Being And Becoming Old Perspectives On Aging And Human Development:

Being and Becoming Old Jon Hendricks, 2019-05-20 How does aging affect the interaction between people and their social environment This intriguing book examines that question from various perspectives exploring in detail the social and psychological dimensions of the aging process Drawing on the insights of many disciplines articles investigate such issues as subjectively evaluated age facts influencing adjustment and attitudes projections and perceptions of competence

Perspectives on Aging and Human Development Series: Being and becoming old ,1980 The International Journal of Aging & Human Development ,2002 The Need for Theory Simon Biggs, Jon Hendricks, Ariela Lowenstein, 2020-11-25 The Need for Theory speaks to the burgeoning need for critical thinking in social gerontology The editors have brought together some of the foremost contributors to theoretical advances in the field This volume incorporates state of the art theorizing with a focus on selected topical areas facing gerontologists around the world Using their keen insights into substantive issues the contributors examine personal and structural changes affecting individuals over the life course Extolling the need for theory is not enough the contributors focus their insights on a panoply of substantive issues linking the personal with the political and with the structural parameters that shape the process of aging no matter where it occurs Subjective Views of Aging Yuval Palgi, Amit Shrira, Manfred Diehl, 2022-08-26 This book focuses on the concept of subjective views of aging This concept refers to the way individuals conceptualize and perceive the aging process Social and cultural perceptions regarding older adults are incorporated and internalized into views people hold regarding their own aging process The book contains three parts which present theoretical empirical and translational perspectives about subjective views of aging The theoretical section expands the framework of subjective views of aging with the inclusion of additional concepts and further integrates these concepts by accounting for their synergistic effects The empirical section presents recent developments in the field starting at the intra individual level as assessed by ecological momentary assessments going through the level of interpersonal relationships and concluding at the social and cultural levels Finally the translational section presents recent endeavours to develop interventions aimed at advancing favourable views of aging This cutting edge edited book includes chapters written by internationally renowned scholars in the field and serves as an up to date resource for scholars in the field as well as a textbook for students in courses like social gerontology lifespan psychology and life course sociology Serving the Elderly Paul Kim, 2017-07-12 Broadly speaking there are two kinds of professional practice skills relevant to the burgeoning field of gerontological human service clinical modalities and macro strategies This book identifies seven essential approaches to clinical gerontology including five of the most important macro skills that all professionals in the field will need to acquire and it presents each of them in a single collection intended to serve as a basic text and reference work for academic and in service training Each contributor to this volume speaks with recognized expertise on his her preferred subject while mindful of the larger purpose of the collection as a whole In a concluding chapter

Dr Kim draws on his own long and successful experience in obtaining financial support for his programs and provides a wealth of useful information on the preparation of grant proposals and the conduct of other fundraising activities. Serving the Elderly is adaptable to the uses of a wide variety of geriatric health care providers from students and trainees in social work, clinical psychology, and other care giving professions to already established practitioners who are branching out in gerontology.

Adult Development and Aging Abstracts, 1968 Being and becoming old, 1980 Ebersole & Hess' Toward Healthy Aging - E-Book Theris A. Touhy, Kathleen F Jett, 2013-08-07

Grounded in the core competencies recommended by the AACN in collaboration with the Hartford Institute for Geriatric Nursing, Ebersole Hess Toward Healthy Aging 8th Edition is the most comprehensive resource on health promotion and maintenance for older adults and their caregivers. With coverage of communication, safety, and ethical considerations, new genetic research, key aging issues, and common and uncommon conditions, you will have the knowledge you need to promote healthy lifestyle choices, properly address end of life issues, and provide effective holistic care for older adults. Consistent chapter organization with objectives, case studies with critical thinking questions, and research questions make information easy to access and use. A strong focus on health and wellness emphasizes a positive approach to aging. Disease processes are discussed in the context of healthy adaptation, nursing support, and responsibilities. Research highlights help incorporate the latest research findings into practice. Nutrition chapter includes the most current guidelines for older adults and addresses patients' dietary needs. Scales and guidelines for proper health assessment provide the essential information for assessing the older adult patient. Case studies with critical thinking questions offer realistic situations to expand your knowledge and understanding. Careful attention to age, cultural, and gender differences are integrated throughout and highlight important considerations when caring for older adults. Content grounded in the core competencies offers the knowledge needed to achieve the National League for Nursing ACES program's Essential Nursing Actions and meets the Recommended Baccalaureate Competencies and Curricular Guidelines for the Nursing Care of Older Adults, the Geriatric Nursing Education State of the Science Papers, and the Hartford Institute for Geriatric Nursing Best Practices in Nursing Care of Older Adults. NEW QSEN content highlights quality and safety issues students need to know when treating older patients. NEW Chapter covering the role of communication emphasizes the importance of communication in improving care. NEW Focus on genetics highlights the vast amount of new genetic research and its effects on all aspects of health and aging. NEW Information on ethical considerations explores and illustrates potential issues when dealing with older adults. NEW Healthy People 2020 information assists your students in integrating their knowledge about healthy aging considerations into care.
