

The background image is a photograph of the interior of a grand Baroque church. The view is from the entrance looking down a wide aisle towards the altar. The ceiling is a large, dark dome with intricate frescoes, including a central figure with outstretched arms. The walls are covered in ornate stucco and paintings. A series of large, arched windows with multiple panes line the side walls, allowing light to filter in. The altar is at the far end, featuring a large, ornate structure with candles. The overall atmosphere is one of historical grandeur and religious artistry.

David Deming

A World History Of Architecture 1st Ed:

A World History of Architecture Marian Moffett, Michael W. Fazio, Lawrence Wodehouse, 2003 The Roman architect and engineer Vitruvius declared firmitas utilitas venustas firmness commodity and delight to be the three essential attributes of architecture These qualities are brilliantly explored in this book which uniquely comprises both a detailed survey of Western architecture including Pre Columbian America and an introduction to architecture from the Middle East India Russia China and Japan The text encourages readers to examine closely the pragmatic innovative and aesthetic attributes of buildings and to imagine how these would have been praised or criticized by contemporary observers Artistic economic environmental political social and technological contexts are discussed so as to determine the extent to which buildings met the needs of clients society at large and future generations

A Global History of Architecture Francis D. K. Ching, Mark M. Jarzombek, Vikramaditya Prakash, 2010-12-13 The award winning First Edition of A Global History of Architecture was a publishing event that forever changed the way architectural history is viewed and studied This Second Edition surpasses the first with a lavish new design illustrated throughout with drawings and photographs in full color and even more maps and diagrams detailing global interconnections The signature drawings of Francis D K Ching are more informative than ever updated with scale annotation and function added where needed This revision is sure to remain the most relevant book on the topic

The Routledge Companion to Architectural Pedagogies of the Global South Harriet Harriss, Ashraf M. Salama, Ane Gonzalez Lara, 2022-12-30 The established canon of architectural pedagogy has been predominantly produced within the Northern hemisphere and transposed or imposed across schools within the Global South more often with scant regard for social economic political or ecological culture and context nor regional or indigenous pedagogic principles and practices Throughout the Global South architecture's academic community has been deeply affected by this regime how it shapes and influences proto professionals and by implication architectural processes and outcomes too The Routledge Companion to Architectural Pedagogies of the Global South resituates and recenters an array of pedagogic approaches that are either produced or proliferate from the Global South while antagonizing the linguistic epistemological and disciplinary conceits that under imperialist imperatives ensured that these pedagogies remained maligned or marginalized The book maintains that the exclusionary implications of architectural notions of the orders the canon and the core have served to constrain and to calcify its contents and in doing so imperiled its relevance and impact In contrast this companion of pedagogic approaches serves to evidence that architecture's academic and professional advancement is wholly contingent on its ability to fully engage in an additive and inclusive process whereby the necessary disruptions that occur when marginalized knowledge confronts established knowledge result in a catalytical transformation through which new co created knowledge can emerge Notions of tradition identity modernity vernacularism post colonialism poverty migration social and spatial justice climate apartheid globalization ethical standards and international partnerships are key considerations in the context of the Global South How these issues originate and evolve within architectural schools and curricula and how they act as drivers across all curricula activities are some of the important themes that the contributors interrogate and debate With more than 30 contributions from 55 authors from diverse regional racial ethnic gender and cultural backgrounds this companion is structured in four sections that capture critique and catalog multifarious marginalized pedagogical approaches to provide educators and students with an essential source book of navigational steers core contestations propositional tactics and reimagined rubrics The Routledge Companion to Architectural Pedagogies of the Global South pioneers a transposable strategy for academics from all disciplines looking to adopt a tested approach to decolonizing the curriculum It is only through a process of destabilizing the hegemonic epistemological and disciplinary frameworks that have long prescribed architecture s pedagogies that the possibility of more inclusive representative and relevant pedagogical practices can emerge

Valences of Historiography Gevork Hartoonian, 2024-12-30 The compiled essays offer various themes and ways of approaching historiography Each chapter probes the state of contemporary theorization of architecture histories working toward the theme of critically re writing history Essential to each author s contribution are specific traditions created by the mole of history burrowing through the past This book concerns the historian s conjectures towards capturing the past and present zeitgeist Temporality is the theme running through the narrative of this volume It raises the question of whether the ever growing body of work on architectural history should be considered as history More specifically what is the intersection between history and architectural history Furthermore can every text focused on architecture s past be considered categorically historiographic In what capacity does architectural history index history beyond contingencies and without reducing the text to empirical realities and the historian s interest in a specific subject including those collected through archival research itself an emblem of textuality This book upholds the conviction that the past should be recalled accurately and that there is no history but historical criticism the scope of which exceeds the historicity of Humanism Dialectically the timeline experienced across contemporary techno economic and cultural domains aesthetics offers an opportunity to explore architecture produced outside the Euro American continents Valences of Historiography offers a fresh take on architectural history that is useful for academics researchers and architecture students

The World's Great Classics Comprising a General Index, a Subject Index, and Index of Authors, and a Chronological Index, 1902 Later Byzantine Painting Robert S. Nelson, 2024-10-28 Written over nearly three decades the fifteen essays involve the three aspects of the title art agency and appreciation The first refers to the general subject matter of the book Byzantine art chiefly painting of the twelfth through the fourteenth centuries the second to its often human like agency and the last to its historical reception Responding to different issues and perspectives that have animated art history and Byzantine studies in recent decades the essays have wide theoretical range from art historical formalism iconography archaeology and its manuscript equivalent codicology to statistics patronage narratology and the histories of science and collecting The series begins with art works themselves and with the imagery and iconography of church decoration and manuscript illumination shifts to the ways that objects act in the world and affect their beholders and concludes with more general appreciations of Byzantine art in case studies from the thirteenth century to the present
