All Rivers Run To The Sea Memoirs:

All Rivers Run to the Sea Elie Wiesel, 2010-09-01 In this first volume of his two volume autobiography Wiesel takes us from his childhood memories of a traditional and loving Jewish family in the Romanian village of Sighet through the horrors of Auschwitz and Buchenwald and the years of spiritual struggle to his emergence as a witness for the Holocaust's martyrs and survivors and for the State of Israel and as a spokesman for humanity With 16 pages of black and white photographs From the abyss of the death camps Wiesel has come as a messenger to mankind not with a message of hate and revenge but with one of brotherhood and atonement From the citation for the 1986 Nobel Peace Prize All Rivers Run to the Sea Elie Wiesel, 1997 I confidently predict that nothing Wiesel has written hitherto will be as widely read or vividly remembered as this Chaim Bermant The Struggle for Understanding Victoria Nesfield, Philip Smith, 2019-08-01 Elie Wiesel 1928 2016 was one of the most important literary voices to emerge from the Holocaust The Nazis took the lives of most of his family destroyed the community in which he was raised and subjected him to ghettoization imprisonment in Auschwitz and Buchenwald and a death march It is remarkable not only that Wiesel survived and found a way to write about his experiences but that he did so with elegance and profundity His novels grapple with questions of tradition memory trauma madness atrocity and faith The Struggle for Understanding examines Wiesel's literary religious and cultural roots and the indelible impact of the Holocaust on his storytelling Grouped in sections on Hasidic origins the role of the Other theology and tradition and later works the chapters cover the entire span of Wiesel's career Books analyzed include the novels Dawn The Forgotten The Gates of the Forest The Town Beyond the Wall The Testament The Time of the Uprooted The Sonderberg Case and Hostage as well as his memoir Night What emerges is a portrait of Wiesel's work in its full literary richness Memoirs - All Rivers Run to the Sea Elie Wiesel, From Home to Home to Home Gloria Glantz, 2019-03-11 There was great joy in the Przepiorka home in Wegrow when Mendl and Esther welcomed their little princess Gitele born after two boy siblings already nine and twelve years old It was spring of 1939 but the bliss was short lived When Gitele was three months old Hitler's army marched into Poland and stole her happy childhood Yet there was a flicker of light in the darkness Over the years the light grew and blazed into bright sunshine Its source was the unlikely love and courage of a woman who dared defy her countrymen's hatred by loving and sheltering a Jewish child Thus this testimony of Gloria Glantz though it is a Holocaust memoir is truly about love and compassion She is here because people loved her even before they knew her Herein is a gripping tale of fear danger and loss and of going from home to home to home to eventual redemption and renewal It is a story all of us and future generations must know and remember Fifty Key Thinkers on the Holocaust and Genocide Paul R. Bartrop, Steven L. Jacobs, 2013-03-01 This unique volume critically discusses the works of fifty of the most influential scholars involved in the study of the Holocaust and genocide Studying each scholar's background and influences the authors examine the ways in which their major works have been received by critics and supporters and analyse each thinker's contributions to the field Key figures discussed range from historians and philosophers to theologians anthropologists art historians and sociologists including Hannah Arendt Christopher Browning Primo Levi Raphael Lemkin Jacques S melin Saul Friedl nder Samantha Power Hans Mommsen Emil Fackenheim Helen Fein Adam Jones Ben Kiernan A thoughtful collection of groundbreaking thinkers this book is an ideal resource for academics students and all those interested in both the emerging and rapidly evolving field of Genocide Studies and the established field of Holocaust Studies Möbian Nights Sandor Goodhart,2017-08-24 I died at Auschwitz French writer Charlotte Delbo asserts and nobody knows it M bian Nights Reading Literature and Darkness develops a new understanding of literary reading that in the wake of disasters like the Holocaust death remains a premise of our experience rather than a future Challenging customary aesthetic assumptions that we write in order not to die Sandor Goodhart suggests with Kafka we write to die Drawing upon analyses developed by Girard Foucault Blanchot and Levinas along with examples from Homer to Beckett M bian Nights proposes that all literature works autobiographically which is to say in the wake of disaster with the credo I died therefore I am and for which the language of topology for example the M bius strip offers a vocabulary for naming the deep structure of such literary critical and scriptural sacrificial and anti sacrificial dynamics Elie Wiesel Elie Wiesel,2002 Elie Wiesel has given hundreds of interviews Yet his fame as a human rights advocate often directs such conversations toward non literary issues Indeed many of Wiesel s questioners barely address the writer s role that has defined him since the 1950s Unlike previous volumes in which he speaks with interviewers Elie Wiesel Conversations collects interviews which set in relief the writer at work This book focuses on Wiesel the literary artist instead of Wiesel the Holocaust survivor or the 1986 Nobel Peace Prize laureate Beyond highlighting Wiesel s literary significance these interviews also correct many faulty assumptions about his achievement Few American readers know that he writes in French that he has been favorably compared to Andr Malraux and Albert Camus Not many realize that the Holocaust has been the subject of only a few of his forty books Particularly in his nonfiction Wiesel s scope is wide addressing Jewish life in all its religious and historical complexity Though most of Wiesel s books do not focus on the Holocaust they are written against the backdrop of what he has come to term The Event Always the presence of Auschwitz can be felt always the author lives in the shadows of the flames that once illuminated and blinded him These interviews are reminders that the writing life is both solitary and public interior and social The writer must venture beyond his study and speak out against the world s traumas and outrages Robert Franciosi is an associate professor of English at Grand Valley State University in Allendale Mich He is the editor of Good Morning A Holocaust Memoir His work has appeared in American Poetry Contemporary Literature Modern Jewish Studies and the William Carlos Williams Review Möbian Nights Sandor Goodhart,2017-08-24 Utilizing insights drawn from mathematical topology from French critical theory and literature and from Holocaust studies Sandor Goodhart articulates a new understanding of the relation of literary reading to disaster Jewish Families in Europe, 1939-Present Joanna Beata Michlic,2017-01-03 This book offers an extensive introduction and 13 diverse essays on how World War II the Holocaust and their aftermath affected Jewish families and Jewish communities with an especially close look at the roles played by women youth and children Focusing on Eastern and Central Europe themes explored include how Jewish parents handled the Nazi threat rescue and resistance within the Jewish family unit the transformation of gender roles under duress youth s wartime and early postwar experiences postwar reconstruction of the Jewish family rehabilitation of Jewish children and youth and the role of Zionism in shaping the present and future of young survivors Relying on newly available archival material and novel research in the areas of families youth rescue resistance gender and memory this volume will be an indispensable guide to current work on the familial and social history of the Holocaust
