The People, Place, and Space Reader Jen Jack Gieseeking, William Mangold, Cindi Katz, Setha Low, Susan Saegert, 2014-04-16 The People Place and Space Reader brings together the writings of scholars designers and activists from a variety of fields to make sense of the makings and meanings of the world we inhabit They help us to understand the relationships between people and the environment at all scales and to consider the active roles individuals groups and social structures play in creating the environments in which people live work and play These readings highlight the ways in which space and place are produced through large and small scale social political and economic practices and offer new ways to think about how people engage the environment in multiple and diverse ways Providing an essential resource for students of urban studies geography sociology and many other areas this book brings together important but till now widely dispersed writings across many inter related disciplines Introductions from the editors precede each section introducing the texts demonstrating their significance and outlining the key issues surrounding the topic A companion website PeoplePlaceSpace.org extends the work even further by providing an on going series of additional reading lists that cover issues ranging from food security to foreclosure psychiatric spaces to the environments of predator animals

Contemporary Perspectives on Shopping, Retail and Tourism Dallen J. Timothy, 2025-04-15 In the contemporary world of guaranteed change shopping remains a constant in the tourism experience even though its forms measures functions and manifestations are continuously evolving This book offers traditional perspectives on shopping and tourism and updates current thinking in relation to experiences and internal and external forces that affect retail change and shopping behaviour It also examines how technology and changes in travel create new retail spaces virtual spaces and retailscapes in tourism contexts The volume provides a global perspective with empirical examples being utilised from many parts of the world in a series of conceptually driven chapters on current issues opportunities challenges and paradigms in the relationship between shopping and tourism

Writing Space Jay David Bolter, 2001-01-01 This second edition of Jay David Bolter's classic text expands on the objectives of the original volume illustrating the relationship of print to new media and examining how hypertext and other forms of electronic writing refashion or remediate the forms and genres of print Reflecting the dynamic changes in electronic technology since the first edition this revision incorporates the Web and other current standards of electronic writing As a text for students in composition new technologies information studies and related areas this volume provides a unique examination of the computer as a technology for reading and writing

Mediation and Children's Reading Anne Marie Hagen, 2022-03-29 This collection of essays explores the cultural significance of children's reading by analyzing a series of Anglo American case studies from the eighteenth century to the present Marked by historical continuity and technological change children's reading proves to be a phenomenon with broad influence one that shapes both the development of individual readers and wider social values The essays in this volume capture such complexity by invoking the conception of mediation to approach children's reading as a site of interaction among individual people, material texts and institutional networks. Featuring a range of scholarly perspectives from the disciplines of literature, education, graphic design and library and information science, this collection uncovers both the intricacies and wider stakes of children's reading. The books' public programs and archives that focus explicitly on children's interests and needs are powerful arenas that give expression to the key ideological investments of a culture.

Teaching with Dystopian Text Michael Arthur Soares, 2023-10-10

Teaching with Dystopian Text propounds an exchange of spatial to pedagogical practices centered around Orwellian Spaces, signaling a new utility for teaching with dystopian texts in secondary education. The volume details the urgency of dystopian texts for secondary students, providing theoretical frameworks, classroom examples and practical research. The function of dystopian texts such as George Orwell's 1984 as social and political critique is demonstrated as central to their power. Teaching with Dystopian Text: Exploring Orwellian Spaces for Student Empowerment and Resilience makes a case that dystopian texts can be instrumental in the transfer of spatial practices to pedagogical practices. Pedagogical application creates links between the text and the student through defamiliarization, connecting the student to practices of resistance in the space of the classroom. The volume also addresses the challenges of teaching dystopian text in a dystopian educational climate, including the COVID-19 lockdown. In addition to appealing to scholars and researchers of literacy, education, language, education and dystopian text, this book will also be a powerful yet accessible resource for secondary teachers as they address dystopian concerns with students in the complicated twenty-first century.

Childhood, Agency, and Fantasy Ingrid E. Castro, 2021-01-12

Joining the emergent interdisciplinary investment in bridging the social sciences and the humanities, Childhood, Agency and Fantasy: Walking in Other Worlds explores linkages between children's agency and fantasy. Fantasy as an integral aspect of childhood and as a genre allows for children's spectacular dreams and hopeful realities. Friendship, family, identity, loyalty, belongingness, citizenry and emotionality are central concepts explored in chapters that are anchored by humanities texts of television, film and literature but also by social science qualitative methods of participant observation and interviews. Fantasy has the capacity to be a revolutionary change agent that in its modernity can creatively reflect critique or reimagine the social, political and cultural norms of our world. Such promise is also found to be true of children's agency wherein children's beings and becomings rooted in childhood's freedoms and constraints result in a range of outcomes. In the endeavor to broaden theory and research on children's agency, fantasy becomes a point of possibility with its expanding subjectivities far reaching terrain and spirit of adventure.

Children Reading for Pleasure in the Digital Age Natalia Kucirkova, Teresa Cremin, 2020-06-15

What does it mean to become a reader? What are the challenges and opportunities of engaging children in reading for pleasure in the 21st century? Perspectives on Political Communication in Africa Bruce Mutsvairo, Beschara Karam, 2018-02-27 This edited collection is a cutting edge volume that reframes political communication from an African perspective Focusing on sub Saharan Africa and occasionally drawing comparisons with other regions of the world this book critically addresses the development of the field focusing on the current opportunities and challenges within the African context By using a wide variety of case studies that include Mozambique Zambia Rwanda Zimbabwe Ghana Kenya Uganda South Africa Ivory Coast and Nigeria the collection gives space to previously understudied regions of sub Saharan Africa and challenges the over reliance of western scholarship on political communication on the continent

International Perspectives on English Teacher Development Andrew Goodwyn, Jacqueline Manuel, Rachel Roberts, Lisa Scherff, Wayne Sawyer, Cal Durrant, Don Zancanella, 2022-11-30 The fourth volume in the successful IFTE series provides an international perspective on the knowledge and professional development of the English teaching workforce It provides a state of the art review of English teaching and teachers and how they are developed over time With contributions from leading scholars around the world this volume is divided into four sections that follow the journey of an English teacher from being a student to the latter stages of professional development and becoming a teacher It sheds light on how different elements such as school culture professional development higher level qualifications professional associations and government policies contribute or detract from retention and job satisfaction International Perspectives on English Teacher Development serves as ideal reading for the research and teacher education community along with teachers and student teachers globally

Marginalia in Modern Learning Contexts Reid, Alan J., 2018-11-09 Although reading can be regarded as an isolated and private endeavor the white space in the margins of a printed book or the comments section at the end of an online article can provide a welcomed space for interaction Annotation and marginalia share similar meanings a reader's contribution to a text which might consist of alphabetic image and video content While it has always been more common to think of this strategy in the context of a student and a textbook it is being more widely used through online communications such as commenting on liking and sharing social media posts The behaviors of readers as they engage with a text says a lot about their involvement interest and intentions Marginalia in Modern Learning Contexts is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of interaction between readers and texts through digital means such as commenting or physical annotation such as writing in the margins of a book and how these strategies can be applied in educational settings While highlighting topics including social annotation teacher education and technological expertise this book is ideally designed for educators administrators academicians researchers and students seeking current research on digital and physical annotation methods and strategies and their applications in educational environments
