Artists at War Ewa Anna Kumelowski, 2025-06-28 This book follows the lives of Sarajevan visual artists as they responded to the rising instability and political fragmentation that defined the last days of Yugoslavia's existence Exploring how these artists understood and spoke about the onset of war it places a focus on a series of recognizable discourses touching upon notions of Yugoslav common culture civilization and cultural resistance which have since become synonymous with the memory of the siege of Sarajevo This book hinges its central arguments on a microhistorical reading of this unique cultural community that existed simultaneously on the practical periphery of Yugoslav cultural developments and within the center of the state's fragmentation In doing so it offers a novel approach towards understanding the experiences of everyday life in besieged Sarajevo

Howard Zinn Speaks Howard Zinn, 2012-11-06 A wide ranging collection of speeches many published here for the first time by the historian and author of A People's History of the United States Howard Zinn has illuminated our history like no other US historian This collection of his speeches on protest movements racism war and American history covers more than four decades of his active engagement with the audiences he inspired with his humor insight and clarity This volume features Zinn's impassioned and erudite statements on the war in Vietnam abolishing the death penalty the legacy of Emma Goldman the myth of American exceptionalism the Obama Administration and much more Reading Howard's spoken words I feel that I am almost hearing his voice again his stunning pitch perfect ability to capture the moment and the concerns and needs of the audience whoever they may be always enlightening often stirring an amalgam of insight critical history wit blended with charm and appeal Noam Chomsky leading public intellectual and author of Hopes and Prospects With ferocious moral clarity and mischievous humor Howard turned routine antiwar rallies into profound explorations of state violence and staid academic conferences into revival meetings for social change Naomi Klein author of No Is Not Enough and The Battle For Paradise

American Women Artists in Wartime, 1776-2010 Paula E. Calvin, Deborah A. Deacon, 2011-09-29 For generations men have left their homes and families to defend their country while their wives mothers and daughters remained safely at home outwardly unaffected A closer examination reveals that women have always been directly impacted by war In the last few years they have actively participated on the front lines This book tells the story of the women who documented the impact of war on their lives through their art It includes works by professional artists and photographers combat artists ordinary women who documented their military experiences and women who worked in a variety of types of needlework Taken together these images explore the female consciousness in wartime

The Politics of History Howard Boone's Zinn, 2012-08 This book presents a series of case studies and thought provoking essays arguing for a radical approach to history and providing a revisionist interpretation of the historian's role In a new introduction the author responds to critics of his original work and comments further on the radicalization of history

Media Control Noam Chomsky, 2011-01-04 Noam Chomsky's backpocket classic on wartime propaganda and opinion control begins by asserting two models of democracy one in which the public actively participates and one in which the public is manipulated and controlled According to Chomsky propaganda is to democracy as the bludgeon is to a totalitarian state and the mass media is the primary vehicle for delivering propaganda in the United States From an examination of how Woodrow Wilson's Creel Commission succeeded within six months in turning a pacifist population into a hysterical war mongering population to Bush Sr's war on Iraq Chomsky examines how the mass media and public relations industries have been used as propaganda to generate public support for going to war Chomsky further touches on how the modern public relations industry has been influenced by Walter Lippmann's theory of spectator democracy in which the public is seen as a bewildered herd that needs to be directed not empowered and how the public relations industry in the United States focuses on controlling the public mind and not on informing it Media Control is an invaluable primer on the secret workings of disinformation in democratic societies Disobedience and Democracy Howard Zinn, 2012-05-24 Howard Zinn's cogent defense of civil disobedience with a new introduction by the author In this slim volume Zinn lays out a clear and dynamic case for civil disobedience and protest and challenges the dominant arguments against forms of protest that challenge the status quo Zinn explores the politics of direct action nonviolent civil disobedience and strikes and draws lessons for today

Voices of A People's History of the United States Howard Zinn, Anthony Arnone, 2009 This updated companion to Howard Zinn's classic A People's History of the United States Harper Perennial 2005 brings together the powerful words and actions of women and men of all races and creeds who though mostly powerless themselves have made change in America across the centuries The original source book for Matt Damon's The People Speak series on The History Channel this classic work from Zinn is a major new release Emma Howard Zinn, 2012-08 A play in two acts about Emma Goldman American Anarchist In this play historian and playwright Howard Zinn dramatizes the life of Emma Goldman the anarchist feminist and free spirited thinker who was exiled from the United States because of her outspoken views including her opposition to WWI With his wit and ability to illuminate history from below Zinn reveals the life of this remarkable woman Bicentennial Times , 1973
