The Routledge Companion to African American Art History Eddie Chambers, 2019-11-12 This Companion authoritatively points to the main areas of enquiry within the subject of African American art history The first section examines how African American art has been constructed over the course of a century of published scholarship The second section studies how African American art is and has been taught and researched in academia The third part focuses on how African American art has been reflected in art galleries and museums The final section opens up understandings of what we mean when we speak of African American art This book will be of interest to graduate students researchers and professors and may be used in American art African American art visual culture and culture classes

Understanding and Transforming the Black Church Anthony B. Pinn, 2010-01-01 What is the nature and purpose of the Black Church What is the relationship of the scholar of religion to the Black Church While black churches have been a major component of the religious landscape of African American communities for centuries little critical attention has been given to these questions outside an apologetic stance This book seeks to correct this trend by examining some of the major issues facing black churches in the twenty first century From a challenge to traditional ways of addressing sexism within black churches to African American Christianity's relationship to popular culture this set of reflections seeks to offer new perspectives on what it might mean to be Black and Christian in the United States Anthony Pinn's volume seeks to critically understand and sympathetically transform the Black Church Carrying on in the tradition of William R Jones Pinn's perspective on the Black Church is suspicious loving critical committed exasperating and exhilarating One may not always agree with his conclusions but one cannot ignore his penchant for ferreting out the truth This book is a passionate yet balanced argument which must be heard by anyone who is interested in the future of the black church James H Evans JR Robert K Davies Professor of Systematic Theology Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School Pinn is required reading in every Black Church Studies department and theological curriculum that seeks self understanding transformation and healing and an indispensable interlocutor in the broader public conversation about the American dilemma and its democratic possibilities Walter Earl Fluker Coca Cola Professor of Leadership Studies Morehouse College

Contemporary Culture and Media in Asia Daniel Black, Olivia Khoo, Koichi Iwabuchi, 2016-09-23 The study of Asian culture media and communications is an area that has developed rapidly over the past two decades This rapid development has led to the deployment of diverse scholarly approaches while simultaneously raising important questions regarding the extent to which the use of key terms such as nation citizenship and modernity must be modified to reflect the specificity of an Asian context Furthermore the irrepressible flows of popular cultural forms and the enthusiastic adoption of new communications technologies across the region demand approaches that can accommodate the dynamism and diversity of Asian culture and media Contemporary

Culture and Media in Asia brings together leading scholars from Asia North America and Australia to address questions related to these challenges producing new insights and frameworks that can be productively utilized by students and scholars working in the field

The Routledge Companion to the Philosophy of Race Paul Taylor, Linda Alcoff, Luvel Anderson, 2017-11-28 For many decades race and racism have been common areas of study in departments of sociology history political science English and anthropology Much more recently as the historical concept of race and racial categories have faced significant scientific and political challenges philosophers have become more interested in these areas This changing understanding of the ontology of race has invited inquiry from researchers in moral philosophy metaphysics epistemology philosophy of science philosophy of language and aesthetics The Routledge Companion to Philosophy of Race offers in one comprehensive volume newly written articles on race from the world's leading analytic and continental philosophers It is however accessible to a readership beyond philosophy as well providing a cohesive reference for a wide student and academic readership The Companion synthesizes current philosophical understandings of race providing 37 chapters on the history of philosophy and race as well as how race might be investigated in the usual frameworks of contemporary philosophy The volume concludes with a section on philosophical approaches to some topics with broad interest outside of philosophy like colonialism affirmative action eugenics immigration race and disability and post racialism By clearly explaining and carefully organizing the leading current philosophical thinking on race this timely collection will help define the subject and bring renewed understanding of race to students and researchers in the humanities social science and sciences
