Between Muslim And Jew The The Problem Of Symbiosis Under Early Islam:

Between Muslim and Jew Steven M. Wasserstrom, 2014-07-14 Steven Wasserstrom undertakes a detailed analysis of the creative symbiosis that existed between Jewish and Muslim religious thought in the eighth through tenth centuries. Wasserstrom brings the disciplinary approaches of religious studies to bear on questions that have been examined previously by historians and by specialists in Judaism and Islam. His thematic approach provides an example of how difficult questions of influence might be opened up for broader examination. In Part I Trajectories the author explores early Jewish-Muslim interactions, studying such areas as messianism, professions, authority, and class structure, and showing how they were reshaped during the first centuries of Islam. Part II Constructions looks at influences of Judaism on the development of the emerging Shi'ite community. This is tied to the wider issue of how early Muslims conceptualized the Jew. In Part III Intimacies the author tackles the complex esoteric symbiosis between Muslim and Jewish theologies. An investigation of the milieu in which Jews and Muslims interacted sheds new light on their shared religious imaginings. Throughout, Wasserstrom expands on the work of social and political historians to include symbolic and conceptual aspects of interreligious symbiosis. This book will interest scholars of Judaism and Islam as well as those who are attracted by the larger issues exposed by its methodology. Originally published in 1995, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.

The Formation of Islam Jonathan P. Berkey, 2003 Jonathan Berkey's 2003 book surveys the religious history of the peoples of the Near East from roughly 600 to 1800 CE. The opening chapter examines the religious scene in the Near East in late antiquity and the religious traditions which preceded Islam. Subsequent chapters investigate Islam's first century and the beginnings of its own traditions, the classical period from the accession of the Abbasids to the rise of the Buyid amirs, and thereafter the emergence of new forms of Islam in the middle period. Throughout, close attention is paid to the experiences of Jews and Christians as well as Muslims. The book stresses that Islam did not appear all at once but emerged slowly as part of a prolonged process whereby it was differentiated from other religious traditions, and indeed that much that we take as characteristic of Islam is in fact the product of the medieval period.

Narratives about Jews among Muslims in Norway Vibeke Moe Bjørnbekk, 2024-06-17 What is the nature of Muslim-Jewish relations in Europe today? Based on qualitative interview data, this book explores narratives about Jews among Muslims in Norway. Drawing on culturally embedded narratives as well as personal experiences, interviewees reflect on the relationship between Jews and Muslims. The interreligious exchange between Islam and Judaism is as old as Islam. Today, the Arab-Israeli conflict has become an important frame of reference in the public discourse on Muslim-Jewish relations. The narratives presented in this book delineate shifting community boundaries and identifications that transcend dichotomised notions of Muslims versus Jews The analysis shows how Jewish history in Europe and the history of modern antisemitism serve as interpretative keys in the narratives used for explaining the situation of the Muslim minority today Furthermore the book demonstrates how interviewees perceptions of society s attitudes toward Muslim and Jewish experiences also strongly influence their perceptions of Muslim Jewish relations

Krell, 2003-05-22 Marc A Krell analyzes the theologies of four twentieth century Jewish thinkers Hans Joachim Schoeps Franz Rosenzweig Richard Rubenstein and Irving Greenberg who have constructed theologies based on their interaction with Christian thought and culture Their work reflects a common attempt to understand the impact of Christian culture on the historical events prior to and following the Holocaust and to re value the relationship between the two religions in light of a history of theological anti Judaism and modern racial antisemitism
