists social scientists and art historians working in the field as well as lovers of rock art The Arts of

Logistics Michael Shane Boyle, 2024-09-10 We live in a world where nothing is untouched by supply chains art included In this major contribution to the study of contemporary culture and supply chains Michael Shane Boyle has assembled a global inventory of aesthetics since the 1950s that reveals logistics to be a pervasive means of artistic production The Arts of Logistics provides a new map of supply chain capitalism scrutinizing how artists retool technologies designed for circulating commodities What emerges is a magisterial account of the logistics revolution that foregrounds the role played by art in the long downturn of global capitalism With chapters on art produced from technologies including ships barrels containers and drones Boyle narrates the long history of art s connection to logistics beginning in the transatlantic slave trade and continuing today in Silicon Valley s dreams of automation The global reach of the artists considered reflects the geographies of supply chain capitalism itself In taking stock of how performance sculpture and popular culture are entangled in trade and racialized labor regimes Boyle profiles influential work by artists such as Christo and Allan Kaprow alongside that of contemporary figures including Cai Guo Qiang and Selina Thompson This incisive study demonstrates that art and logistics are linked by the infrastructures and violence that keep supply chains moving

Germany and the Ottoman Railways Peter H. Christensen,2017-10-24 The complex political and cultural relationship between the German state and the Ottoman Empire is explored through the lens of the Ottoman Railway network its architecture and material culture With lines extending from Bosnia to Baghdad to Medina the Ottoman Railway Network 1868 1919 was the pride of the empire and its ultimate emblem of modernization yet it was largely designed and bankrolled by German corporations This exemplifies a uniquely ambiguous colonial condition in which the interests of Germany and the Ottoman Empire were in constant flux German capitalists and cultural figures sought influence in the Near East including access to archaeological sites such as Tell Halaf and Mshatta At the same time Ottoman leaders and laborers urgently pursued imperial consolidation Germany and the Ottoman Railways explores the impact of these political agendas as well as the railways impact on the built environment Relying on a trove of previously unpublished archival materials including maps plans watercolors and photographs author Peter H Christensen also reveals the significance of this major infrastructure project for the budding disciplines of geography topography art history and archaeology Making Modernity in the Islamic Mediterranean Margaret S. Graves,Alex Dika Seggerman,2022-04-19 The Islamic world s artistic traditions experienced profound transformation in the 19th century as rapidly developing technologies and globalizing markets ushered in drastic changes in technique style and content Despite the importance and ingenuity of these developments the 19th century remains a gap in the history of Islamic art To fill this opening in art historical scholarship Making Modernity in the Islamic Mediterranean charts transformations in image making architecture and craft production in the Islamic world from Fez to Istanbul Contributors focus on the shifting methods of production reproduction circulation and exchange artists faced as they worked in fields such as photography weaving design metalwork ceramics and even transportation Covering a range of media and a wide geographical spread Making Modernity in the Islamic Mediterranean reveals how 19th century artists in the Middle East and North Africa reckoned with new tools materials and tastes from local perspectives
