Aragon Forest Philippe:

James Joyce and the Matter of Paris Catherine Flynn, 2019-09-12 James Joyce must be understood as drawing on French nineteenth and twentieth century literary innovations to grapple with the challenges of Paris Generation Stalin Andrew Sobanet, 2018-09-11 Generation Stalin traces Joseph Stalin's rise as a dominant figure in French political culture from the 1930s through the 1950s Andrew Sobanet brings to light the crucial role French writers played in building Stalin's cult of personality and in disseminating Stalinist propaganda in the international Communist sphere including within the USSR Based on a wide array of sources literary cinematic historical and archival Generation Stalin situates in a broad cultural context the work of the most prominent intellectuals affiliated with the French Communist Party including Goncourt winner Henri Barbusse Nobel laureate Romain Rolland renowned poet Paul Eluard and canonical literary figure Louis Aragon Generation Stalin arrives at a pivotal moment with the Stalin cult and elements of Stalinist ideology resurgent in twenty first century Russia and authoritarianism on the rise around the world The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth-Century French Literature Alison James, 2020-09-03 The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth Century French Literature identifies a documentary impulse in French literature that emerges at the end of the nineteenth century and culminates in a proliferation of factual writings in the twenty first Focusing on the period bookended by these two moments it highlights the enduring concern with factual reference in texts that engage either with current events or the historical archive Specifically it considers a set of ideas and practices centered on the conceptualization and use of documents In doing so it contests the widespread narrative that twentieth century French literature abandons the realist enterprise and argues that writers instead renegotiate the realist legacy outside or at the margins of the fictional space of the novel Analyzing works by authors including Gide Breton Aragon Yourcenar Duras and Modiano the book defines a specific documentary mode of literary representation that records assembles and investigates material traces of reality The document is a textual visual or material piece of evidence repurposed through its visual insertion textual transcription or description within a literary work It is a fact but it also becomes a figure standing for literature's confrontation with the real The documentary imagination involves a fantasy of direct access to a reality that speaks for itself At the same time it gives rise to concrete textual practices that open up new directions for literature by interrogating the construction and interpretation of facts The Philosophy of Julia Kristeva Sara G. Beardsworth, 2020-08-18 The Philosophy of Julia Kristeva is the latest addition to the highly acclaimed series The Library of Living Philosophers The book epitomizes the objectives of this acclaimed series it contains critical interpretation of one of the greatest philosophers of our time and pursues more creative regional and world dialogue on philosophical questions The format provides a detailed interaction between those who interpret and critique Kristeva's work and the seminal thinker herself giving broad coverage from diverse viewpoints of all the major topics establishing her reputation With questions directed to the philosopher while they are alive the volumes in The Library of Living Philosophers have come to occupy a uniquely significant place in the realm of philosophy The inclusion of Julia Kristeva constitutes a vital addition to an already robust list of thinkers The Philosophy of Julia Kristeva exemplifies world class intellectual work closely connected to the public sphere Kristeva has been said to have inherited the intellectual throne left vacant by Simone de Beauvoir and has won many awards including the Hannah Arendt Prize for Political Thought Julia Kristeva's autobiography provides an excellent introduction to her work situating it in relation to major political intellectual and cultural movements of the time Her upbringing in Soviet dominated Bulgaria her move to the French intellectual landscape of the 1960s her visit to Mao's China her response to the fall of the Berlin Wall her participation in a papal summit on humanism her appointment by President Chirac as President of the National Council on Disability and her setting up of the Simone de Beauvoir prize honoring women in active and creative fields are all major moments of this fascinating life The major part of the book is comprised of thirty six essays by Kristeva's foremost interpreters and critics together with her replies to the essays These encounters cover an exceptionally wide range of theoretical and literary writing The strong international and multidisciplinary focus includes authors from over ten countries and spans the fields of philosophy semiotics literature psychoanalysis feminist thought political theory art and religion The comprehensive bibliography provides further access to Kristeva's writings and thought The preparation of this volume the thirty sixth in the series was supported by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities

French XX Bibliography William J. Thompson, 2006-09 Provides a listing available of books articles and book reviews concerned with French literature since 1885 This work is a reference source in the study of modern French literature and culture The bibliography is divided into three major divisions general studies author subjects arranged alphabetically and cinema

