Halket, 2012-05-01 The Arbitration of International Intellectual Property Disputes which is designed not only for arbitration counsel and arbitrators but also for in house counsel and transactional lawyers provides a thorough guide to the use of arbitration to resolve these disputes Both practical as well as scholarly it starts by exploring how and why arbitration can provide the best way to resolve these disputes and how to draft an effective arbitration provision It then covers the principal unique issues which can arise in the arbitration itself from choosing the tribunal through confidentiality discovery validity determinations choice of law provisional and final remedies and enforceability With the world more and more dependent upon technology of all types the continued and growing importance of intellectual property cannot be understated There has been and will continue to be an accompanying explosion in the number and complexity of transactions in which intellectual property is a critical if not the critical element Many of these transactions cross national boundaries as do the disputes which inevitably arise from them But international intellectual property disputes present complexities not encountered in either intellectual property disputes which are confined to one country or other international commercial disputes The Arbitration of International Intellectual Property Disputes will serve as a handy reference and guide for navigating through the complex maze of intellectual property and arbitration International Intellectual Property Arbitration Trevor Cook, Trevor M.  Sweet, Florian Grisel, 2017-02-10 The development of international arbitration as an autonomous legal order comprises one of the most remarkable stories of institution building at the global level over the past century Today transnational firms and states settle their most important commercial and investment disputes not in courts but in arbitral centres a tightly networked set of organizations that compete with one another for docket resources and influence In this book Alec Stone Sweet and Florian Grisel show that international arbitration has undergone a self sustaining process of institutional evolution that has steadily enhanced arbitral authority This judicialization process was sustained by the explosion of trade and investment which generated a steady stream of high stakes disputes and the efforts of elite arbitrators and the major centres to construct arbitration as a viable substitute for litigation in domestic courts For their part state officials as legislators and treaty makers and national judges as enforcers of arbitral awards have not just adapted to the expansion of arbitration they have heavily invested in it extending the arbitral order's reach and effectiveness Arbitration's very success has nonetheless raised serious questions about its legitimacy as a mode of transnational governance The book provides a clear causal theory of judicialization original data collection and analysis and a broad relatively non technical overview of the evolution of the arbitral order Each chapter compares international commercial and investor state arbitration across clearly specified measures of judicialization and governance Topics include the evolution of procedures the development of precedent and the demand for appeal balancing in the public interest legitimacy debates and proposals for systemic reform This book is a timely assessment of how arbitration has risen to become a key component of international economic law and why its future is far from settled

Intellectual Property and Private International Law Josef Drexler, Annette Kur, 2005-02-23 The relationship between intellectual property and private international law is a fascinating and multi faceted one Both fields are inherently international but it is the exponential increase in conflicts involving trans border elements in a world characterised by global trade and borderless communication structures that has in modern times drawn the two disciplines close The essays contained in this book first presented at a Symposium in Munich set out possible visions for a future system of international and regional jurisdiction and applicable law that is better adapted to the increasingly supranational character of IP rights A second feature of the book is its treatment of harmonisation of choice of law issues Framed by these two elements international jurisdiction on the one hand and perspectives for harmonised choice of law rules in an international context on the other specific European themes are also addressed jurisdiction the establishment of a European judiciary in the patent field the relationship between regional European systems and an international jurisdiction convention and the recent proposal for a Regulation on applicable law in non contractual relationships Rome II
