

1. Its purpose is to bring awareness of the issue, sarcasm or not. He is arguing that instead of choosing an official language, they should just not choose at all.
2. Both sides are trying to address the deciding factors between making English the national language. This is an effective beginning because it gives both sides of the story that will be addressed in the essay.
3. We wouldn't have to worry about whose English to make official, it's hardly even English anymore, it has become a world language. A common language can cause strife and misunderstanding, the French have banned English, and banning English would save us that inevitable disappointment. The central point is that everyone knows what english is, whether or not they can speak it.
4. I think he used the proposal genre in order to get facts and statements out there with no further explanation. Another genre could have been a report or response essay.
