Encyclopedia of Distance Learning, Second Edition Rogers, Patricia L.,Berg, Gary A.,Boettcher, Judith V.,Howard, Caroline,Justice, Lorraine,Schenk, Karen D.,2009-01-31 Offers comprehensive coverage of the issues concepts trends and technologies of distance learning International Handbook of Literacy and Technology Michael C. McKenna,Linda D. Labbo,Ronald D. Kieffer,David Reinking,2013-01-11 This Handbook provides a comprehensive and international representation of state of the art research theory and practice related to principal areas in which significant developments are occurring in the study of literacy and technology It offers a glimpse of the commonalities faced by literacy educators around the world together with specific challenges raised by unique circumstances Volume I of this Handbook endeavored to lay essential groundwork for the study of literacy and technology it retains an explanatory value that will not weaken over time Volume II differs considerably in conception It assumes for the most part a higher level of expertise on the part of readers and the projects and applications described by the contributors are characterized by greater sophistication The scope of technology use is broader and the challenges that have emerged are in sharper focus A powerful feature of this volume is the addition of commentaries from experts across the field on the potential of technology in key dimensions of literacy The title of Volume II has changed slightly to reflect the inclusion of contributions on a broad geographic basis It is now a truly international Handbook with chapter authors from six countries and five continents The International Handbook of Literacy and Technology Volume II is organized in five sections The Role of Technology in the New Literacies Technology Applications with Specific Populations Literacy Software and the Internet Teacher Education and Professional Development and The Potential of Technology in Key Dimensions of Literacy The effects of technology on literate activity have been both sweeping and subtle marked by an increasing variety of changes that are difficult to evaluate and project Perhaps the only prediction that can be offered with certainty is that the impact of technology is irreversible Specific changes may come and go but literacy and technology seem inextricably linked This Handbook is dedicated to that linkage and to examining the intricacies that define it International Handbook of Literacy and Technology Volume II is an essential reference for researchers professionals and students in reading literacy education literacy and technology educational technology and related areas and will serve well as a text for upper level and graduate courses on these topics The Oxford Handbook of the History of Education John L. Rury,Eileen H. Tamura,2019-06-17 This handbook offers a global view of the historical development of educational institutions systems of schooling ideas about education and educational experiences Its 36 chapters consider changing scholarship in the field examine nationally oriented works by comparing themes and approaches lend international perspective on a range of issues in education and provide suggestions for further research and analysis Like many other subfields of historical analysis the history of education has been deeply affected by global processes of social and political change especially since the 1960s The handbook weighs the influence of various interpretive perspectives including revisionist viewpoints taking particular note of changes in the past half century Contributors consider how schooling and other educational experiences have been shaped by the larger social and political context and how these influences have affected the experiences of students their families and the educators who have worked with them The Handbook provides insight and perspective on a wide range of topics including pre modern education colonialism and anti colonial struggles indigenous education minority issues in education comparative international and transnational education childhood education non formal and informal education and a range of other issues Each contribution includes endnotes and a bibliography for readers interested in further study

Feminist Cyberspaces Sharon Collingwood,Alvina E. Quintana,Caroline J. Smith,2012-01-17 Feminist Cyberspaces Pedagogies in Transition is a collection of essays exploring the ways in which new media technologies are being used in the feminist classroom The collection has been structured to reflect the multifaceted nature of education today Learning takes place on a personal level through independent study and social media it takes place at a local level in our classrooms and lecture halls but it is also increasingly taking place on a global scale as new technologies foster international collaboration between individuals and organizations In addition there is a growing acceptance of learning in the collaborative 3D classrooms of virtual worlds These educational spaces are not mutually exclusive as the contributions to this volume make clear The anthology explores how technology is being used in antiviolence teaching art education HIV and AIDS education and other specialized topics but it also gives many examples of innovations in teaching introductory courses The technology used ranges from the implementation of course management systems for large university classes to the use of digital storytelling in small groups outside the university It also explores technology for removing barriers to people with disabilities in both traditional and online classrooms The collection is not a how to book but it does use practical experience as a basis for feminist theorizing of the classroom All of the essays look at the use of new technology in the light of feminist pedagogy seeking new ways to foster provocative creative and non hierarchical learning that transcends the physical boundaries of the university

Sustainable and Democratic Education Sarah Chave,2020-12-20 In a world struggling with environmental and social problems resistant to current solutions education needs to explore ways to enlarge the space of the possible rather than only replicate the existing possible To respond to this challenge this book troubles dominant Western philosophical conceptions which continue to have wide ranging influence in education worldwide and which limit more sustainable ways to be in the world together It argues for the importance of opening spaces in and through which unique subjects can emerge bringing potential for new ways of being and as yet unimagined futures The book makes a valuable contribution to international growing interest in Arendtian thinking complexity and emergence feminist thinking the emerging field of anticipation studies the posthuman and engagement with Indigenous scholarship and practices in ways which attempt to be non appropriating Sustainability continues to be a vital theme in education and the book responds to a desire to encourage education which invites more sustainable processes and ways of being in addition to education which limits itself to teaching about or for sustainability Sustainable and Democratic Education will be of great interest to academics and practitioners working with sustainability Indigenous scholarship complexity theory and the posthuman and what these ideas can mean in and for education
