At the Margins of the Modern State Seyla Benhabib, 2025-03-20 The international order of the post WW II period is in disarray The sounds of war can be heard all around us from Ukraine to Gaza from Darfur to the Congo and there is growing skepticism towards human rights and democracy the rule of law and peace among peoples Facile expressions such as Eurocentrism and demise of the West and the rise of the rest miss the real challenge in this situation how to extend moral legal and political universalism to address the experiences of the multitude of humanity for whom western modernity has brought not only equality but also subordination not only emancipation but also domination Benhabib argues that rethinking this universalist project and participating in world building together can be achieved by reconstructing and retrieving the best insights of critical social theory in the Frankfurt tradition and the liberal Kantianism of Rawls and Dworkin In that spirit this volume addresses state and popular sovereignty Third World approaches to International Law the 1951 Refugee Convention and climate change legislation while focusing on the changing fortunes of the European Union and cosmopolitanism Benhabib engages with postcolonial thinkers and argues that although validity claims and relations of domination and inequality are often intermixed it is possible to reconstruct the insights of international law to serve a more inclusive universalism and world building This vibrant defense of human rights and universal norms in an age of political skepticism and extremism will appeal to a wide readership and will be of particular interest to students and scholars in political theory critical theory and law
