Bond of Perfection Wendy M. Wright, 1985 Bond of Perfection Wendy M. Wright, 2001 The Heirs of St. Teresa of Avila: Defenders and Disseminators of the Founding Mother's Legacy Christopher Chadwick Wilson, 2006 This issue of Carmelite Studies presents new insights into the lives and writings of individuals who knew Teresa of Avila in life and who after her death in 1582 worked to propagate and defend her legacy including the illustrious nuns Ana de San Bartolome Ana de Jesus Mar a de San Jos and Ana de San Agust n and her close male confidant and collaborator Jer nimo Graci n de la Madre de Dios A further focus of the essays is the reception of the Teresian heritage by individuals outside the order as mediated by these early Discalced Carmelites and by Teresa's published writings More Information The essays were originally presented at the 2004 symposium The Heirs of St Teresa at Georgetown University That year marked the 400th anniversary of a pivotal moment in Discalced Carmelite history the arrival in France of a group of six nuns some of Teresa's most favored protégés including Ana de Jesus and Ana de San Bartolome who traveled from Spain to inaugurate the order's first French convent Motivated by devotion to their Founding Mother amidst success and setbacks these and other of Teresa's heirs strove to carry out her will with a resolute determination and to extend her reputation for sanctity throughout the world ICS Publications is pleased to issue this volume in its series Carmelite Studies conjointly with the Institutum Carmelitanum of the Carmelites of the Ancient Observance in Rome Introduction to the Devout Life Francis De Sales, 2002-04-09 A compassionate treasure that guides seekers through practical ways of attaining a devout life without renouncing the world and offers prayers and meditations to strengthen devotion in the face of temptation and hardship Francis de Sales's Introduction to the Devout Life has remained a uniquely accessible and relevant treasure of devotion for nearly four hundred years As Bishop of Geneva in the first quarter of the seventeenth century Francis de Sales saw to the spiritual needs of everyone from the poorest peasants to court ladies The desire to be closer to God that he found in people from all levels of society led him to compile these instructions on how to live in Christ The Disciplined Heart Caroline J. Simon, 1997-03-25 Often what passes for love is a product of self deception and wishful thinking Genuine love according to philosopher Caroline J Simon must be based on knowledge of reality and Christianity affirms that reality includes not just who people are but the unfolding story of who God intends them to be Taking the use of narrative seriously The Disciplined Heart draws on works of literature to display a Christian understanding of love in its various forms love of self love of neighbor friendship romantic love and marital love Using instances of love and its counterfeits in novels and short stories by such authors as Flannery O Connor Leo Tolstoy George Eliot and F Scott Fitzgerald Simon constructs an account of love's joys and obligations that both charms and instructs Learned astute and elegantly written The Disciplined Heart is a groundbreaking work at the intersection of theology philosophy and literary analysis The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Christian Mysticism Julia A. Lamm, 2017-02-06 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Christian Mysticism brings together a team of leading international scholars to explore the origins evolution and contemporary debates relating to Christian mystics texts and the movements they inspired Provides a comprehensive and engaging account of Christian mysticism from its origins right up to the present day Draws on the best of current scholarship by bringing together a collection of newly commissioned readings by leading scholars Considers examples of mysticism in both Eastern and Western Christianity Offers a brilliant synthesis of the key figures and historical periods of mysticism its core themes such as heresy gender or aesthetics and its theoretical considerations including theological literary social scientific and philosophical approaches Features chapters on current debates such as neuroscience and mystical experience and inter religious dialogue

The Concept of Freedom in the Writings of St. Francis de Sales Eunan McDonnell,2009 Through the examination of the concept of freedom in the writings of St Francis de Sales the author concludes that in contradistinction to a contemporary understanding of freedom perceived as self determination a Salesian understanding privileges freedom s relationship to the good This situates St Francis de Sales in the classical Thomistic tradition of freedom s necessary relationship to the good but involves a methodological shift as he employs the Renaissance starting point of the turn to the subject This study demonstrates how St Francis arrives inductively at what St Thomas demonstrated deductively namely the essential relationship of freedom to the good Along with this Thomistic influence the author analyses the Salesian indebtedness to Augustinian anthropology which explains the primacy St Francis gives to the will and consequently to love Love understood as the heart s movement towards the good allows the Salesian approach to move beyond the confines of a traditional faculty psychology to embrace a more biblical understanding of the human person This examination of love s relationship to freedom reveals their teleological and archaeological natures coming back to our origins wherein we discover the source of our freedom bestowed on us as a gift from God

From Monks to Missionaries Nicki Verploegen,2013-02-01 Have you ever wondered what the difference between the Franciscans and Jesuits is Have you been curious about how a monk s life differs from a missionary s and about the origins of these traditions This book explores how four distinct types of spirituality evolved in Christianity over the centuries as a response to various needs in different eras These all became schools of spiritual formation This book introduces monasticism mendicancy apostolic ministry and missionary life as umbrella categories out of which many religious communities formed It explores thirteen of these different communities introducing you to the founders and the original fire that moved each of them to create something new This book provides historical background and explores the rich legacy of the founders of each of these communities It vibrantly shows how the story of the church as a whole has been enriched and blessed by these feisty controversial and saintly sages whose radical choice to follow the Spirit led them into new terrain and resulted in the emergence of a diversity of forms of spiritual lifestyles From within this treasure house of Christian riches we can draw support and inspiration to contribute our own stories and pass on this legacy to those who come after

A Simple Life Kathryn Hermes,2019-03-25 How do I put all the pieces of my life together How can I keep my focus on God when novelty and consumerism constantly pull me in different directions Saint Jane Frances de Chantal's steadfast pursuit of inner simplicity of life in God offers rest to our psyches and spirits Her gentle counsels illustrate how to live in harmony with God's will and thus find peace

Episcopal Reform and Politics in Early Modern Europe Jennifer Mara DeSilva, 2012-09-18 In the tumultuous period of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries when ecclesiastical reform spread across Europe the traditional role of the bishop as a public exemplar of piety morality and communal administration came under attack In communities where there was tension between religious groups or between spiritual and secular governing bodies the bishop became a lightning rod for struggles over hierarchical authority and institutional autonomy These struggles were intensified by the ongoing negotiation of the episcopal role and by increased criticism of the cleric especially during periods of religious war and in areas that embraced reformed churches This volume contextualizes the diversity of episcopal experience across early modern Europe while showing the similarity of goals and challenges among various confessional social and geographical communities Until now there have been few studies that examine the spectrum of responses to contemporary challenges the high expectations and the continuing pressure bishops faced in their public role as living examples of Christian ideals Contributors include William V Hudon Jennifer Mara DeSilva Raymond A Powell Hans Cools Antonella Perin John Alexander John Christopoulos Jill Fehleison Linda Lierheimer Celeste McNamara Jean Pascal Gay
