A/r/tography Rita L. Irwin, Alex De Cosson, 2004 Twelve contributors explore the relationships between and among the three roles of artist researcher and teacher as they implement arts based educational research Each contributor uses her or his own artistic practices as integral or complementary practices to other forms of inquiry In each case the artist author examines an educational issue and through visual and textual means pursues theoretical and practical considerations Each artist author engages with theory and practice art and text self and other artist and teacher In many respects two points of view are explored art as phenomenon and art making as method Using these points separately or together the artist authors explore the fullness of such inquiry for educational research Through an examination of these art based texts readers will come to appreciate educational practices in deeper and more meaningful ways publisher Making Connections in and Through Arts-Based Educational Research Hala Mreiwed, Mindy R. their use of jargon providing methodological instruction when appropriate and offering robust research examples from their own work and or others Arts-Based Research Jan Jagodzinski, Jason Wallin, 2013-04-19 A provocative book an important book jagodzinski s and Wallin s betrayal is in fact a wake up call for art based research a loving critique of its directions jagodzinski s and Wallin s reference is the question what art can do not what it means Theirs is an ultimate affirmation that uncovers the singularities that compose and give consistency to art not as an object but as an event Their betrayal consists in an affirmation of life and becoming positing a performative machinics of the arts which is in absolute contraposition with the hegemonic discourse of art and as an object of knowledge and representation This does not only concern academia but also politics and ethics an untimely book that comes just at the right time Bernd Herzogenrath Goethe Universit t Frankfurt am Main Germany author of An American Body Politic A Deleuzian Approach and editor of Deleuze Pedagogies Against the State
