oppression An Apology for Abolitionists Meriden Anti-Slavery Society, 2015-07-08 Excerpt from An Apology for Abolitionists Addressed by the Anti Slavery Society of Meriden Conn To Their Fellow Citizens A regard for your good opinion and a wish to promote the cause which as Abolitionists lies near our hearts is our motive for addressing you We think the opposition to our enterprise arises either from commercial political or domestic connections with Slavery or from misapprehensions respecting our principles measures and prospects We desire no better means of overcoming these obstacles than a fair statement of facts and to this we now solicit your attention Declaration Of Sentiments We believe that all men are born free and equal and endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights among which are life liberty and the pursuit of happiness We believe Slavery is an infraction of these rights a violation of the principles of Christianity and under all circumstances sinful We believe that Slavery is a great national evil political as well as moral opposed to the genius of a republican government highly dangerous to the peace and permanency of the Union and if persisted in destined to bring upon us the severest judgments of Heaven We believe the immediate abolition of slavery would be safe and wise and that it is the duty of every friend of humanity to use all fair and just means for its accomplishment We believe we have a right to express and publish our opinions respecting the customs and institutions of the people of this and every other country and if we think them in any degree immoral unequal or oppressive we are under the highest obligations in the exercise of all honest and lawful means to change them We believe that Slavery in the several states can be lawfully abolished only by the legislatures of the states in which it prevails and that the exercise of any other than moral means to induce such abolition is unconstitutional We believe that Congress has a right to abolish Slavery in the District of Columbia and in the Territories and to prohibit the slave trade between the states and that the exercise of this right is required by the divine law and by the interests of our country About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Catalogue of Books and Pamphlets Principally Relating to America

Edward P. Boon, 1870 The Civic Constitution Elizabeth Beaumont, 2014-01-20 The role of the Constitution in American political history is contentious not simply because of battles over meaning Equally important is precisely who participated in contests over meaning Was it simply judges or did legislatures have a strong say And what about the public's role in effecting constitutional change In The Civic Constitution Elizabeth Beaumont focuses on the last category and traces the efforts of citizens to reinvent constitutional democracy during four crucial eras the revolutionaries of the 1770s and 1780s the civic founders of state republics and the national Constitution in the early national period abolitionists during the antebellum and

Civil War eras and finally suffragists of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Throughout she argues that these groups should be recognized as founders and co founders of the U S Constitution Though often slighted in modern constitutional debates these women and men developed distinctive constitutional creeds and practices challenged existing laws and social norms expanded the boundaries of citizenship and sought to translate promises of liberty equality and justice into more robust and concrete forms Their civic ideals and struggles not only shaped the text design and public meaning of the U S Constitution but reconstructed its membership and transformed the fundamental commitments of the American political community An innovative expansion on the concept of popular constitutionalism The Civic Constitution is a vital contribution to the growing body of literature on how ordinary people have shaped the parameters of America s fundamental laws
