Resources in Education ,2001-04      Reforming a School System, Reviving a City G. Maeroff,2013-11-19 Can a bold investment in education turn around the economy of an entire city Gene I Maeroff former national education correspondent for the New York Times explores how the nonprofit group Say Yes to Education has instituted a network of reforms in Syracuse New York that aim to expand the city s the middle class by supporting its children      Food Quality and Consumer Value Monika J.A. Schröder,2013-03-09 Consumer markets for foods and beverages in developed countries are well supplied and highly fragmented Yet the question being asked is how close retailers actually come to fulfilling their customers requirements The concept of consumer value is one of the main pillars underpinning the theory of market differentiation This book takes an interdisciplinary approach to the analysis of satisfaction in relation to the consumption of food with both food science and consumer science playing central parts It approaches food quality from both the technical and the consumer satisfaction perspectives and assesses the roles of management and regulatory tools in delivering food quality for all Each area is discussed in detail using the appropriate technical terminology but keeping the text accessible to readers from both academic traditions as well as to non specialist readers      The Education Index ,1988      Science John Michels (Journalist),1888 Since Jan 1901 the official proceedings and most of the papers of the American Association for the Advancement of Science have been included in Science      Equity-Based Career Development and Postsecondary Transitions Erik M. Hines,Laura Owen,2022-03-01 Former First Lady Michelle Obama believes that every individual should have some type of postsecondary education or training beyond high school to achieve economic and personal success Reach Higher Initiative Better Make Room 2019 Educational attainment e g a high school diploma college degree or postsecondary training provides career opportunities for advancement into leadership positions and benefits such as health insurance and retirement Heckman 2000 Additionally an individual with a college degree can make over one million dollars more over a lifetime in salary than someone with a high school diploma Carnevale Cheah Hanson 2015 Acquiring a college degree can lead to employment opportunities and is considered an asset in the U S economy Washington 2010 However certain populations encounter barriers to attaining an education particularly a postsecondary education leading to a disparity in receiving the aforementioned benefits Some of these populations include African American students LGBTQ students and students with disabilities There is a dearth of information and research on providing guidance on implementation research and best practices in equity based career development college readiness and successful postsecondary transitions for minoritized at risk or vulnerable populations The editors of this volume invited authors with research and practice expertise around various student populations in preparing them for college and career readiness as well as postsecondary transitions This book is the first of its kind to discuss career development and postsecondary transitions from an access and equity perspective Further this text serves as a call to action to ensure the United States most vulnerable populations has an opportunity to successfully transition into multiple postsecondary options after high school      Research in Education ,1971
