analysis of female Swahili novelists from a feminist perspective highlighting their important contributions to the living Swahili literary and intellectual tradition Compared to the diverse and centuries old oral literature or religious philosophical poetry tradition developing since at least the 17th century the novel is a relatively young phenomenon in the rich body of Swahili literary output emerging only in the last hundred years Since then academia has focused primarily on male novelists largely disregarding important female writers such as Ndyanao Balisidya Zainab Burhani Martha Mvungi Mlangala Zainab Mwanga Lucy Nyasulu and Zainab Alwi Baharoon This book traces the evolution of women's writing in Tanzania highlighting emancipatory and feminist discourses as well as intersectional themes of class education and urbanisation The author demonstrates how concepts such as utu the essence of humanity aibu shame disgrace and heshima honor social respectability are used in the novels to articulate the value systems and social norms in Swahili communities including the gendered perceptions of women that they create Grounded throughout in the historical and socio political contexts of the authors it discusses this book will be an important read for researchers of African literature and women s studies

Literature, theology and feminism Heather Walton, 2019-01-04 This book offers an authoritative overview of the broad and complex terrain of feminist theorising concerning the relationship between literature and theology as it has developed over the past several decades It provides the first comprehensive evaluation of the significance of women s literature in the development of feminist theology and offers a critique of the variety of reading practices currently employed by religious feminists As well as illuminating current reading strategies the work argues that it is now appropriate for feminists to develop new ways of reading the divine in women s writing Drawing upon the pioneering work of Helene Cixous Julia Kristeva and Luce Irigaray the work sets out a new framework for feminist religious reading that is both creative and challenging and which will be of interest both to scholars and students in this area Through its artful and compelling feminist reconsiderations the book makes a refreshing and significant contribution to the general field known as literature and theology

Diverse Concepts of Genres in Literature Innocent Yao Vinyo, Josiah Mutembei, Ata ul Ghafar, Mohammed Adeel Ashraf, 2023-08-08 TOPICS IN THE BOOK Anlo War Songs The Linguistic Prowess of Warriors The Thematic Concerns Addressed by Gikuyu Secular Popular Artists on Feminist and Gender Concern A Critical Literature Review A Corpus Based Study of Metadiscourse Features across PCTB Textbooks at Primary and Secondary Levels From Hinduism to Pantheism An Existentialist Study of Hermann Hesse s Siddhartha

The Cultural and Historical Heritage of Colonialism Kenneth Usongo, 2022-02-17 In the time since most African countries achieved independence from European colonial powers it is unfortunate that these nations are still politically economically and culturally reordered by their former colonisers This book argues that these nations often slavishly emulate Western values to the detriment of indigenous ones It challenges the postcolony to ground itself in local experience and then nativise external values which entails delicately sifting through both the domestic and foreign worlds to build a decent and humane society

Critical Encounters in Secondary English Deborah Appleman, 2023-12-22 Grounded in solid theory with new field tested classroom activities the fourth edition of Critical Encounters in Secondary English continues to help teachers integrate the lenses of contemporary literary theory into practices that have always defined good pedagogy The most significant change for this edition is the addition of Critical Race Theory CRT as an analytical lens CRT offers teachers fresh opportunities for interdisciplinary planning and teaching as it lends itself to lessons that encompass a variety of disciplines such as history sociology psychology and science As with the previous edition each chapter concludes with a list of suggested nonfiction pieces that work well for the particular lens under discussion This popular text provides a comprehensive approach to incorporating nonfiction and informational texts into the literature classroom with new and revised classroom activities appropriate for today's students Book Features Helps both pre and inservice ELA teachers introduce contemporary literary theory into their classrooms Offers lucid and accessible explications of contemporary literary theory Provides dozens of innovative and field tested classroom activities Tackles the thorny issue of Critical Race Theory in helpful and practical ways Praise for the Third Edition What a smart and useful book It provides teachers with a wealth of knowledge and material to help their students develop critical perspective and suppleness of thought Mike Rose University of California Los Angeles This Third Edition proves that Appleman still has her hand on the pulse of the rapidly changing landscape of education Ernest Morrell Teachers College Columbia University This new edition of Deborah Appleman's now classic book demonstrates even more dramatically than previously how the critical theories she so skillfully teaches serve not only as lenses for the reading of literature but as tools for discovering interrogating and challenging injustice hypocrisy and the hidden power relations that students are likely to encounter Sheridan Blau Teachers College Columbia University

The Late-Career Novelist Hywel Dix, 2017-08-10 The first scholarly study of the phenomenon of the late career novel this book explores the ways in which bestselling contemporary novelists look back and respond to their earlier successes in their subsequent writings Exploring the work of major novelists such as Angela Carter V S Naipaul Salman Rushdie Ian McEwan Julian Barnes A S Byatt and Graham Swift The Late Career Novelist draws for the first time on social psychology and career construction theory to examine how the dynamics of a literary career play out in the fictional worlds of our best known novelists From here Hywel Dix develops and argues for a new mode of reading contemporary writing on the contexts of current literary culture
