Audra McDonald: How Glory Goes Audra McDonald, 2000 Few recent recordings have been as eagerly awaited as Audra McDonald's second album Simply put HOW GLORY GOES comes through with flying colors on all counts It's certainly no retread of the brilliant singer's debut WAY BACK TO PARADISE which audaciously concentrated solely on the work of new theatrical composers HOW GLORY GOES tips the balance in favor of classic Broadway songwriters and trademark tunes including four by Harold Arlen Anyplace I Hang My Hat Is Home A Sleeping Bee I Had Myself a True Love I Never Has Seen Snow and The Man Who Got Away Jerome Kern's Bill and Leonard Bernstein's Somewhere Although she consciously places herself in comparison with two beloved divas who previously recorded incomparable versions of some of these songs Judy Garland and Barbra Streisand McDonald comes out smelling like roses bringing her own personality to gleaming interpretations that highlight her faultless technique and judicious balance of poise and exuberance McDonald still champions new generation composers Among the newer songs Adam Guettel's How Glory Goes from the acclaimed musical Floyd Collins and Jeff Blumenkrantz's I Won't Mind are beautiful and affecting songs made even more rewarding by McDonald's heartfelt performances

Audra McDonald Audra McDonald, 1999 Piano Vocal Guitar Artist Songbook This great songbook is our matching folio to the highly acclaimed debut album by this new diva of Broadway musical theatre It includes 14 songs written by some of today's most popular composers such as Ricky Ian Gordon Michael John La Chiusa Jason Robert Brown Adam Guettel and Jenny Giering Titles include The Allure of Silence Come to Jesus Daybreak in Alabama I Follow A Lullaby Song for a Dark Girl Stars and the Moon Tom You Don't Know This Man and more

How Glory Goes Audra McDonald, After Audra McDonald's audacious recording debut with Way Back to Paradise a collection of newly composed highly sophisticated theater music this new disc dominated by Harold Arlen standards would seem to be a retrenchment On closer inspection not so Anybody who would risk comparisons with Barbra Streisand and Judy Garland by recording A Sleepin' Bee and The Man That Got Away isn't playing it safe McDonald comes out fine though not because she's better than her elders but because she's different What pop singers do with rhetorical flourishes the operatically trained McDonald does with color and phrase shape much more so here than on Way Back to Paradise Indeed she is in radiant voice The differences multiply with the orchestrations which give a Coplandesque slant to Any Place I Hang My Hat Is Home Then there's the sequencing which follows The Man That Got Away with Somewhere from West Side Story On a dramatic level it's a progression from devastation to healing On a symbolic level the signature song of gay cult icon Garland is followed by the unofficial anthem of the AIDS era with staggering impact Not everything is great sometimes McDonald runs dry of interpretive ideas But at least five cuts are each worth the price of the CD My favorite Come Down from the Tree a playful gem about love and change cut from the Broadway show Once on This Island David Patrick Stearns
