Accounting in China in Transition, 1949-2000 Allen Huang, Ronald Ma, 2001 The history of the People's Republic of China can be classified into two distinctive periods Mao's China 1949-1978 and Deng's China from 1979 to the present Each period contains a number of sub periods or phases and each phase is characterised by one or more major political or economic events This book gives an outline of the major events and the associated accounting changes over time During the period of Mao's rule China experienced two violent political mass movements which inflicted great suffering on the nation There were few accounting developments in this period In contrast Deng's China set itself the ambitious task of transforming the centrally planned and centrally controlled economy into a market economy with Chinese characteristics

There has been an accompanying development in Chinese accounting in which its key role of serving the Government's planning and control needs is transformed into serving the information needs of decision makers in the market place The economic reform in Deng's China has made considerable progress which is particularly evident in the urban and coastal regions The transition from a planned economy to a market economy is incomplete and certain vexatious problems have yet to be resolved The resolution of the state owned enterprise reform issues will set a precedent for the further reform of Chinese accounting

The Big Four and the Development of the Accounting Profession in China Paul Gillis, 2014-02-21 This volume provides a history of the domination of the Big Four in the Chinese accounting industry explaining why China was unable to keep the market for its own accounting firms The book details how easy access to U S capital markets led to major accounting scandals and a clash between U S and Chinese regulators

Corporate Governance and China's H-share Market Alice De Jonge, 2008-01-01 Using detailed case studies of the first nine mainland Chinese companies to be listed on the Hong Kong stock exchange 1993-94 Alice de Jonge examines the evolution of corporate governance law and culture in China's H share market A story emerges not of tensions between ideas of corporate governance from two different legal systems Hong Kong vs mainland Chinese nor about legal convergence as China adopts concepts from Anglo American jurisdictions Rather it is a story of individual firms being pragmatic in mediating the different agendas of state agencies that own or control them Corporate Governance and China's H Share Market looks at corporate governance in a cross border context is unique in providing a detailed understanding of China's H share market reveals why a beer company was the first ever Chinese firm to be listed overseas This fascinating work will appeal to postgraduate students and scholars of corporate governance Asian law and legal systems and Asian business as well as Chinese scholars more generally Professionals such as law practitioners working in Chinese law will also find the book of interest Transforming Corporate Governance in East Asia Curtis Milhaupt, Kon-Sik Kim, Hideki Kanda, 2008-06-18 Over the past ten years the corporate governance environment in East Asia has undergone a significant transformation The Asian Financial crisis together with Japan's long economic malaise undermined confidence in the corporate structures governance practices and regulatory oversight of firms in the region Since that time each of the countries The International Journal of Accounting, 2002 Comparative International Accounting, 14th Edition Christopher Nobes, Robert B. Parker, Robert H. Parker, 2020 Now in its 14th edition Nobes and Parker's Comparative International Accounting is a comprehensive and coherent text on international financial reporting It is primarily designed for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in comparative and international aspects of financial reporting The book explores the conceptual and contextual foundations Journal of Economic Literature, 2002

Accounting Reform in Transition and Developing Economies Robert W. McGee, 2008-11-16 Much has been written about the economic and political problems of countries that are in the process of changing from centrally planned systems to market systems Most studies have focused on the economic legal political and sociological problems these economies have had to face during the transition period However not much has been written about the dramatic changes that have to be made to the accounting and financial system of a transition economy This book was written to help fill that gap Accounting Reform in Transition and Developing Economies is the fourth in a series to examine accounting and financial system reform in transition and developing economies The first volume used Russia as a case study The second volume in the series examined some additional aspects of the reform in Russia and also looked at the accounting and financial system reform efforts that are being made in Ukraine Bosnia Herzegovina Armenia Eastern Europe and Central Asia The third volume examined taxation and public finance in transition and developing economies Journal of Asian Business, 2002
