Black Brown Solidarity Racial Politics In The New Gulf South:

Black-Brown Solidarity John D. Márquez, 2014-01-06 The first scholarly study of Black Latino solidarity and coalition in response to a Latino population boom in the Gulf South The Racial Politics of Division Monika Gosin, 2019-06-15 The Racial Politics of Division deconstructs antagonistic discourses that circulated in local Miami media between African Americans white Cubans and black Cubans during the 1980 Mariel Boatlift and the 1994 Balsero Crisis Monika Gosin challenges exclusionary arguments pitting these groups against one another and depicts instead the nuanced ways in which identities have been constructed negotiated rejected and reclaimed in the context of Miami's historical multiethnic tensions Focusing on ideas of legitimacy Gosin argues that dominant race making ideologies of the white establishment regarding worthy citizenship and national belonging shape inter minority conflict as groups negotiate their precarious positioning within the nation Rejecting oversimplified and divisive racial politics The Racial Politics of Division portrays the lived experiences of African Americans white Cubans and Afro Cubans as disrupters in the binary frames of worth citizenship narratives Foregrounding the oft neglected voices of Afro Cubans Gosin posits new narratives regarding racial positioning and notions of solidarity in Miami By looking back to interethnic conflict that foreshadowed current demographic and social trends she provides us with lessons for current debates surrounding immigration interethnic relations and national belonging Gosin also shows us that despite these new demographic realities white racial power continues to reproduce itself by requiring complicity of racialized groups in exchange for a tenuous claim on US citizenship What is Critical Environmental Justice? David Naguib Pellow, 2025-05-14 Human societies have always been deeply interconnected with our ecosystems but today those relationships are witnessing greater frictions tensions and harms than ever before These dynamics mirror those experienced by marginalized communities across the planet but they also provide a foundation for transformative thinking and action to address these challenges In this updated edition of his innovative contribution David Naguib Pellow introduces a new framework for critically analyzing Environmental Justice scholarship and activism In doing so he extends the field's focus to topics not usually associated with environmental justice including policing incarceration the Israel Palestine conflict and the Black Lives Matter movement In doing so he reveals that ecological violence is first and foremost a form of social violence driven by and legitimated by social structures and discourses He enriches this radical approach to Environmental Justice by drawing on Indigenous Studies the Black Radical Tradition Disability Studies Queer and Transgender Studies and Multi Species Justice among others Those already familiar with the discipline will find themselves invited to think about the subject in entirely new ways This book is a vital resource for students scholars and policy makers interested in innovative approaches to one of the greatest challenges facing humanity and the planet

Steinberg Clarence Walker and Eric K Yamamoto The question of how relations between marginalized groups are impacted by their common and sometimes competing search for equal rights has become acutely important Demographic projections make it easy now to imagine a future majority population of color in the United States Minority Relations Intergroup Conflict and Cooperation sets forth some of the issues involved in the interplay among members of various racial ethnic and sexual minorities Robert S Chang initiated the Intergroup Conflict and Cooperation Project and invited historian Greg Robinson to collaborate The two brought together scholars from different backgrounds and disciplines to engage a set of interrelated questions confronting groups generally considered minorities This collection strives to stimulate further thinking and writing by social scientists legal scholars and policymakers on inter minority connections Particularly scholars test the limits of intergroup cooperation and coalition building For marginalized groups coalition building seems to offer a pathway to addressing economic discrimination and reaching some measure of justice with regard to opportunities The need for coalitions also acknowledges a democratic process in which racialized groups face significant difficulty gaining real political power despite such legislation as the Voting Rights Act Key Issues Confronting the Black Community in Denver, CO David W. Jackson III, 2022-01-12 This volume highlights five critical key issues relevant to Colorado s Black and Brown communities As a result of the recent activity around policing and equity marijuana education and biases prisoner reintegration and activism it offers solutions to managing those problems The book is a resource that must be read by K 12 educators social workers probation officers grass roots leaders adult educators and university professors in the area of sociology education Black studies and the non traditional disciplines Additionally the volume contains essential tools for training professionals and teaching our youth by offering insights to problem solve in urban areas It provides pertinent information vital to the development and success of our youth struggling in K 12 higher education and the criminal justice system Although Colorado s Black communities are the focus of the volume it will also serve as a model for urban communities in different states A Mexican State of Mind Melissa Castillo Planas, 2020-03-13 A Mexican State of Mind New York City and the New Borderlands of Culture is the story Mexican migrant creativity in New York City since 9 11 focusing on youth productions in hip hop the arts and labor advocacy Latina/o/x Education in Chicago Isaura Pulido, Angelica Rivera, Ann M. Aviles, 2022-08-09 In this collection local experts use personal narratives and empirical data to explore the history of Mexican American and Puerto Rican education in the Chicago Public Schools CPS system The essays focus on three themes the historical context of segregated and inferior schooling for Latina o x students the changing purposes and meanings of education for Latina o x students from the 1950s through today and Latina o x resistance to educational reforms grounded in neoliberalism Contributors look at stories of student strength and resistance the oppressive systems forced on Mexican American women the criminalization of Puerto Ricans fighting for liberatory education and other topics of educational significance As they show many harmful past practices remain the norm or have become worse Yet

