Art Deco Bindings Art Deco Bindings:

Art Deco Bookbindings Yves Peyra(c), George Fletcher, 2004-03 Pierre Legrain and Rose Adler transformed bookbinding into a medium of playful and dazzling experimentation and craftsmanship Their colorful imaginative works often made in exotic materials are found only in a few prized collections and have rarely been available to the general public Now this selection of more than sixty designs colored paper maquettes and realized bindings are collected in one exquisite volume with insightful texts introducing the work and discussing its revolutionary effect on modern design Among the brilliant array of bindings are ones made especially for works by Colette Paul Verlaine Andre Gide Guillaume Apollinaire Stephane Mallarme Michel Leiris and Jean Giraudoux from the publisher Art Deco : Bookbindings for Display ,2003 Art Nouveau and Art Deco Bookbinding Alastair Duncan, Georges De Bartha, 1989 The Art Deco Style Theodore Menten, 1972-01-01 A collection of plates representing the best works of Art Deco produced during the twenties Binding Space: The Book as Spatial Practice Marian Macken, 2018-04-17 Books orient intrigue provoke and direct the reader while editing interpreting encapsulating constructing and revealing architectural representation Binding Space The Book as Spatial Practice explores the role of the book form within the realm of architectural representation It proposes the book itself as another three dimensional complementary architectural representation with a generational and propositional role within the design process Artists books in particular that is a book made as an original work of art with an artist designer or architect as author have certain qualities and characteristics quite different from the conventional presentation and documentation of architecture Paginal sequentiality the structure and objecthood of the book and the act of reading create possibilities for the book as a site for architectural imagining and discourse In this way the form of the book affects how the architectural work is conceived constructed and read In five main sections Binding Space examines the relationships between the drawing the building and the book It proposes thinking through the book as a form of spatial practice one in which the book is cast as object outcome process and tool Through the book we read spatial practice anew My World of Bibliophile Binding Kerstin Tini Miura, 2023-12-22 Art Nouveau Victor Arwas, 2002 Rarely has a subject been served by a book of this stature Five years in the making it covers all aspects of Art Nouveau in France in 624 authoritative pages and 740 illustrations Arwas traces the evolution of the movement as it developed primarily in Nancy and Paris with the help of carefully chosen illustrations many never published before Ranging from the 1900 Paris exhibition to paintings graphics and posters and such collecting fields as furniture jewellery ceramics book bindings and sculpture the informative witty text ranges over architecture haute couture and the role of women in Art Nouveau with a particular look at such theatrical icons as Sarah Bernhardt Lo e Fuller and the Grandes Horizontales Destined to become the standard book on the subject both content and design will appeal widely to the connoisseur the specialist and the collector as well as to the novice who will be introduced to the magical wonders of the style Teaching Text Technologies and Critical Bibliography Among the
