The Thesis Writing Journeys of Bachelor's and Master's Students Bojana Petrić, Montserrat

Castelló, 2024-12-20. Completing a thesis is a crucial final stage in many bachelor's and master's programmes across Europe and beyond. However, the process of thesis writing, how it is experienced by the writers and how those experiences impact on writing, remain underexplored. This book examines the student experience of thesis writing through an interdisciplinary perspective, drawing on theories of learning, emotions, and genre, and narrative discursive analysis. As a result of this approach, the thesis is reconceptualised as a multilayered experience from the point of view of student writers. The chapters, which arose out of a collaborative research project across 10 European countries, employ an innovative combination of methods, including the use of journey plots, to provide a complex picture of the thesis writing process, which will be of interest to readers involved in academic writing at all levels.

Unsettling Colonial Modernity in Islamicate Contexts Kara

Adbolmaleki, Roxana Akhbari, Siavash Saffari, 2017-05-11. By focusing on colonial histories and legacies, this edited volume breaks new ground in studying modernity in Islamicate contexts. From a range of disciplinary perspectives, the authors probe colonial modernity as a condition whose introduction into Islamicate contexts was facilitated historically by European encroachment into South Asia, the Middle East, and Northern Africa. They also analyze the various modes through which, in Europe itself and in North America by extension, people from Islamicate contexts have been and continue to be otherized in the constitution and advancement of the project of modernity. The book further brings to light a multiplicity of social, political, cultural, and aesthetic modes of resistance aimed at subverting and unsettling colonial modernity in both Muslim majority and diasporic contexts.
