Architecture Of The Sun Los Angeles Modernism 1900 1970:

Architecture of the Sun Thomas S. Hines, 2010-05-25 An authoritative survey of the masters of twentieth century modernist architecture in Los Angeles This revisionist study explores the history of modernist architecture in Greater Los Angeles from the early twentieth century to the 1970s focusing on both its regional and international contexts Thomas Hines critically analyzes the concepts of modernism and regionalism and begins his exploration by contrasting the turn of the century Craftsman work of Charles and Henry Greene with the rationalist modernism of their contemporary Irving Gill and the expressionist modernism of Frank Lloyd Wright and his son Lloyd Wright The book re interprets the modernist variations of Wright s disciple Rudolph Schindler and the International Style of his contemporary Richard Neutra as well as of their followers Gregory Ain Raphael Soriano and Harwell Harris The minimalist Case Study House program is contrasted with the sensuous modernism of John Lautner and with the large scale modernism of William Pereira and Welton Becket Hines ends the book in the early 1970s as modernism began to confront the challenge of the post modernist critique A personal epilogue reflects on the author s exploration of Los Angeles modernism from the late 1960s to 2009 Early 20th Century Los Angeles Bungalow Architecture Harry Zeitlin and Bennett Gilbert, 2022 Los Angeles California shaped the nation s culture in the 20th century with the city s bungalow style of mass middle class housing The style made the novelty and easy climate of Los Angeles into a force for living according to new standards of health and well being freedom and openness and simple artistry The bungalow combined the cozy appeal of Arts and Crafts design with what became the basic principles of 20th century house architecture earth hugging lines visible structure and open floor plans emphasizing warmth intimacy and fluidity While the streets and neighborhoods of the bungalowtown presented a lively panorama in which each house stood out as an individual the bungalow was also a dream that the real estate industry sold to exploit the hunger for upward mobility that brought hundreds of thousands of new residents to the city during the three decades of the popularity of the style Some of the neighborhoods that the developers established failed and many homes were eventually demolished or in advanced decay Yet today these old houses are beautiful and comfortable homes when restored Schindler, Kings Road, and Southern California Modernism Robert Sweeney, Judith Sheine, 2012-10-30 This book establishes R M Schindler s Kings Road House amongst the icons of modernist housing as crucial as Le Corbusier Walter Gropius Mies van der Rohe or Frank Lloyd Wright to the story of twentieth century residential design Weaving together an impressive blend of primary sources Sweeney and Sheine illuminate heretofore unknown or neglected stories regarding Schindler s life his relationship with his mentors most notably Wright himself and the development of his unique theories about space These essays will interest both scholars and practitioners of architecture as well as readers wishing to learn more about the development of architectural modernism in general J Philip Gruen School of Design and Construction Washington State University California Design, 1930&1965 Living In a Modern Way Wendy Kaplan, 2011 The first comprehensive examination of California s mid century

Hollywood Cinema and the Real Los Angeles Mark Shiel,2013-02-15 Hollywood cinema and Los Angeles cannot be understood apart Hollywood Cinema and the Real Los Angeles traces the interaction of the real city its movie business and filmed image focusing on the crucial period from the construction of the first studios in the 1910s to the decline of the studio system fifty years later As Los Angeles gradually became one of the ten largest cities in the world the film industry made key contributions to its rapid growth and frequent crises in economic social political and cultural life Whether filmmakers engaged with the real city on location or recreated it on a studio set Los Angeles shaped the films that were made there and circulated influentially worldwide The book pays particular attention to early cinema slapstick comedy movies about the movies and film noir which are each explored in new ways with an emphasis on urban and architectural space and its representation as well as filmmaking style and technique Including many previously unpublished photographs and new historical evidence Hollywood Cinema and the Real Los Angeles gives us a never before seen view of the City of Angels

