S. Chand's Social Sciences For Class 8 N K CHOWDHRY, S Chand s Social Sciences for class VI VII and VIII is based on the syllabus framework outlined by NCERT The Spiritual Life , The Religious Ethic and Mercantile Spirit in Early Modern China Ying-shih Yü, 2021-03-23 Why did modern capitalism not arise in late imperial China One famous answer comes from Max Weber whose The Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism gave a canonical analysis of religious and cultural factors in early modern European economic development In The Religions of China Weber contended that China lacked the crucial religious impetus to capitalist growth that Protestantism gave Europe The preeminent historian Ying shih Y offers a magisterial examination of religious and cultural influences in the development of China s early modern economy

both complement and counterpoint to Weber's inquiry The Religious Ethic and Mercantile Spirit in Early Modern China investigates how evolving forms of Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism created and promulgated their own concepts of the work ethic from the late seventh century into the Qing dynasty The book traces how religious leaders developed the spiritual significance of labor and how merchants adopted this religious work ethic raising their status in Chinese society However Y argues China's early modern mercantile spirit was restricted by the imperial bureaucratic priority on social order He challenges Marxists who championed China's sprouts of capitalism during the fifteenth through eighteenth centuries as well as other modern scholars who credit Confucianism with producing dramatic economic growth in East Asian countries Y rejects the premise that China needed an early capitalist stage of development moreover the East Asian capitalism that flourished in the later half of the twentieth century was essentially part of the spread of global capitalism Now available in English translation this landmark work has been greatly influential among scholars in East Asia since its publication in Chinese in 1987 The Watchword ,1909 Form and Spirit J.H. Badley,2023-10-30 First published in 1951 Form and Spirit deals with two primary questions regarding religion a the nature of religion as a permanent need in human life and its relation to the cults and creeds in which it has been embodied and b whether what is admittedly a crying need of our time can be met by the revival of religious forms which have lost their hold An attempt is made to trace the evolution of religion and a brief survey is given of the development of the chief world religions The object is not to show that any of these can be accounted truer than the rest but rather to see what were the reasons for the forms that they have taken and what elements and tendencies are common to them as throwing light both on the meaning of religion and on the needs of man's spiritual nature This is an essential read for general readers interested in religion
