Black Men On Race Gender And Sexuality A Critical Reader Critical America:

Black Men on Race, Gender, and Sexuality Devon Carbado, 1999-07-01 In late 1995 the Million Man March drew hundreds of thousands of black men to Washington DC and seemed even to skeptics a powerful sign not only of black male solidarity but also of black racial solidarity Yet while generating a sense of community and common purpose the Million Man March with its deliberate exclusion of women and implicit rejection of black gay men also highlighted one of the central faultlines in African American politics the role of gender and sexuality in antiracist agenda In this groundbreaking anthology a companion to the highly successful Critical Race Feminism Devon Carbado changes the terms of the debate over racism gender and sexuality in black America The essays cover such topics as the legal construction of black male identity domestic abuse in the black community the enduring power of black machismo the politics of black male white female relationships racial essentialism the role of black men in black women's quest for racial equality and the heterosexist nature of black political engagement Featuring work by Cornel West Huey Newton Henry Louis Gates Jr A Leon Higginbotham Jr Houston Baker Marlon T Riggs Dwight McBride Michael Awkward Ishmael Reed Derrick Bell and many others Devon Carbado's anthology stakes out new territory in the American racial landscape Critical America A series edited by Richard Delgado and Jean Stephancic

Black Men in Interracial Relationships Kellina M. Craig-Henderson, Grounded in research interviews and analysis of census data this book examines why relationships between black men and women not of African descent appear to be so popular among the black male elite It provides insight into the continuing ways that race and ethnic status affect people's life choices

Black Men on Race, Gender, and Sexuality Devon Carbado, 1999-07 A groundbreaking anthology of essays providing commentary on gender and sexuality inclusion in the antiracist movement In late 1995 the Million Man March drew hundreds of thousands of black men to Washington DC and seemed even to skeptics a powerful sign not only of black male solidarity but also of black racial solidarity Yet while generating a sense of community and common purpose the Million Man March with its deliberate exclusion of women and implicit rejection of black gay men also highlighted one of the central faultlines in African American politics the role of gender and sexuality in antiracist agenda In this groundbreaking anthology a companion to the highly successful Critical Race Feminism Devon Carbado changes the terms of the debate over racism gender and sexuality in black America The essays cover such topics as the legal construction of black male identity domestic abuse in the black community the enduring power of black machismo the politics of black male white female relationships racial essentialism the role of black men in black women's quest for racial equality and the heterosexist nature of black political engagement Featuring work by Cornel West Huey Newton Henry Louis Gates Jr A Leon Higginbotham Jr Houston Baker Marlon T Riggs Dwight McBride Michael Awkward Ishmael Reed Derrick Bell and many others Devon Carbado's anthology stakes out new territory in the American racial landscape Critical America A series edited by Richard Delgado and Jean Stephancic

breaking anthology examines the mixed race experience and the impact of law on mixed race citizens in America Black Masculinity and Sexual Politics Anthony J. Lemelle, Jr., 2010-04-26 African American males occupy a historically unique social position whether in school life on the job or within the context of dating marriage and family Often their normal role expectations require that they perform feminized and hypermasculine roles simultaneously This book focuses on how African American males experience masculinity politics and how U S sexism and racial ranking influences relationships between black and white males as well as relationships with black and white women By considering the African American male experience as a form of sexism Lemelle proposes that the only way for the social order to successfully accommodate African American males is to fundamentally eliminate all sexism particularly as it relates to the organization of families The Derrick Bell Reader Derrick Bell, 2005-08 An authoritative collection of writings from a prominent public intellectual Black Sexual Politics Patricia Hill Collins, 2004-08-02 In Black Sexual Politics one of America's most influential writers on race and gender explores how images of Black sexuality have been used to maintain the color line and how they threaten to spread a new brand of racism around the world today Minority Relations Greg Robinson, Robert S. Chang, 2016-12-26 Contributions by Taunya Lovell Banks Devon W Carbado Robert S Chang Cheryl Greenberg Tanya Kater Hernandez Amanda O Jenssen Scott Kurashige Greg Robinson Stephen Steinberg Clarence Walker and Eric K Yamamoto The question of how relations between marginalized groups are impacted by their common and sometimes competing search for equal rights has become acutely important Demographic projections make it easy now to imagine a future majority population of color in the United States Minority Relations Intergroup Conflict and Cooperation sets forth some of the issues involved in the interplay among members of various racial ethnic and sexual minorities Robert S Chang initiated the Intergroup Conflict and Cooperation Project and invited historian Greg Robinson to collaborate The two brought together scholars from different backgrounds and disciplines to engage a set of interrelated questions confronting groups generally considered minorities This collection strives to stimulate further thinking and writing by social scientists legal scholars and policymakers on inter minority connections Particularly scholars test the limits of intergroup cooperation and coalition building For marginalized groups coalition building seems to offer a pathway to addressing economic discrimination and reaching some measure of justice with regard to opportunities The need for coalitions also acknowledges a democratic process in which racialized groups face significant difficulty gaining real political power despite such legislation as the Voting Rights Act Gender Talk Johnnetta B. Cole, Beverly Guy-Sheftall, 2009-01-16 Why has the African American community remained silent about gender even as race has moved to the forefront of our nation's consciousness In this important new book two of the nation's leading African American intellectuals offer a resounding and far reaching answer to a question that has been ignored for far too long Hard hitting and brilliant in its analysis of culture and sexual politics Gender Talk asserts boldly that gender matters are critical to the Black community in the twenty first century In the Black community rape violence against women and sexual harassment are as much the legacy of slavery as is racism Johnnetta Betsch Cole and Beverly Guy Sheftall argue powerfully that the only way to defeat this legacy is to focus on the intersection of race and gender Gender Talk examines why the race problem has become so male centered and how this has opened a deep divide between Black women and men The authors turn to their own lives offering intimate accounts of their experiences as daughters wives and leaders They examine pivotal moments in African American history when race and gender issues collided with explosive results from the struggle for women s suffrage in the nineteenth century to women s attempts to gain a voice in the Black Baptist movement and on into the 1960s when the Civil Rights movement and the upsurge of Black Power transformed the Black community while sidelining women Along the way they present the testimonies of a large and influential group of Black women and men including bell hooks Faye Wattleton Byllye Avery Cornell West Robin DG Kelley Michael Eric Dyson Marcia Gillispie and Dorothy Height Providing searching analysis into the present Cole and Guy Sheftall uncover the cultural assumptions and attitudes in hip hop and rap in the O J Simpson and Mike Tyson trials in the Million Men and Million Women Marches and in the battle over Clarence Thomas s appointment to the Supreme Court Fearless and eye opening Gender Talk is required reading for anyone concerned with the future of African American women and men Black Like Us Devon W. Carbado, Donald Weise, 2011-10-01 Chronicles one hundred years of African American homosexual literature from the turn of the century writings of Alice Dunbar Nelson to the Harlem Renaissance of Langston Hughes to the emerging sexual liberation movements of the later postwar era as reflected by James Baldwin Original
