STYLE MANUAL & EDITION

This is a brief guide to American Psychological Association (APA) and Modern Language Association (MLA) rules used in academic writing.

Important: The styles created in this guide are accurate according to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association 7th edition (2020) and the MLA Handbook 8th edition (2016). Each time APA and MLA guidelines are revised, changes and additions must be made to guide this website.

APA STYLE 7th Edition

What is APA Style?

• APA style does not refer to a writing style, rather, it is the editorial style developed by the American Psychological Association for use in the fields and journals of psychology. Other social and behavioral sciences have also adopted APA style for their own written material.

• Editorial style refers to the rules or guidelines published when it comes to consistent presentation of written materials. It includes:

- Presentation and abbreviations
- References citations
- Table construction
- Using electronic references
- Handling references
- Presenting statistics

• Plagiarism: It is expected that researchers will give proper credit for their research and not present the work of others as their own.

- Self-plagiarism: Researchers should not present their own past publications as new scholarship.

Conflict of Interest

- It is best to note any activities or relationships that could appear to constitute a conflict of interest, even if the researcher doesn't believe they exist.
