Bonnie Prince Charlie A Tale Of Fontenoy And Culloden:

Bonnie Prince Charlie: A Tale of Fontenoy and Culloden George Alfred Henty, 2020-09-28 It was a dull evening in the month of September 1728 The apprentices had closed and barred the shutters and the day s work was over Supper was laid in the long room over the shop the viands were on the table and round it were standing Bailie Anderson and his wife his foreman John Gillespie and his two apprentices The latter were furtively eying the eatables and wondering how much longer the grace which their master was delivering would be Suddenly there was a knock at the door below No one stirred until the bailie had finished his grace before which time the knock had been twice repeated Elspeth woman the bailie said when he had brought the grace to an end go down below and see who knocks so impatiently look through the grille before you open the door these are nor times when one opens to the first stranger who knocks The old servant who had been standing behind her mistress went downstairs The door was opened and they heard an exclamation of surprise at the answer to her question Who is it that s knocking as if the house belonged to him Those gathered up stairs heard the bolts withdrawn There was a confused sound of talking and then a heavy step was heard ascending the stairs and without introduction a tall man wrapped in a cloak and carrying a child of some two years old strode into the room He threw his hat on to a settle and advanced straight towards the bailie who looked in surprise at this unceremonious entry Don t you know me Andrew Heaven preserve us the bailie exclaimed why it s Malcolm Malcolm himself the visitor repeated sound in wind and limb The Lord be praised the bailie exclaimed as he grasped the other s hand and wrung it warmly I had thought you dead years and years ago Janet this is my brother Malcolm of whom you have often heard me speak And of whom you can have heard little good mistress if my brother has spoken the truth concerning me I was ever a ne er do well while Andrew struck hard and fast to our father s trade My husband has ever spoken with affection of you Janet Anderson said The bailie is not given to speak ill of any much less of his own flesh and blood And now sit down Malcolm Supper is waiting and you are I doubt not ready for it It is ill talking to a fasting man When you have done you shall tell me what you have been doing for the last fifteen years and how it comes that you thus suddenly come back among us with your boy He is no boy of mine Malcolm said but I will tell you all about it presently First let me lay him down on that settle for the poor little chap is fast asleep and dead tired out Elspeth roll up my cloak and make a pillow for him That s right he will do nicely now You are changed less than any of us Elspeth Just as hard to look at and I doubt not just as soft at heart as you used to be when you tried to shield me when I got into scrapes And now to supper Little was said during the meal fortunately the table was bounteously spread for the newcomer s appetite was prodigious but at last he was satisfied and after a long drink at the horn beside him which Elspeth had kept filled with ale he said There s nothing like a Scottish meal after all Andrew French living is well enough for a time but one tires of it and many a time when I have been lying down supperless on the sod after marching and fighting the whole day I have longed for a bowl of porridge and a platter well filled with oatmeal cakes Supper over John and the apprentices retired Elspeth went off to prepare the guest s chamber and to make up a little bed for the child Now brother let us hear your story but first of all perhaps you want to light your pipe That do I Malcolm replied if Mistress Janet has no objection thereto She is accustomed to it the bailie said answering for her I smoke myself I deem that tobacco like other things was given for our use and methinks that with a pipe between the lips men s brains work more easily and that it leadeth to pleasant converse Janet went to a cupboard brought out two long pipes and a jar of tobacco placed two tumblers a flat bottle and a jug of water on the table That is right the bailie said I do not often touch strong waters The habit as I see too plainly is a harmful one and in this good city of Glasgow there are many even of those so placed that they should be an example to their fellows who are given nightly to drink more than is good for them but on an occasion like the present I deem it no harm to take a glass I should think not Malcolm said heartily it is long since I tasted a glass of real Scotch spirit and I never need an excuse for taking a glass of whatever it be that comes in my way Not Mistress Janet that I am a toper I don t say that at the sack of a town or at times when liquor is running so to speak to waste I am more backward than the rest but my hand wouldn t be as steady as it is if I had been one of those who are never so happy as when they are filling themselves with liquor And now Andrew to my story You know that when I saw you last just when the troubles in 15 began in spite of all your warnings to the contrary I must needs throw myself into the thick of them You like a wise man stuck to your shop and here you are now a bailie of Glasgow while I who have been wandering over the face of the earth fighting for the cause of France and risking my life a thousand times in a matter which concerned me in no way have returned just as penniless as I set out It is said brother Malcolm Janet said mildly that a rolling stone gathers no moss That is true enough Malcolm assented and yet do you know there are few rolling stones who if their time were to come over again would remain fixed in their bed Of course we have not the pleasures of home of wives and children but the life of adventure has its own joys which I for one would not change for the others However brother as you know I threw myself heart and soul into that business The last time I saw you was just as I was starting with a score of others to make our way to join the Earl of Mar s army at Perth I have seen many an army since but never did I see sixteen thousand finer fighting men than were there assembled The Laird of Mackintosh brought five hundred clansmen from Inverness shire the Marquis of Huntly had five hundred horse and two thousand foot and the Earl Marischal had a thousand men The Laird of Glenlyon brought five hundred Campbells and the Marquis of Tullibardine fourteen hundred and a score of other chiefs of less power were there with their clansmen There were enough men there to have done anything had they been properly armed and led but though arms and ammunition had been promised from France none came and the Earl of Mar had so little decision that he would have wrecked the finest army that ever marched The army lay doing nothing for weeks and just before we were expecting a movement the company I belonged to was sent with a force of Highlanders under Mackintosh to join the army under the Lords Derwentwater Kenmure and Nithsdale Lord Derwentwater had risen with a number of other gentlemen and with their attendants and friends had marched against Newcastle They had done nothing there but remained idle near Hexham till joined by a force raised in the Lowlands of Scotland by the Earls of Nithsdale Carnwath and Wintoun the united army marched north again to Kelso where we joined them Bonnie Prince Charles G. A. Henty,2018-02-04 Excerpt from Bonnie Prince Charlie A Tale of Fontenoy and Culloden It was well indeed for Britain that the enterprise failed Had it succeeded it would have inevitably been followed in time by another revolution another expulsion of the Stuarts and the country would have been thrown back a century in the path of civilization But although unsuccessful there are few episodes in history so romantic as the attempt on the part of Prince Charles to wrest the throne of Britain from the House of Hanover and the adventures which befell him from the time he landed in Scotland with half a dozen followers to the day when a hunted fugitive he again gained the shelter of a French ship read like a chapter of fiction For this reason I have chosen the subject as the framework of my story About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
