Black Mountain Not Just Another Basketball Story

Mac C. Kirkpatrick, Thomas K. Perry

Black Mountain Not Just Another Basketball Story:

Black Mountain Del Drury, 2014-10-30 Coach Laney his name not a title wanted to make a difference in teaching When his entire class almost flunked one of their main tests due to Coach's unusual teaching methods the principal gave him the choice of quitting or going to a small town in Harlan County to teach What's a man to do He took up a teaching position at Blossom High School While teaching the entire senior class of 35 students he gets thrust into the position of basketball coach It could have been adding insult to injury considering that Coach Laney always hated sports Anyone else would have given up but Coach decided to win in spite of overwhelming odds And win he did He took a team to use the word loosely that had not won in a game in decades and easily won the first game And how did they win it They did it by running 5 miles up Black Mountain They won by simply not giving up

Confronting Ecological Crisis in Appalachia and the South Stephanie McSpirt, Lynne Faltraco, Connor Bailey, 2012-07-01 Throughout Appalachia corporations control local economies and absentee ownership of land makes it difficult for communities to protect their waterways mountains and forests Yet among all this uncertainty are committed citizens who have organized themselves to confront both external power holders and often their own local state and federal agents Determined to make their voice heard and to improve their living conditions newfound partnerships between community activists and faculty and students at community colleges and universities have formed to challenge powerful bureaucratic infrastructures and to protect local ecosystems and communities Confronting Ecological Crisis University and Community Partnerships in Appalachia and the South addresses a wide range of cases that have presented challenges to local environments public health and social justice faced by the people of this region Editors Stephanie McSpirt Lynne Faltraco and Conner Bailey along with community leaders and their university partners describe stories of unlikely unions between faculty students and Appalachian communities in which both sides learn from one another and most importantly form a unique alliance in the fight against corporate control Confronting Ecological Crisis is a comprehensive look at the citizens and organizations that have emerged to fight the continued destruction of Appalachia

Kirkpatrick,Thomas K. Perry,1997-01-01 In 1905 Lawrence Peter Hollis went to Springfield Massachusetts before beginning his job as the secretary of the YMCA at Monaghan Mill in Greenville South Carolina While there he met James Naismith the inventor of basketball and learned of the fledgling game Armed with Dr Naismith s rules of the game and a basketball he bought in New York Hollis returned to the mill and changed the face of athletics in South Carolina Lawrence Peter Hollis was one of the first to introduce basketball south of the Mason Dixon line and the game quickly gained popularity in the textile mill villages throughout South Carolina In 1921 Hollis and others organized a tournament to determine the best mill team and thus the southern Textile Basketball Tournament was born Over the years some of the south s top cage talent played in the tourney including Smokey Barbare Lucille Foster Thomas Bert Hill Earl Wooten Billy Cunningham Pete Maravich Sue Vickers and Tree Rollins Decade by decade the history of one of the longest running basketball tournaments is provided along with profiles of many prominent participants Full rosters for all teams in all tournaments are given in the appendices along with all tournament selections and members of the Southern Textile Athletic Hall of Fame

One Year After William R. Forstchen, 2015-09-15 One Year After is the New York Times bestselling follow up to William R Forstchen s smash hit One Second After the novel cited on the floor of Congress as a book all Americans should read The story begins one year after One Second After ends two years since nuclear weapons were detonated above the United States and brought America to its knees After months of suffering starvation war and countless deaths the survivors of Black Mountain North Carolina are beginning to recover technology and supplies they had once taken for granted like electricity radio communications and medications When a federal administrator arrives in a nearby city they dare to hope that a new national government is finally emerging That hope quickly diminishes when town administrator John Matherson learns that most of the young men and women in the community are to be drafted into the Army of National Recovery and sent to trouble spots hundreds of miles away He and the people of Black Mountain protest vehemently But the New Regime is already tyrannizing one nearby community Will Matherson s friends and neighbors be next The John Matherson Series 1 One Second After 2 One Year After 3 The Final Day Other Books Pillar to the Sky 48 Hours At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied

Mavericks Gerald Peary, 2024-01-23 In the New Hollywood Era of the 1960s and 1970s as weakening studio control granted directors more artistic freedom the auteur theory which regards the director as the primary artist among all those who contribute to filmmaking gained traction It was embraced by both the media and by directors themselves who were glad to see their contribution so glorified One positive was the discovery of filmmakers whose work was under the radar but virtually all the feted directors were white and overwhelmingly heterosexual only in recent decades have the contributions of marginalized auteur filmmakers been recognized Mavericks Interviews with the World s Iconoclast Filmmakers amplifies the voices of a wide ranging group of groundbreaking filmmakers including Samira Makhmalbaf Roberta Findlay Howard Alk Ousmane Semb ne and John Waters whose identities perspectives and works are antithetical to typical Hollywood points of view Author Gerald Peary whose experience as a film studies professor film critic arts journalist and director of documentaries culminates in a lifetime of film scholarship presents a riveting collection of interviews with directors including Black queer female and non Western filmmakers whose unconventional work is marked by their unique artistic points of view and molded by their social and political consciousness With contextualizing introductions and insightful questions Peary reveals the brilliance of these maverick directors and offers readers a lens into the minds of these incredible and engaging artists The Spirit of the Game Paul Emory Putz, Assistant Director Truett Seminary's Faith & Sports Institute Paul Emory Putz, 2024-10-02

Displays of religious faith have become commonplace on America's baseball diamonds, basketball courts, football fields, and beyond. How did religion become so entwined with big-time sports in America? The Spirit of the Game provides the answer to this question by offering a sweeping history of the Christian athlete movement in the United States and its impact on American religion and the religion of sports.
