Research Companion to Media Geography Paul C. Adams, Jim Craine, 2016-03-23 This Companion provides an authoritative source for scholars and students of the nascent field of media geography While it has deep roots in the wider discipline the consolidation of media geography has started only in the past decade with the creation of media geography's first dedicated journal Aether as well as the publication of the sub discipline's first textbook However at present there is no other work which provides a comprehensive overview and grounding By indicating the sub discipline's evolution and hinting at its future this volume not only serves to encapsulate what geographers have learned about media but also will help to set the agenda for expanding this type of interdisciplinary exploration The contributors leading scholars in this field including Stuart Aitken Deborah Dixon Derek McCormack Barney Warf and Matthew Zook not only review the existing literature within the remit of their chapters but also articulate arguments about where the future might take media geography scholarship The volume is not simply a collection of individual offerings but has afforded an opportunity to exchange ideas about media geography with contributors making connections between chapters and developing common themes

Tearing the World Apart Nina Goss, Eric Hoffman, 2017-08-23 Contributions by Alberto Brodeseo James Cody Andrea Cossu Anne Margaret Daniel Jesper Doolard Nina Goss Jonathan Hodgers Jamie Lorentzen Fahri z Nick Smart and Thad Williamson Bob Dylan is many things to many people Folk prodigy Rock poet Quiet gentleman Dionysian impresario Cotton Mather Stage hog Each of these Dylan creations comes with its own accessories including a costume a hairstyle a voice a lyrical register a metaphysics an audience and a library of commentary Each Bob Dylan joins a collective cast that has made up his persona for over fifty years No version of Dylan turns out uncomplicated but the postmillennial manifestation seems peculiarly contrary a tireless and enterprising antiquarian a creator of singular texts and sounds through promiscuous poaching an artist of innovation and uncanny renewal This is a Dylan of persistent surrender from and engagement with a world he perceives as broken and enduring addressing us from a past that is lost and yet forever present Tearing the World Apart participates in the creation of the postmillennial Bob Dylan by exploring three central records of the twenty first century Love and Theft 2001 Modern Times 2006 and Tempest 2012 along with the 2003 film Masked and Anonymous which Dylan helped write and in which he appears as an actor and musical performer The collection of essays does justice to this difficult Bob Dylan by examining his method and effects through a disparate set of viewpoints Readers will find a variety of critical contexts and cultural perspectives as well as a range of experiences as members of Dylan s audience The essays in Tearing the World Apart illuminate as a prism might their intransigent subject from enticing and intersecting angles
