The Idea of the Avant Garde Marc James Léger, 2019-10-15 The concept of the avant garde is highly contested whether one consigns it to history or claims it for present day or future uses The first volume of The Idea of the Avant Garde And What It Means Today provided a lively forum on the kinds of radical art theory and partisan practices that are possible in today s world of global art markets and creative industry entrepreneurialism This second volume presents the work of another 50 artists and writers exploring the diverse ways that avant gardism develops reflexive and experimental combinations of aesthetic and political praxis The manifest strategies temporalities and genealogies of avant garde art and politics are expressed through an international intergenerational and interdisciplinary convocation of ideas that covers the fields of film video architecture visual art art activism literature poetry theatre performance intermedia and music

A Fragile Inheritance Saloni Mathur, 2019-10-22 Saloni Mathur investigates the radical work of two seminal figures New Dehli based critic and curator Geeta Kapur and her husband contemporary multimedia artist Vivan Sundaram to show how their approach to artistic practice and theory may inform subsequent generations and serve as a model for artistic politics in our time

Journal of Cultural Management and Cultural Policy/Zeitschrift für Kulturmanagement und Kulturpolitik Constance DeVereaux, Steffen Höhne, Martin Tröndle, 2025-02-08 The Journal of Cultural Management and Cultural Policy offers international perspectives on a wide range of issues in cultural management and cultural policy research and practice This issue looks at resiliency in cultural management and policy from a variety of perspectives Resiliency or its exact synonym resilience refers to the ability to withstand difficulty or to bounce back from chaos or trauma In the cultural sector the term often refers to both the resiliency of artists and other cultural workers to work and create despite the many pressures against them It also encompasses the belief that the presence of art in human society makes both society and individuals more resilient

Women Photographers and Feminist Aesthetics Claire Raymond, 2017-04-21 Women Photographers and Feminist

Aesthetics makes the case for a feminist aesthetics in photography by analysing key works of twenty two women photographers including cis and trans woman photographers Claire Raymond provides close readings of key photographs spanning the history of photography from nineteenth century Europe to twenty first century Africa and Asia She offers original interpretations of well known photographers such as Diane Arbus Sally Mann and Carrie Mae Weems analysing their work in relation to gender class and race The book also pays close attention to the way in which indigenous North Americans have been represented through photography and the ways in which contemporary Native American women photographers respond to this history Developing the argument that through aesthetic force emerges the truly political the book moves beyond polarization of the aesthetic and the cultural Instead photographic works are read for their subversive political and cultural force as it emerges through the aesthetics of the image This book is ideal for students of Photography Art History Art and Visual Culture and Gender

Narratives Unfolding Martha Langford, 2017-07-18 Somewhere between global and local the nation still lingers as a concept National art histories continue to be written some for the first time while innovative methods and practices redraw the boundaries of these imagined communities Narratives Unfolding considers the mobility of ideas transnationalism and entangled histories in essays that define new ways to see national art in ever changing nations Examining works that were designed to reclaim or rethink issues of territory and dispossession home and exile contributors to this volume demonstrate that the writing of national art histories is a vital project for intergenerational exchange of knowledge and its visual formations Essays showcase revealing moments of modern and contemporary art history in Canada Egypt Iceland India Ireland Israel Palestine Romania Scotland Turkey and the United Arab Emirates paying particular attention to the agency of institutions such as archives art galleries milestone exhibitions and artist retreats Old and emergent art cities including Cairo Dubai New York and Vancouver are also examined in light of avant gardism cosmopolitanism and migration Narratives Unfolding is both a survey of current art historical approaches and their connection to the source art making and art experience happening somewhere

Total Modernity and the Avant-Garde in Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Minglu Gao, 2011-04-29 A groundbreaking book that describes a distinctively Chinese avant gardism and a modernity that unifies art politics and social life To the extent that Chinese contemporary art has become a global phenomenon it is largely through the groundbreaking exhibitions curated by Gao Minglu China Avant Garde Beijing 1989 Inside Out New Chinese Art Asia Society New York 1998 and The Wall Reshaping Contemporary Chinese Art Albright Knox Art Gallery 2005 among them As the first Chinese writer to articulate a distinctively Chinese avant gardism and modernity one not defined by Western chronology or formalism Gao Minglu is largely responsible for the visibility of Chinese art in the global art scene today Contemporary Chinese artists tend to navigate between extremes either embracing or rejecting a rich classical tradition Indeed for Chinese artists the term modernity refers not to a new epoch or aesthetic but to a new nation modernity inextricably connects politics to art It is this notion of total modernity that forms the foundation of the Chinese avant garde aesthetic and of this book Gao examines the many ways Chinese artists engaged with this intrinsic total modernity including the 85 Movement political pop cynical realism apartment art maximalism and the museum age encompassing the emergence of local art museums and organizations as well as such major events as the Shanghai Biennial He describes the inner logic of the Chinese context while locating the art within the framework of a worldwide avant garde He vividly describes the Chinese avant garde's embrace of a modernity that unifies politics aesthetics and social life blurring the boundaries between abstraction conception and representation Lavishly illustrated with color images throughout this book will be a touchstone for all considerations of Chinese contemporary art