Historical Dictionary of French Literature John Flower, 2022-05-15 With the possible exception of Great Britain France can justifiably lay claim to possess the richest literary history of any country in Western Europe This book covers the authors and their works literary movements and philosophical and social developments that have had a direct impact on style or content and major historical events such as the two world wars the Franco Prussian War the Algerian War or the events of May 1968 that are directly reflected in a substantial body of imaginative writing Historical Dictionary of French Literature Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on individual writers and key texts significant movements groups associations and periodicals and on the literary reactions to major national and international events such as revolutions and wars This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about French literature

Zoological Surrealism James Leo Cahill, 2019-02-19 An archive based in depth analysis of the surreal nature and science movies of the pioneering French filmmaker Jean Painlevé Before Jacques Yves Cousteau there was Jean Painlevé a pioneering French scientific and nature filmmaker with a Surrealist's eye Creator of more than two hundred films his studies of strange animal worlds doubled as critical reimaginings of humanity With an unerring eye for the uncanny and unexpected Painlevé and his assistant Geneviève Hamon captured oneiric octopuses metamorphic crustaceans erotic seahorses mythic vampire bats and insatiable predatory insects Zoological Surrealism draws from Painlevé's early oeuvre to rethink the entangled histories of cinema Surrealism and scientific research in interwar France Delving deeply into Painlevé's archive James Leo Cahill develops an account of cinema's Copernican vocation how it was used to forge new scientific discoveries while also displacing and critiquing anthropocentric viewpoints From Painlevé's engagements with Sergei Eisenstein Georges Franju and competing Surrealists to the historiographical dimensions of Jean Vigo's concept of social cinema Zoological Surrealism taps never before examined sources to offer a completely original perspective on a cutting edge filmmaker The first extensive English language study of Painlevé's early films and their contexts it adds important new insight to our understanding of film while also contributing to contemporary investigations of the increasingly surreal landscapes of climate change and ecological emergency

Magnificent Rebel Anne de Courcy, 2023-04-11 Anne de Courcy the author of Husband Hunters and Chanel's Riviera examines the controversial life of legendary beauty writer and rich girl Nancy Cunard during her thirteen years in Jazz Age Paris Paris in the 1920s was bursting with talent in the worlds of art design and literature The city was at the forefront of everything new and exciting there was no censorship life and love were there for the taking At its center was the gorgeous seductive English socialite Nancy Cunard scion of the famous shipping line Her lovers were legion but this book focuses on five of the most significant and a lifelong friendship Her affairs with acclaimed writers Ezra Pound Aldous Huxley Michael Arlen and Louis Aragon were passionate and tempestuous as was her romance with black jazz pianist Henry Crowder Her friendship with the famous Irish novelist George Moore her mother's lover and a man falsely rumored to be Nancy's father was the longest lasting of her life Cunard's early years were ones of great wealth but also emotional deprivation Her mother Lady Cunard the American heiress Maud Alice Burke who later changed her name to Emerald became a reigning London hostess Nancy from an early age was given to promiscuity and heavy drinking and preferred a life in the arts to one in the social sphere into which she had been born Highly intelligent a gifted poet and widely read she founded a small press that published Samuel Beckett among others A muse to many she was also a courageous crusader against racism and fascism She left Paris in 1933 at the end of its most glittering years and remained unafraid to live life on the edge until her death in 1965 Magnificent Rebel is a nuanced portrait of a complex woman set against the backdrop of the City of Light during one of its most important and fascinating decades

French XX Bibliography, Issue #65 Sheri K. Dion, 2014-09-30

Consumer Chronicles David H. Walker, 2011-03-31 At a time when the world is contemplating the depletion of non renewable natural resources the consumer society is increasingly being called into question This is nowhere more acutely evident than in France where since its beginnings in the nineteenth century the consumer revolution extending market forces into every area of social and private life has been perceived as a challenge to core elements in French culture such as traditional artisan crafts and small businesses serving local communities Cultural historians and sociologists have charted the increasing commercialisation of everyday life over the twentieth century but few have paid systematic attention to the crucial testimony provided by the authors of narrative fiction Consumer Chronicles rectifies this omission by means of close readings of a series of novels selected for their authentic portrayal of consumer behaviour and analysed in relation to their social cultural and historical contexts Walker s study offering an imaginative interdisciplinary panorama covering the impact of affluence on French shoppers shopkeepers and society provides telling new insights into the history and characteristics of the consumer mentality
