Uneducated Christopher Zara, 2023-05-16 2024 ASJA Book Award for Memoir Autobiography In this hilarious and heartbreaking must read memoir Publishers Weekly Christopher Zara breaks down his winding journey from dropout to journalist and the impact that his background had in the world of privilege Boldly honest wryly funny and utterly open hearted Uneducated is one diploma less journalist's map of our growing educational divide and ultimately a challenge in our credential obsessed world what is the true value of a college degree For Christopher Zara this is the professional minefield he has had to navigate since the day he was kicked out of his New Jersey high school for behavioral problems and never allowed back From a school for troubled kids to wrestling with his identity in the burgeoning punk scene of the 1980s from a stint as an ice cream scooper as he got clean in Florida to an unpaid internship in New York in his thirties Zara spent years contending with skeptical hiring managers and his own impostor syndrome before breaking into the world of journalism only to be met by an industry preoccupied with pedigree As he navigated the world of the elite and saw the realities of the education gap firsthand Zara realized he needed to confront the label he had been quietly holding in what it looked like to be part of the working class whatever that meant Book Riot's Eight New Nonfiction Books to Read in May Book Browse's Best Books of May 2023