Architecture and Design at the Museum of Modern Art Thomas S. Hines, 2019-01-22 A comprehensive and fascinating look at the history of the Museum of Modern Art's Architecture and Design Department under the leadership of the influential curator Arthur Drexler Arthur Drexler 1921 1987 served as the curator and director of the Architecture and Design Department at the Museum of Modern Art MOMA from 1951 until 1986 the longest curatorship in the museum's history Over four decades he conceived and oversaw trailblazing exhibitions that not only reflected but also anticipated major stylistic developments Although several books cover the roles of MoMA's founding director Alfred Barr and the department's first curator Philip Johnson this is the only in depth study of Drexler who gave the department its overall shape and direction During Drexler's tenure MoMA played a pivotal role in examining the work and confirming the reputations of twentieth century architects among them Frank Lloyd Wright Le Corbusier Richard Neutra Marcel Breuer and Ludwig Mies van der Rohe Exploring unexpected subjects from the design of automobiles and industrial objects to a reconstruction of a Japanese house and garden Drexler's boundary pushing shows promoted new ideas about architecture and design as modern arts in contemporary society The department's public and educational programs projected a culture of popular accessibility offsetting MoMA's reputation as an elitist institution Drawing on rigorous archival research as well as author Thomas S Hines's firsthand experience working with Drexler Architecture and Design at the Museum of Modern Art analyzes how MoMA became a touchstone for the practice and study of midcentury architecture

Schoenberg and Hollywood
Modernism Kenneth H. Marcus, 2016-01-14 Schoenberg is often viewed as an isolated composer who was ill at ease in exile In this book Kenneth H Marcus shows that in fact Schoenberg's connections to Hollywood ran deep and most of the composer's exile compositions had some connection to the cultural and intellectual environment in which he found himself He was friends with numerous successful film industry figures including George Gershwin Oscar Levant David Raksin and Alfred Newman and each contributed to the composer's life and work in different ways helping him to obtain students making recordings of his music and arranging commissions While teaching at both the University of Southern California and the University of California Los Angeles Schoenberg was able to bridge two utterly different worlds the film industry and the academy Marcus shows that alongside Schoenberg's vital impact upon Southern California Modernism through his pedagogy compositions and texts he also taught students who became central to American musical modernism including John Cage and Lou Harrison

Street Level: Los Angeles in the Twenty-First Century Rob Sullivan, 2016-04-01 In the latter part of the C20th a series of seminal books were written which examined Los Angeles by the likes of Reyner Banham Mike Davis Edward Soja Allen Scott Michael Dear Frederick Jameson Umberto Eco Bernard Henri Levy and Jean Baudrillard which have been hugely influential in thinking about cities more broadly The debates which were generated by these works have tended to be very heated and either defensive or offensive in approach A sufficient amount of time has since passed that a more measured approach to evaluating this work can now be taken The first section of this book Contra This and Contra That provides such a critique of the various theories applied to Los Angeles during the last century balancing the positive with the negative The second part of the book is an investigation of L A as it exists on the ground today While political the theoretical stance taken in this investigation is not mounted as a platform from which to advocate a particular ideology Instead it encompasses cultural as well as economic issues to put forth a view of L A which is coherent and cogent while at the same time considering its multi layered complex and ever changing qualities It concludes by arguing that sectorized off and totalizing visions of the city will not do as instruments of urban analysis and that only a theory as mobile as its target will do one that replicates the polymer nature of this place It proposes that extending that theory to the world beyond this particular city only a theory that models itself on the mobile and polymer nature of the world while still retaining a sense of the actual and the real will do as an instrument with which to comprehend the world In doing so this book is not only a model by which to think through Los Angeles but as a model by which to think through other world cities

Richard Neutra and the Making of the Lovell Health House, 1925-35 Edward Dimendberg, 2025-09-02 This absorbing volume reveals the impact of the Lovell Health House from its inspiration through its construction to its impact This book tells the story of the Lovell Health House designed and built by Austrian American architect Richard Neutra 1892 1970 Perched on a steep hillside with panoramic views of Los Angeles the home pioneered the use of concrete and steel radically advanced the ideals of hygienic carefree and open air living and explored new relationships between space structure the natural world and physical and psychological well being It was widely documented and written about in leading architectural journals when it was erected and these publications elevated the house to the status of an icon in the history of modernism and an essential work of the international modern movement It also helped to launch the global career of one of the central figures of twentieth century architecture The book is framed with an introduction by Edward Dimendberg and includes new texts by Crosby Doe and Thomas Hines At the heart of this project are six portfolios on the background design making circulation reception and resonance of this seminal residence by curator and archivist Nicholas Olsberg Featuring historical photography by Willard Morgan and contemporary photography by Grant Mumford this volume will help bring Neutra s masterpiece to an entirely new audience
