Arcane Of Reproduction Housework Prostitution Labor And Capital:

The Arcane of Reproduction Leopoldina Fortunati, 1995 Part 2 Reproductive work is productive The dual character of reproductive work That strange form of absolute surplus value The family as a form of capital's development Capitalist accumulation and population For a worker's history of reproduction The Micro-Politics of Capital Jason Read, 2012-02-01 What is the relation between the economy or the mode of production and culture beliefs and desires How is it possible to think of these relations without reducing one to the other or effacing one for the sake of the other To answer these questions The Micro Politics of Capital re reads Marx in light of the contemporary critical interrogations of subjectivity in the works of Althusser Deleuze Guattari Foucault and Negri Jason Read suggests that what characterizes contemporary capitalism is the intimate intersection of the production of commodities with the production of desire beliefs and knowledge Routledge Handbook of Marxism and Post-Marxism Alex Callinicos, Stathis Kouvelakis, Lucia Pradella, 2020-12-29 In the past two decades Marxism has enjoyed a revitalization as a research program and a growth in its audience This renaissance is connected to the revival of anti capitalist contestation since the Seattle protests in 1999 and the impact of the global economic and financial crisis in 2007 8 It intersects with the emergence of Post Marxism since the 1980s represented by thinkers such as Jürgen Habermas Chantal Mouffe Ranajit Guha and Alain Badiou This handbook explores the development of Marxism and Post Marxism setting them in dialogue against a truly global backdrop Transcending the disciplinary boundaries between philosophy economics politics and history an international range of expert contributors guide the reader through the main varieties and preoccupations of Marxism and Post Marxism Through a series of framing and illustrative essays readers will explore these traditions starting from Marx and Engels themselves through the thinkers of the Second and Third Internationals Rosa Luxemburg Lenin and Trotsky among others the Tricontinental and Subaltern and Post Colonial Studies to more contemporary figures such as Huey Newton Fredric Jameson Judith Butler Immanuel Wallerstein and Samir Amin The Routledge Handbook of Marxism and Post Marxism will be of interest to scholars and researchers of philosophy cultural studies and theory sociology political economics and several areas of political science including political theory Marxism political ideologies and critical theory The Digitally Disposed Seb Franklin, 2021-06-22 Locates the deep history of digitality in the development of racial capitalism Seb Franklin sets out a media theory of racial capitalism to examine digitality's racial capitalist foundations The Digitally Disposed shows how the promises of boundless connection flexibility and prosperity that are often associated with digital technologies are grounded in racialized histories of dispossession and exploitation Reading archival and published material from the cybernetic sciences alongside nineteenth century accounts of intellectual labor twentieth century sociometric experiments and a range of literary and visual works The Digitally Disposed locates the deep history of digitality in the development of racial capitalism Franklin makes the groundbreaking argument that capital's apparently spontaneous synthesis of so called free individuals into productive circuits represents an informatics of value On the one hand understanding value as an informatic relation helps to explain why capital was able to graft so seamlessly with digitality at a moment in which it required more granular and distributed control over labor the moment that is often glossed as the age of logistics On the other hand because the informatics of value sort populations into positions of higher and lower capacity value and status understanding their relationship to digitality requires that we see the digital as racialized and gendered in pervasive ways Ultimately The Digitally Disposed questions the universalizing assumptions that are maintained remade and intensified by today's dominant digital technologies Vital and far reaching The Digitally Disposed reshapes such fundamental concepts as cybernetics informatics and digitality

Precarious Intimacies Faith MacNeil Taylor, 2025-03-18 In a time of increasing social and economic inequality this book illustrates the precarity experienced by millennials facing both rising rents and wage stagnation Featuring the voices of those with lived experience of precarity in north east London MacNeil Taylor focuses on intimacy reproduction and emotional labour The book widens readers understanding of a middle class generation rent beyond those locked out of anticipated home ownership by considering both social and private renters Situated in a feminist and queer theoretical framework the book reveals the crucial role of British policy making on housing welfare and immigration in exacerbating inter and intra generational inequality

Culture and Economy in the Age of Social Media Christian Fuchs, 2015-01-09 Understanding social media requires us to engage with the individual and collective meanings that diverse stakeholders and participants give to platforms It also requires us to analyse how social media companies try to make profits how and which labour creates this profit who creates social media ideologies and the conditions under which such ideologies emerge In short understanding social media means coming to grips with the relationship between culture and the economy In this thorough study Christian Fuchs one of the leading analysts of the Internet and social media delves deeply into the subject by applying the approach of cultural materialism to social media offering readers theoretical concepts contemporary examples and proposed opportunities for political intervention Culture and Economy in the Age of Social Media is the ultimate resource for anyone who wants to understand culture and the economy in an era populated by social media platforms such as Twitter Facebook and Google in the West and Weibo Renren and Baidu in the East Updating the analysis of thinkers such as Raymond Williams Karl Marx Ferruccio Rossi Landi and Dallas W Smythe for the 21st century Fuchs presents a version of Marxist cultural theory and cultural materialism that allows us to critically understand social media's influence on culture and the economy

Women's Productive and Reproductive Labour Ayşe Arslan, 2023-07-27 This book looks at the dynamic relationship between women's productive and reproductive work in a Global South country from a Global South perspective. Applying a feminist political economy and historical materialist approach and building on an ethnographic extended case study, it analyses the relationships between class and gender across both the productive and reproductive realms at the macro and micro levels in the case of women garment workers in Turkey. Overall, it shows that the material and social conditions of women's productive and reproductive work co-constitute each other. It suggests that productive and social reproductive labour should be examined as an integrated process and an interrelated social relation in constant dialogue with other social relations. This book is of interest to researchers and students in the disciplines of gender studies, labour studies, feminist economics, sociology, and development studies. Given that most studies on social reproduction have largely focused on the Global North, this book is of particular interest to those in search of a more comprehensive and holistic understanding. It is also of great relevance to policymakers concerned with gender and labour issues as well as labour and feminist activists.

Time Joel Burges, Amy Elias, 2016-08-02 The critical condition and historical motivation behind Time Studies. The concept of time in the post-millennial age is undergoing a radical rethinking within the humanities. Time: A Vocabulary of the Present newly theorizes our experiences of time in relation to developments in post-1945 cultural theory and arts practices. Wide-ranging and theoretically provocative, the volume introduces readers to cutting-edge temporal conceptualizations and investigates what exactly constitutes the scope of time studies. Featuring twenty essays that reveal what we talk about when we talk about time today, especially in the areas of history, measurement, and culture, each essay pairs two keywords to explore the tension and nuances between them: from past, future, and anticipation; unexpected, extinction, adaptation, and serial; simultaneous. Moving beyond the truisms of postmodernism, the collection newly theorizes the meanings of temporality in relationship to aesthetic, cultural, technological, and economic developments in the postwar period. This book thus assumes that time, not space, as the postmoderns had it, is central to the contemporary period and that through it we can come to terms with what contemporaneity can be for human beings caught up in the historical present. In the end, Time reveals that the present is a cultural matrix in which overlapping temporalities condition and compete for our attention. Thus, each pair of terms presents two temporalities, yielding a generative account of the time or times in which we live.
