Art in the Soviet Union, 1978 Art in the Soviet Union O. Sopotsinsky, 1977-01-01 Soviet Socialist Realism and Art in the Asia-Pacific Alison Carroll, 2024-10-08 This study evaluates how the ideology of Socialist Realism developed by the Soviets in policies and the practices of art has been influential in the Asia Pacific region from 1917 until today Focusing primarily on Russia then China Vietnam Korea Singapore Indonesia the Philippines and Australia this book demonstrates how each society adopted and adapted the Soviet example to make some of the most important imagery of recent history Included is an examination of how the practice of Western art history the nature of art history in Asia and the forces of the Cold War have led to this influence being inadequately acknowledged across Asia and more widely The book will be relevant to those interested in art history Asian studies political history and cultural history The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia Yvonne Howell, Nikolai Kremmentsov, 2021-12-02 The idea that morally mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals leaders and reformers throughout history This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs With contributions from scholars based in the United States Canada the UK Germany and Russia the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions their often obscure origins acclaimed and forgotten champions unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations In short the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind Soviet Emigre Artists Marilyn Rueschemeyer, 2016-09-16 The blind mendicant in Ukrainian folk tradition is a little known social order but an important one The singers of Ukrainian epics these minstrels were organized into professional guilds that set standards for training and performance Repressed during the Stalin era this is their story Russian and Soviet Painting Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco, 1977 The Dictators R. J. Overy, 2004 Overy gives readers an absorbing study of Hitler and Stalin ranging from their private and public selves their ascents to power and consolidation of absolute rule to their waging of massive war and creation of far flung empires of camps and prisons Charles White Sarah

Kelly Oehler, 2018-06-19 A revelatory reassessment of one of the most influential American artists of the 20th century Charles White 1918 1979 is best known for bold large scale paintings and drawings of African Americans meticulously executed works that depict human relationships and socioeconomic struggles with a remarkable sensitivity This comprehensive study offers a much needed reexamination of the artist's career and legacy With handsome reproductions of White's finest paintings drawings and prints the volume introduces his work to contemporary audiences reclaims his place in the art historical narrative and stresses the continuing relevance of his insistent dedication to producing positive social change through art Tracing White's career from his emergence in Chicago to his mature practice as an artist activist and educator in New York and Los Angeles leading experts provide insights into White's creative process his work as a photographer his political activism and interest in history the relationship between his art and his teaching and the importance of feminism in his work A preface by Kerry James Marshall addresses White's significance as a mentor to an entire generation of practitioners and underlines the importance of this largely overlooked artist Information Bulletin, 1946 Picturing Evolution and Extinction Fae Brauer, 2015-10-05 With the increasing loss of biological diversity in this Sixth Age of Mass Extinction it is timely to show that devolutionary paranoia is not new but rather stretches back to the time of Charles Darwin It is also an opportune moment to show how human driven extinction as designated by the term Anthropocene has long been acknowledged The halcyon days of European industrial progress colonial expansion and scientific revolution trumpeted from the Great Exhibition of 1851 until the Dresden International Hygiene Exhibition of 1930 were constantly marred by fears of rampant degeneration depopulation national decline environmental devastation and racial extinction This is demonstrated by the discourses of catastrophism charted in this book that percolated across Europe in response to the theories of Darwin and Jean Baptiste Lamarck as well as Marcellin Berthelot Camille Flammarion Ernst Haeckel Louis Landouzy Félix Le Dantec Cesare Lombroso Thomas Huxley Benedict Augustin Morel Louis Pasteur Lisé Reclus Rudolf Steiner and Wilhelm Wundt among others This book presents pioneering explorations of the interrelationship between these discourses and modern visual cultures and the ways in which the picturing of evolution and extinction by artists as diverse as Roger Broders Albert Besnard Fernand Cormon Hélène Dufau mile Gall František Kupka Pablo Picasso Carles Mani y Roig Sophie Taeuber and Vasilii Vatagin betrayed anxieties subliminally festering over degeneration alongside latent hopes of regeneration Following Darwin's concept of evolution as Janus faced the dialectical interplay of evolution and extinction and degeneration and regeneration is explored in modern visual cultures in Australia America Britain France Germany Russia Spain and Switzerland at significant spatio-temporal junctures between 1860 and 1930 By unravelling the picturing of the dread of alcoholism cholera dysentery tuberculosis typhoid and rabies alongside phobias of animalism criminality hysteria impotency and ecological disaster each chapter makes an original contribution to this new field of scholarship By locating these discourses and visual cultures within the golden age of Neo Lamarckism they also reveal how regeneration was pictured as the Janus face of degeneration able to facilitate evolution through the inheritance of beneficial characteristics in propitious environments In striking such an uplifting note amidst the dissonant cacophony of catastrophism this book reveals why the art and science of Transformism proved so appealing in France as elsewhere and why visual cultures of regeneration became as dominant in the twentieth century as the picturing of degeneration had been in the nineteenth century It also illuminates the paradoxical inversion that occurred in the twentieth century when devolution became equivalent to evolution for many Modernists Hence whilst this book opens with the picturing of indigenous people in Australia and North America as doomed races by the first publication of Darwin's On The Origin of Species it closes with the quest by 1930 for a regenerative suntan as dark as the skin of those indigenous people
