Bold Romantic Gardens Wolfgang Oehme, Susan Rademacher Frey, James Van Sweden, 1935 The Planting Design Handbook Nick Robinson, 2020-09-10 Since the first edition was published in 1992 Nick Robinson's The Planting Design Handbook has been widely used as a definitive text on landscape architecture courses throughout the world. It remains one of the few titles written by a practicing landscape architect and educator who is also a horticulturalist and accomplished plantsman and which deals with the application of planting design on a large scale in landscape architecture and urban design projects. The Planting Design Handbook is distinctive for its elegant integration of an ecological approach with an understanding of visual and spatial composition. It emphasizes the role of vegetation layers and designed plant communities in complex and diverse plant assemblages for all kinds of sites and uses. This expanded and comprehensively updated third edition still provides a complete examination of principles and practice of design for public institutional and private landscapes. It takes account of developments in theory and practice especially in the use of perennials and reflects a variety of media and approaches current in landscape architecture and design. All chapters have been revised and re-written to ensure updated references and new references have been added. Many new photographs of planting and projects around the world have been included with examples of current professional drawings to illustrate the design process. It is generously illustrated including a colour section and the beautifully detailed line drawings of the Chinese architect and painter Jia Hua Wu.

The Modern Garden Jane Brown, 2000-10 The Modern Garden is the first fully illustrated overview of the great gardens of the twentieth century. It examines hundreds of gardens created throughout the century and around the world from the works of Geoffrey Jellicoe to Roberto Burle Marx. Russell Page to Dan Kiley. BOOKJACKET

The Planting Design Handbook, 2017-07-05 Since the first edition was published in 1992 Nick Robinson's The Planting Design Handbook has been widely used as a definitive text on landscape architecture courses throughout the world. It examines the horticultural, ecological and aesthetic characteristics of plants, discusses the structural and decorative roles of planting, spatial composition, species selection, planting plans and spacing and the vital role of management. With its fresh look at aesthetic principles and its analysis of the design process, it reveals how a systematic approach can allow the greatest freedom for the creative imagination. This revised second edition still provides a complete examination of both the principles and the practice of design with plants for public institutional and private landscapes, taking account of developments in professional practice and reflecting a variety of media and approaches currently used. It incorporates conceptual design approaches to planting a range of design methods as well as tried and tested analytical and objective procedures and a wide range of new international examples of planting design. The ecological basis for planting design has been broadened to include examples from warm temperate and subtropical vegetation types as well as those of the cool temperate and Mediterranean climate area.
