Autocrats And Academics Education Culture And Society In Tsarist Russia:

Autocrats and Academics James C. McClelland, 1979 Between Tsar and People Edith W. Clowes, Samuel D. Kassow, James L. West, 1991-03-21 This interdisciplinary collection of essays on the social and cultural life of late imperial Russia describes the struggle of new elites to take up a middle position in society between tsar and people During this period autonomous social and cultural institutions pluralistic political life and a dynamic economy all seemed to be emerging Russia was experiencing a sense of social possibility akin to that which Gorbachev wishes to reanimate in the Soviet Union But then as now diversity had as its price the potential for political disorder and social dissolution Analyzing the attempt of educated Russians to forge new identities this book reveals the social cultural and regional fragmentation of the times The contributors are Harley Balzer John E Bowlt Joseph Bradley William C Brumfield Edith W Clowes James M Curtis Ben Eklof Gregory L Freeze Abbott Gleason Samuel D Kassow Mary Louise Loe Louise McReynolds Sidney Monas John O Norman Daniel T Orlovsky Thomas C Owen Alfred Rieber Bernice G Rosenthal Christine Ruane Charles E Timberlake William Wagner and James L West Samuel D Kassow has written a conclusion to the volume Students, Professors, and the State in Tsarist Russia Samuel D. Kassow, 1989-01-01 The first systematic and exhaustive study of one of the most important social and political developments in pre October Russia It ranks among the best studies in modern Russian history Alexander Vucinich author of Empire of Knowledge and Darwin in Russian Thought Cultivating Nationhood in Imperial Russia Lisa Khachaturian, 2018-02-06 Nineteenth century Armenia was a zone of competition between the Persian Ottoman and the Russian Empires Yet over the course of the century a new generation of Armenian journalists scholars and writers worked to transform their geographically socially and linguistically fragmented communities threatened by regional isolation and dissent into a patriotic and nationally conscious population Lisa Khachaturian seeks to explain how this profoundly divided society managed to achieve a common cultural bond The national project that captivated nineteenth century Eastern Armenian intellectuals was a daunting task especially since their efforts were directed in the Caucasus a territory known for its volatile history its ethnic heterogeneity and its linguistic complexity Although this cultural and social maelstrom was both aggravated and tempered by the new Russian arena of economic growth urban development and heightened technology and communication diversity was hardly a recent phenomenon in the region it had been an endemic part of Caucasian history for centuries Armenians were no exception to this While the Georgians bound to their landed nobility generally lived within kingdoms the Armenians experienced centuries of forced resettlement migration and centuries of habitation among other peoples Some Armenians had settled in faraway countries but many remained in scattered colonies within the boundaries of historic Armenia This is a study of the formation of modern Armenian national consciousness under Imperial Russian rule The Tsarist acquisition of Armenian populated territory and consequent efforts to integrate this territory into the empire imposed sufficient unity to provide a basis for a nascent national movement The particular influences of Russian imperial rule met the Eastern Armenian communities to create a new environment for a modern national revival This book reviews how nineteenth century Armenian intellectuals discussed and conceived of the nation through the formation of the Armenian press This is a rare blend of national culture and communication networking Literary Scholarship in Late Imperial Russia (1870s-1917) Andy Byford,2017-12-02 The turn of the twentieth century was a decisive moment in the institutionalisation of Russia s literary scholarship This is the first book in the English language to provide an in depth analysis of the emergence of Russia s literary academia in the pre Revolutionary era In particular Byford examines the rhetoric of self representation of major academic establishments devoted to literary study the canonisation of exemplary literary historians and philologists Buslaev Grot Veselovskii Potebnia Ovsianiko Kulikovskii and attempts by Russian literary academics of this era to define their work as a distinct form of scholarship nauka By analysing a range of academic rituals from celebrations of institutional anniversaries to professors inaugural lectures and by dissecting the discourse of scholars obituaries commemorative speeches and manuals in scholarly methodology Byford reveals how the identity of literary studies as a discipline was constructed in Russia He provides not only a unique insight into fin de siecle Russian literary scholarship but also an original approach to academic institutionalisation more widely Masculinity, Autocracy and the Russian University, 1804-1863 R. Friedman,2004-11-30 This is the first book length study of masculinity in Imperial Russia By looking at official and unofficial life at universities across the Russian empire this project offers a picture of the complex processes through which gender ideologies were forged and negotiated in the Nineteenth Century Masculinity Autocracy and the Russian University 1804 1863 demonstrates how gender was critical to political life in a European monarchy The Academic World in the Era of the Great War Marie-Eve Chagnon,Tomás Irish,2017-10-17 This book examines the ways in which scholarly expertise was mobilized during the First World War and the consequences of this for the inter connected academic world that had developed in the late nineteenth century Adopting a strong international approach the contributors to this volume examine the impact of the War on individuals institutions and disciplines cumulatively demonstrating the strong afterlife of conflict for scholarly practices and academic communities across Europe and North America in the decades following the cessation of the Great War Late Tsarist Russia, 1881-1913 Beryl Williams,2020-09-17 This book brings together the large volume of work on late Tsarist Russia published over the last 30 years to show an overall picture of Russia under the last two tsars before the war brought down not only the Russian empire but also those of Germany Austria Hungary and Turkey It turns the attention from the old emphases on workers revolutionaries and a reactionary government to a more diverse and nuanced picture of a country which was both a major European great power facing the challenges of modernization and industrialization and also a multi ethnic and multi confessional empire stretching across both Europe and Asia Beyond the Pale Benjamin Nathans,2002 A surprising number of Jews lived literally and figuratively beyond the Pale of Jewish Settlement in tsarist Russia during the half century before the Revolution of 1917 This text reinterprets the history of the Russian Jewish encounter using long closed Russian archives and other sources Women's Struggle for Higher Education in Russia, 1855-1900 Christine Johanson, 1987-01-01 Unlike contemporary Soviet and Western accounts which emphasize the involvement of educated women in the revolutionary movement Christine Johanson investigates the relationship between developments in women's education and domestic politics of the post Crimean War era The author shows how the particular nature of autocratic rule under Alexander II facilitated the establishment of university level courses for women and demonstrates that Russian women who cooperated with the government in order to increase their educational opportunities far outnumbered the female revolutionists who sought to overthrow it And while acknowledging that Russian radicalism gave enormous encouragement to women's pursuit of university study this book shows that it was the support of progressive statesmen and academics which allowed the creation of higher educational facilities for women The attitudes aspirations and frustrations of women who enrolled in these educational facilities are also examined Considerable attention is given to the training and practice of female physicians and to the testing of their skills and commitment to social service in tradition bound peasant villages and the field hospitals of the Russo Turkish war The concluding chapter explored the conservative reaction following the assassination of Alexander II and the subsequent closure of women's advanced educational facilities
