Bonds That Make Us Free Healing Our Relationships Coming To Ourselves:

Bonds that Makes Us Free C. Terry Warner, 2001 Self Help Self-Action Leadership (Volume I) Jordan R. Jensen, 2019-08-30 Self Action Leadership Volumes 1 and 2 provides the first and only books of their kind in the academic world today This two volume set single handedly carves out a new and unique scholarly niche by providing the first comprehensive and secular manual to holistically address society's universal need for personal leadership and character education Its single minded aim is the global promotion and proliferation of leadership character and life skills education in nations communities organizations schools homes and individual lives everywhere The concept of Self Action Leadership SAL is rooted in 30 years of extensive research spanning the fields of self leadership leadership action research character education and autoethnography In addition to drawing on the scholarship of these extant fields SAL simultaneously builds upon them by introducing an original theory and model that executives administrators scholars teachers and practitioners alike can universally utilize to their own advantages and to the benefit of their colleagues subordinates and students Volume I The Self Action Leadership Theory contains prefacing material for the combined texts It also includes the first four book sections of the two volume set Dangerous Love Chad Ford, 2020-06-23 Chad Ford reminds us that humanity lies within all of us and although conflict is everywhere in today's world we have the tools we need to overcome obstacles and to thrive This is a fantastic timely book that I highly recommend Steve Kerr Head Coach Golden State Warriors Knowing how to transform conflict is critical in both our personal and professional lives Yet by and large we are terrible at it The reason says longtime mediator Chad Ford is fear When conflict comes our instincts are to run or fight To transform conflict Ford says we need to turn toward the people we are in conflict with put down our physical and emotional weapons and really love them with the kind of love that leads us to treat others as fellow human beings not as objects in our way We have to open ourselves up with no guarantee that anyone on the other side will do the same While this can feel even more dangerous than conflict itself it allows us to see the humanity of others so clearly that their needs and desires matter to us as much as our own Ford shows dangerous love in action through examples ranging from his work in the Middle East to a deeply moving story about reconciling with his father He explains why we disconnect from people at the very time we need to be most connected and the predictable patterns of justification and escalation that ensue Most importantly he gives us a path to practice dangerous love in the conflicts that matter most to us Exploring Mormon Thought Blake T. Ostler, 2006-03-01 In volume 2 of the series Exploring Mormon Thought The Problems of Theism and the Love of God Blake Ostler explores issues related to soteriology or the theory of salvation He argues that the commitment that God loves us and respects our dignity as persons entails that God must leave us free to choose whether to have a saving relationship with him He explores the logic of love and argues that the LDS doctrine of a war in heaven embodies the commitment that God leaves us free to choose whether to enter into relationship with God He explores the nature of inter personal prayer and the contributions of LDS beliefs to a robust prayer dialogue He offers a view consistent with LDS commitments that makes sense out of asking God to assist others to alter the natural environment and to grow in relationship with God He then turns to the concept of grace and argues that the traditional views lead to insurmountable problems He argues that though God does not owe any obligation to us to give us grace God does so out of love However because divinity arises from loving relationships he argues that God could not fail to give sufficient grace to all persons and remain a loving God Unleashing the Power of Unconditional
