Migration, Gender and Social Justice Thanh-Dam Truong, Des Gasper, Jeff Handmaker, Sylvia I. Bergh, 2013-09-06 This book is the product of a collaborative effort involving partners from Africa Asia Europe and Latin America who were funded by the International Development Research Centre Programme on Women and Migration 2006-2011 The International Institute of Social Studies at Erasmus University Rotterdam spearheaded a project intended to distill and refine the research findings connecting them to broader literatures and interdisciplinary themes The book examines commonalities and differences in the operation of various structures of power gender class race ethnicity generation and their interactions within the institutional domains of intra national and especially inter national migration that produce context specific forms of social injustice. Additional contributions have been included so as to cover issues of legal liminality and how the social construction of not only femininity but also masculinity affects all migrants and all women. The resulting set of 19 detailed interconnected case studies makes a valuable contribution to reorienting our perceptions and values in the discussions and decision making concerning migration and to raising awareness of key issues in migrants rights. All chapters were anonymously peer reviewed. This book resulted from a series of projects funded by the International Development Research Centre IDRC Canada.

The Inter-Asia Cultural Studies Reader Kuan-Hsing Chen, Beng Huat Chua, 2015-04-22

Asian Cultural Studies or Cultural Studies in Asia is a new and burgeoning field and the Inter Asia Cultural Studies Journal is at its cutting edge. Committed to bringing Asian Cultural Studies scholarship to the international English speaking world and constantly challenging existing conceptions of cultural studies, the journal has emerged as the leading publication in Cultural Studies in Asia. The Inter Asia Cultural Studies Reader brings together the best of the ground breaking papers published in the journal and includes a new introduction by the editors Chen Kuan Hsing and Chua Beng Huat. Essays are grouped in thematic sections including issues which are important across the region such as State violence and social movements and work produced by IACS sub groups such as feminism, queer studies, cinema studies and popular culture studies. The Reader provides useful alternative case studies and challenging perspectives which will be invaluable for both students and scholars in media and cultural studies.

The Battle for Asia Mark T. Berger, 2004-03-01

Asia has long been an ideological battleground between capitalism and communism, between nationalism and Westernisation and between the nation state and globalization. This book is a history of the Asian region from 1945 to the present day which delineates the various ideological battles over Asia's development. Subjects covered include theories of development, decolonization, US political and economic intervention, the effects of communism, the end of the Cold War, the rise of neo liberalism, Asia after the crisis, Asia in the era of globalisation. Broad in sweep and rich in theory and empirical detail, this is an essential account of the growth of Asian miracle and its turbulent position in the global economy of the twenty first century.

Corruption in Asia ranges from the venal rent seeking of local officials to the million dollar bribes received by corrupt politicians from excessive position related consumption to future job offers in the private sector for compliant public servants from money laundering to white elephant projects that do little more than line the pockets of developers and their political partners. The Routledge Handbook of Corruption in Asia addresses the theories, issues and trends in corruption and anticorruption reform that have emerged from this diverse experience. The book is divided into four major parts: corruption and the state, corruption and economic development corruption and society and controlling corruption strategies successes and failures Chapters compare and contrast corruption in different social and institutional contexts examine both successful and unsuccessful attempts to control it and consider what lessons can be drawn from these Asian experiences This academically rigorous and insightful book will be of interest to a wide range of students and scholars particularly those of Asian studies politics and sociology

The Politics of the Asian Economic Crisis T. J. Pempel, 2018-09-05 In the summer of 1997 a tidal wave of economic problems swept across Asia Currencies plummeted banks failed GNP stagnated unemployment soared and exports stalled In short the vaunted Asian Economic Miracle became the Asian Economic Crisis with serious repercussions for nations and markets around the world While the headlines are still fresh a group of experts on the region presents the first account to focus on the political causes and implications of the crisis The events of 1997-98 involved not just property values financial flows portfolio makeup and debt ratios they argue but also the power relationships that shaped those economic indicators As they examine the domestic regional and international politics that underlay the economic collapse the authors analyze the reasons why the crisis affected the nations of Asia in radically different ways The authors also consider whether the crisis indicates a radical change in Asia's economic future
