Journal of the Royal Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain), 1916 The Shepherd and the Morning Star Willie Orr, 2019-06-13 The Shepherd and the Morning Star is a remarkable double biography and autobiography In the course of it the life of the son Willie Orr gradually emerges from under the shadow of that of his father Lawrence Orr PB leading Ulster Unionist politician philanderer and would be bigamist who ends his days in disgrace with his career and family in ruins Rootless and troubled Willie himself went through various jobs in the Belfast shipyards as an actor as a helper in the Iona Community He suffered a severe nervous breakdown from which he slowly recovered finding purpose and fulfilment working as a shepherd for many years and then later retraining as a teacher In between times he wrote as a journalist for the Scotsman and with his wife set up a counselling service for adolescents in Oban This book is a deeply absorbing and powerful piece of writing a record of mood and emotional development as much as a detailed chronology Very funny in parts and with a poet's sensitivity in others it explores that precarious territory between the public and private lives of politicians It ends with a glimpse of redemption and healing a coming to terms with the ghosts of the past Field and Fancy, 1923 The Dog Fancier, 1924 Record of Current Educational Publications, 1929 Statistics of Land-grant Colleges and Universities United States. Office of Education, 1932 Bulletin, 1931 Intensive Sheep Management Henry R.
