

Alien races deeply involved with humans

Akonadi

One of the oldest races still alive in the universe. They are covered with gold which they use for almost everything, and this is their motivation for visiting other planets. They have a kind of floating disc above the planet they visit, using machines already there as a base. They show the races they create to develop their own culture and expand to other planets, but expect them to be subservient to the Akonadi's presence. They are responsible for all other advanced-looking races like Humans, Nordes, and Tail Whites.

Greyes

Biological culture created by another civilization, race the Greyes suffered. Unlike Nordes or Tail Whites, Greyes were not created to have emotions and doesn't have the ability to understand how their visitors affect others. They have no culture to speak of, no personalities, and multiply by using cloning. They are programmed to behave a certain way and know nothing else. Sometimes confuse them, and the discomfort they produce on other races act as a threat to their sense of it.

Eptithes

The original inhabitants of Earth. They live underground in societies with very strong caste systems. Immense time a long time to not allowed to speak in response from a higher caste unless spoken to. They are exclusively meat eaters and have the taste of human blood. They rarely wear clothes, but when they do it is to modify and sometimes including on people. They have leaders who they feel are an example how they should live underground, and subsequently also from the Akonadi whom they consider their enemies. The Akonadi hardly care though because Eptithes are so backwards compared to them.

Nordes

Once was created by the Akonadi. They're a very peace loving race that has accepted their role as slaves to the Akonadi or working for creating them, and even themselves often be used in the company of Akonadi as personal slaves. They try to make peace between the races by both warning Humans about the Eptithes and Greyes, but also working with the Greyes to help them understand emotions. Eptithes have proved very difficult for the Nordes to work with. Nordes women are rare and valued for their psychic abilities in their society. They Akonadi respect this as Nordes females are not expected to work as slaves for them, and instead focus on helping their own race.

Tail Whites

Once race created by the Akonadi. They grow taller as they age hence their name. They were created from Eptithes and as a result are very nervous and easily frightened. They have devices that when placed on someone, makes them shake and cry, and just the thought of meeting other races without these devices to help soothe the Tail Whites. They are incredibly fragile. Small just takes minutes to fully heal, broken bones can take years. The only reason they are still alive is thanks to the protection of the Akonadi. Still they wish to break free of their underground in their minds, but know they'll need protection as they're trying to form an alliance with Humans.
