Bali And Beyond Bali And Beyond:

Bali and Beyond Shinji Yamashita, 2003 Based on field research carried out over two decades the author surveys the development of the anthropology of tourism and its significance using case studies drawn from Indonesia New Guinea and Japan He argues that tourism once seen as rather peripheral by anthropologists has to be treated as a phenomenon of major importance both because the size of the flows of people and capital involved and because it is one of the major sites in which the meeting and hybridization of culture takes place Tourism he suggests leads not to the destruction of local cultures as many critics have implied but rather to the emergence of new cultural forms The central part of the book presents a detailed case study of the island of Bali in Indonesia It traces the development of tourism there during the colonial period and the ways in which Balinese traditional culture was developed first by western artists and scholars in the colonial period and more recently by Balinese government officials in the guise of cultural tourism The general theme of the presentation of tradition is also discussed in relation to Toraja funerals in the Indonesian province of Sulawesi western visitors to the Sepik River in Papua New Guinea and the small city of Tono in northern Japan which has become a center for the study of folk lore

Beyond Bali Ana Dragojlovic, 2025-10-01 This ethnography explores how Balinese citizens produce postcolonial intimacy a complex interaction of claims to proximity and mutuality between themselves and the Dutch under colonialism that continues today Such claims Ana Dragojlovic explains are crucial for the diasporic reconfiguration of kebalian or Balinese ness a concept that encompasses the personal social and cultural complexities involved in Balinese identity in Dutch postcolonial society This identity enables Balinese migrants to see themselves as carriers of unique cultural traditions both promoted by and in disagreement with Dutch cultural values

Beyond the Orion Nebula Edgar J. Guedez, 2012-12-07 The Alidonian System of Worlds is in turmoil Princess Arianne Alidan runs away from her cousin Prince Narbonne the leader of a rebellion trying to dethrone her father setting course for a hidden base located beyond a nebula in an unexplored region of the galaxy But her fleet gets thrown out of course by a cosmic event When the fleet comes out of hyperspace badly battered they take refuge in an unknown solar system with a habitable planet The Waterworld There the illness of her sister Princess Amelie Alidan forces them to set up a base When Amelie meets Gus Schneider a former air force pilot and falls in love with him Princess Arianne devises a scheme to fortify the remnants of her fleet hoping for a rendezvous with her people and confront Prince Narbonne in a final and decisive battle

Beyond the Realm of the Senses Raechelle Rubinstein, 2022-07-04 This book is the first comprehensive study of the practice of kekawin composition in Bali Based on field research and a diverse range of palm leaf texts it explores Balinese perceptions of kekawin composition and demonstrates the nexus between religion and the writing of these poems Like kekawin from ancient Java Balinese kekawin have been conceived as a mystical means of unification with divinity as temples of language In the first part of the book Bali is shown to be a society of religious literacy and alphabet magic and the religious beliefs that underpin literary activity are examined The second part explores Balinese conceptions of the practice of kekawin composition as literary yoga Both the priestly identity of poets and the act of composing as a religious ritual are considered The final section investigates the craft of composition through texts that concern prosody poetics and orthography the Canda the Bhasaprana and the Swarawyanjana

Negotiating Governance on Non-Traditional Security in Southeast Asia and Beyond Mely Caballero-Anthony, 2018-12-18 The threats the world currently faces extend beyond traditional problems such as major power competition interstate conflict and nuclear proliferation Non traditional security challenges such as climate change migration and natural disasters surpass states capacity to address them These limitations have led to the proliferation of other actors regional and international organizations transnational networks local and international nongovernmental organizations that fill the gaps when states responses are lacking and provide security in places where there is none In this book Mely Caballero Anthony examines how non traditional security challenges have changed state behavior and security practices in Southeast Asia and the wider East Asia region Referencing the wide range of transborder security threats confronting Asia today she analyzes how non state actors are taking on the roles of security governors engaging with states regional organizations and institutional frameworks to address multifaceted problems From controlling the spread of pandemics and transboundary pollution to managing irregular migration and providing relief and assistance during humanitarian crises Caballero Anthony explains how and why non state actors have become crucial across multiple levels local national and regional and how they are challenging regional norms and reshaping security governance Combining theoretical discussions on securitization and governance with a detailed and policy oriented analysis of important recent developments Negotiating Governance on Non Traditional Security in Southeast Asia and Beyond points us toward state plus governance where a multiplicity of actors form the building blocks for multilateral cooperative security processes to meet future global challenges

The Appropriation of Religion in Southeast Asia and Beyond Michel Picard, 2017-08-11 This volume investigates various processes by which world religions become localized as well as how local traditions in Southeast Asia and Melanesia become universalized In the name of modernity and progress the contemporary Southeast Asian states tend to press their populations to have a religion claiming that their local indigenous practices and traditions do not constitute religion Authors analyze this religionization addressing how local people appropriate religion as a category to define some of their practices as differentiated from others whether they want to have a religion or are constrained to demonstrate that they profess one Thus religion is what is regarded as such by these local actors which might not correspond to what counts as religion for the observer Furthermore local actors do not always concur regarding what their religion is about as religion is a contested issue In consequence each of the case studies in this volume purposes to elucidate what gets identified and legitimized as religion by whom for what purpose and under what political conditions