Latina o x communities and students persistently engage in transformative practices shaping new approaches to education that promise to reverberate not only in the city but nationwide Insightful and enlightening Latina o x Education in Chicago brings to light the ongoing struggle for educational equity in the Chicago Public Schools Policing Los Angeles Max Felker-Kantor,2018-09-25 When the Los Angeles neighborhood of Watts erupted in violent protest in August 1965 the uprising drew strength from decades of pent up frustration with employment discrimination residential segregation and poverty But the more immediate grievance was anger at the racist and abusive practices of the Los Angeles Police Department Yet in the decades after Watts the LAPD resisted all but the most limited demands for reform made by activists and residents of color instead intensifying its power In Policing Los Angeles Max Felker Kantor narrates the dynamic history of policing anti police abuse movements race and politics in Los Angeles from the 1965 Watts uprising to the 1992 Los Angeles rebellion Using the explosions of two large scale uprisings in Los Angeles as bookends Felker Kantor highlights the racism at the heart of the city s expansive police power through a range of previously unused and rare archival sources His book is a gripping and timely account of the transformation in police power the convergence of interests in support of law and order policies and African American and Mexican American resistance to police violence after the Watts uprising

Toward a More Perfect Rebellion Josslyn Jeanine Lockett,2025 Toward a More Perfect Rebellion tells the riveting story of the socially engaged filmmakers of color who studied in the Ethno Communications Program at the University of California Los Angeles between 1969 and 1973 While the program is best known for training the trailblazing group of Black directors known as the L A Rebellion this book also includes the radical Asian American Chicana o and Native American filmmakers who collaborated alongside their Black classmates to create one of the most expansive and groundbreaking bodies of work of any US university cohort Through extensive interviews with the filmmakers and cross racial analysis of their collective filmography Josslyn Jeanine Lockett sheds light on a largely untold history of media activists working outside Hollywood yet firmly rooted in Los Angeles aiming their cameras with urgency and tenderness to capture their communities stories of power struggle and improvisational brilliance South Central Is Home Abigail Rosas,2019-07-23 South Central Los Angeles is often characterized as an African American community beset by poverty and economic neglect But this depiction obscures the significant Latina o population that has called South Central home since the 1970s More significantly it conceals the efforts African American and Latina o residents have made together in shaping their community As residents have faced increasing challenges from diminished government social services economic disinvestment immigration enforcement and police surveillance they have come together in their struggle for belonging and justice South Central Is Home investigates the development of relational community formation and highlights how communities of color like South Central experience racism and discrimination and how in the best of situations they are energized to improve their conditions together Tracking the demographic shifts in South Central from 1945 to the present Abigail Rosas shows how financial institutions War on Poverty programs like Headstart for school children and community health centers emerged as crucial sites where neighbors engaged one another over what was best for their community Through this work Rosas illuminates the promise of community building offering findings indispensable to our understandings of race community and place in U S society
