Apartheid And Beyond South African Writers And The Politics Of Place:

Apartheid and Beyond Rita Barnard, 2012-08-01 Apartheid and Beyond explores a wide range of South African writings to demonstrate the way apartheid functioned in its day to day operations as a geographical system of control exerting its power through such spatial mechanisms as residential segregation bantustans passes and prisons

Apartheid and Beyond Rita Barnard, 2007 This is a contribution to the study of South African literature offering readings of writers like Coetzee Gordimer Fugard Tlali and Mda Focusing on the relationship between place subjectivity and literary form the text enhances our understanding of apartheid as a geographical form of control

Apartheid and Beyond Rita Barnard, 2012-09-13 Apartheid and Beyond explores a wide range of South African writings to demonstrate the way apartheid functioned in its day to day operations as a geographical system of control exerting its power through such spatial mechanisms as residential segregation bantustans passes and prisons

South African Writing in Transition Rita Barnard, Andrew van der Vlies, 2019-02-21 Bringing together leading and emerging scholars this book asks the question how has contemporary South African literature grappled with ideas of time and history during the political transition away from apartheid Reading the work of major South African writers such as J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer and Ivan Vladislavic as well as contemporary crime fiction South African Writing in Transition explores how concerns about time and temporality have shaped literary form across the country's literary culture Establishing new connections between leading literary voices and lesser known works the book explores themes of truth and reconciliation disappointment and betrayal

The Aesthetic Cold War Peter J. Kalliney, 2022-10-04 How decolonization and the cold war influenced literature from Africa Asia and the Caribbean How did superpower competition and the cold war affect writers in the decolonizing world In The Aesthetic Cold War Peter Kalliney explores the various ways that rival states used cultural diplomacy and the political police to influence writers In response many writers from Africa Asia and the Caribbean such as Chinua Achebe Mulk Raj Anand Eileen Chang C L R James Alex La Guma Doris Lessing Ng g wa Thiong o and Wole Soyinka carved out a vibrant conceptual space of aesthetic nonalignment imagining a different and freer future for their work Kalliney looks at how the United States and the Soviet Union in an effort to court writers funded international conferences arts centers book and magazine publishing literary prizes and radio programming International spy networks however subjected these same writers to surveillance and intimidation by tracking their movements tapping their phones reading their mail and censoring or banning their work Writers from the global south also suffered travel restrictions deportations imprisonment and even death at the hands of government agents Although conventional wisdom suggests that cold war pressures stunted the development of postcolonial literature Kalliney's extensive archival research shows that evenly balanced superpower competition allowed savvy writers to accept patronage without pledging loyalty to specific political blocs Likewise writers exploited rivalries and the emerging discourse of human rights to contest the attentions of the political police A revisionist account of superpower involvement in literature The Aesthetic Cold War considers how politics shaped literary production in the twentieth century Nelson Mandela Elleke Boehmer,2023 This second edition of Nelson Mandela VSI focuses on a far reaching critical look at meanings of reconciliation and Mandela s ethic of reciprocity Writing, Politics and Change in South Africa after Apartheid Christopher Warnes,2023-06-08 This book considers South African writing for what it tells us about politics culture and change after apartheid The Law and the Prophets Daniel R. Magaziner,2010-09-07 The 1970s are a decade virtually lost to South African historiography This span of years bridged the banning and exile of the country s best known antiapartheid leaders in the early 1960s and the furious protests that erupted after the Soweto uprisings of June 16 1976 The Law and the Prophets is an intellectual history of the resistance movement between 1968 and 1977 it follows the formation early trials and ultimate dissolution of the Black Consciousness movement Magaziner argues that only by understanding how ideas about race faith and selfhood developed and were transformed in this period might we begin to understand the dramatic changes that took place Literary Expressions of African Spirituality Carol P. Marsh-Lockett,Elizabeth J. West,2013-04-11 With a focus on the connected spiritual legacy of the black Atlantic Literary Expressions of African Spirituality leads the way to more comprehensive trans geographical studies of African spirituality in black art With essays focusing on African spirituality in creative works by several trans Atlantic black authors across varying locations in the Ameri Atlantic diaspora this collection reveals and examines their shared spiritual cosmology Diasporic in scope Literary Expressions of African Spirituality offers new readings of black literatures through the prism of spiritual memory that survived the damaging impact of trans Atlantic slaving This memory is a significant thread that has often been missed in the reading and teaching of the literatures of the African diaspora Essays in this collection explore unique black angles of seeing and ways of knowing that characterize African spiritual presence and influence in trans Atlantic black artistic productions Essays exploring works ranging from turn of the century African American figure W E B DuBois South African novelist Zakes Mda Haitian novelists Edwidge Danticat and Jacques Roumain as well as African belief systems such as Voudoun and Candomble provide a scope not yet offered in a single published volume This collection explores the deep and often unconscious spiritual and psychosocial connectedness of people of African descent in the African and Ameri Atlantic world Precarious Eating Ben Jamieson Stanley,2024-12-10 The role of food and hunger in contemporary South African and Indian environmental writing From GMOs to vegetarianism and veganism questions of what we should and shouldn t eat can be frequent sources of debate and disagreement In Precarious Eating Ben Jamieson Stanley asks how recentring global South representations of food might shift understandings of environmental precarity Precarious Eating follows the lead of writers and thinkers in South Africa and India who are tracing the production and consumption of food exploring ways to reconnect our narratives about climate change global capitalism and social justice Taking up a diverse range of novels films scholar activist writings intellectual histories and cookbooks Stanley connects the ethics of eating to histories of empire and apartheid uneven globalization gender and sexuality and global South experiences of climate change They shift the lens of environmental humanities from climate focused paradigms developed in the global North to food focused environmental culture and activism in the South addressing topics that range from foraging and farmer suicides to disordered eating and queer intimacy By highlighting authors activists and environments of the global South Precarious Eating joins with scholarship from postcolonial decolonial Indigenous and Black studies to underscore how capitalism and empire shape our planetary environmental crisis Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions
