Arabic Literature An Overview Culture And Civilization In The Middle East:

Arabic Literature Pierre Cachia, 2003-09-02 Assuming no previous knowledge of the subject Arabic Literature An Overview gives a rounded and balanced view of Arab literary creativity High literature is examined alongside popular folk literature and the classical and modern periods usually treated separately are presented together Cachia's observations are not subordinated to any pre formed literary theory but describe and illustrate the directions taken in order to present an overall picture of the field of relevance to the student of literature as well as to Arabists working in related fields The Literary Heritage of the Arabs Suheil Bushrui, James Malarkey, 2014-06-05 The Literary Heritage of the Arabs samples some of the finest literature produced by Arab writers in the last 1 500 years The selection of poetry and prose spans many genres and styles conveying the full range of Arab experiences and perspectives from the tragic to the comic the wistful to the mystical the courtly to the lowly and the Arab East to Andalusia The reader of this anthology will become aware of the extent to which this vibrant and distinctive literary heritage has always been both receptive to the currents from neighbouring cultures and influential in the evolution of other literary traditions in South Asia Western Europe and beyond Thus the reader will discover behind local colours and different literary conventions our common humanity The Poetics of Ancient and Classical Arabic Literature Esad Durakovic, 2015-04-24 Through analysing ancient and classical Arabic literature including the Qur'an from within the Arabic literary tradition this book provides an original interpretation of poetics and of other important aspects of Arab culture Ancient Arabic literature is a realm of poetry prose literary forms emerged rather late and even then remained in the shadow of poetic creative efforts Traditionally this literature has been viewed through a philologist's lens and has often been represented as materialistic in the sense that its poetry lacked imagination As a result Arabic poetry was often evaluated negatively in relation to other poetic traditions The Poetics of Ancient and Classical Arabic Literature argues that old Arabic literature is remarkably coherent in poetical terms and has its own individuality and that claims of its materialism arise from a failure to grasp the poetic principles of the Arabic tradition Analysing the Qur'an which is known for confronting the poetry of the time this book reveals that post Qur'anic literature came to be defined against it Thus the constitution and interpretation of Arabic literature imposed itself as a particular exegesis of the sacred Text Disputing traditional interpretations by arguing that Arabic literature can only be assessed from within and not through comparison with other literary traditions this book is of interest to students and scholars of Islamic Studies Arabic Studies and Literary Studies An Arab Ambassador in the Mediterranean World Nabil Matar, 2015-04-10 This book provides translated selections from the writings of Muhammad Ibn Othman al Miknasi d 1799 The only writings by an Arab Muslim in the pre modern period that present a comparative perspective his travelogues provide unique insight with in to Christendom and Islam Translating excerpts from his three travelogues this book tells the story of al Miknasi's travels from 1779 1788 As an ambassador al Miknasi was privy to court life government offices and religious buildings and he provides detailed accounts of cities people customs ransom negotiations historical events and political institutions Including descriptions of Europeans Arabs Turks Christians both European and Eastern Muslims Jews and American Indians in the last quarter of the eighteenth century An Arab Ambassador in the Mediterranean World explores how the most travelled Muslim writer of the pre modern period saw the world from Spain to Arabia and from Morocco to Turkey with second hand information about the New World Supplemented with extensive notes detailing the historic and political relevance of the translations this book is of interest to researchers and scholars of Mediterranean History Ottoman Studies and Muslim Christian relations

Eastern Rome and the Rise of Islam Olof Heilo, 2015-11-19 The emergence of Islam in the seventh century AD still polarises scholars who seek to separate religious truth from the historical reality with which it is associated However history and prophecy are not solely defined by positive evidence or apocalyptic truth but by human subjects who consider them to convey distinct messages and in turn make these messages meaningful to others These messages are mutually interdependent and analysed together provide new insights into history It is by way of this concept that Olof Heilo presents the decline of the Eastern Roman Empire as a key to understanding the rise of Islam two historical processes often perceived as distinct from one another Eastern Rome and the Rise of Islam highlights significant convergences between Early Islam and the Late Ancient world It suggests that Islam s rise is a feature of a common process during which tensions between imperial ambitions and apocalyptic beliefs in Europe and the Middle East cut straight across today s theological and political definitions The conquests of Islam the emergence of the caliphate and the transformation of the Roman and Christian world are approached from both prophetic anticipations in the Ancient and Late Ancient world and from the Medieval and Modern receptions of history In the shadow of their narratives it becomes possible to trace the outline of a shared history of Christianity and Islam The Dark Ages thus emerge not merely as a tale of sound and fury but as an era of openness diversity and unexpected possibilities Approaching the rise of Islam as a historical phenomenon this book opens new perspectives in the study of early religion and philosophy as well as providing a valuable resource for students and scholars of Islamic Studies
