Art and Love in Renaissance Italy Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kimbell Art Museum, 2008 Many famous artworks of the Italian Renaissance were made to celebrate love marriage and family They were the pinnacles of a tradition dating from early in the era of commemorating betrothals marriages and the birth of children by commissioning extraordinary objects maiolica glassware jewels textiles paintings that were often also exchanged as gifts This volume is the first comprehensive survey of artworks arising from Renaissance rituals of love and marriage and makes a major contribution to our understanding of Renaissance art in its broader cultural context The impressive range of works gathered in these pages extends from birth trays painted in the early fifteenth century to large canvases on mythological themes that Titian painted in the mid 1500s Each work of art would have been recognized by contemporary viewers for its prescribed function within the private domestic domain BOOK JACKET Art and Love in Renaissance Italy Beverly Louise Brown, 2013

Art and Love in Renaissance Italy Andrea Bayer, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kimbell Art Museum, 2008 Many famous artworks of the Italian Renaissance were made to celebrate love marriage and family They were the pinnacles of a tradition dating from early in the era of commemorating betrothals marriages and the birth of children by commissioning extraordinary objects maiolica glassware jewels textiles paintings that were often also exchanged as gifts This volume is the first comprehensive survey of artworks arising from Renaissance rituals of love and marriage and makes a major contribution to our understanding of Renaissance art in its broader cultural context The impressive range of works gathered in these pages extends from birth trays painted in the early fifteenth century to large canvases on mythological themes that Titian painted in the mid 1500s Each work of art would have been recognized by contemporary viewers for its prescribed function within the private domestic domain BOOK JACKET Venus and the Arts of Love in Renaissance Florence Rebekah Compton, 2021-03-11 In this volume Rebekah Compton offers the first survey of Venus in the art culture and governance of Florence from 1300 to 1600 Organized chronologically each of the six chapters investigates one of the goddess's alluring attributes her golden splendor rosy hued complexion enchanting fashions green gardens erotic anatomy and gifts from the sea By examining these attributes in the context of the visual arts Compton uncovers an array of materials and techniques employed by artists patrons rulers and lovers to manifest Venusian virtues Her book explores technical art history in the context of love's protean iconography showing how different discourses and disciplines can interact in the creation and reception of art Venus and the Arts of Love in Renaissance Florence offers new insights on sight seduction and desire as well as concepts of gender sexuality and viewership from both male and female perspectives in the early modern era A Cultural History of Marriage in the Renaissance and Early Modern Age Joanne M. Ferraro, 2021-11-18 Why marry The personal question is timeless Yet the highly emotional desires of men and women during the period between 1450 and 1650 were also circumscribed by external forces that operated within a complex arena of sweeping economic demographic political and religious changes The period witnessed dramatic religious reforms in the Catholic confession and the introduction of multiple Protestant denominations the advent of the printing press European encounters and exchange with the Americas North Africa and southwestern and eastern Asia the growth of state bureaucracies and a resurgence of ecclesiastical authority in private life These developments together with social religious and cultural attitudes including the constructed norms of masculinity femininity and sexuality impinged upon the possibility of marrying The nine scholars in this volume aim to provide a comprehensive picture of current research on the cultural history of marriage for the years between 1450 and 1650 by identifying both the ideal templates for nuptial unions in prescriptive writings and artistic representation and actual practices in the spheres of courtship and marriage rites sexual relationships the formation of family networks marital dissolution and the overriding choices of individuals over the structural and cultural constraints of the time A Cultural History of Marriage in the Renaissance and Early Modern Age presents an overview of the period with essays on Courtship and Ritual Religion State and Law Kinship and Social Networks the Family Economy Love and Sex the Breaking of Vows and Representations of Marriage The Allegory of Love in the Early Renaissance James Calum

O'Neill, 2023-07-31 Described as the most beautiful book ever printed previous research has focused on the printing history of the Hypnerotomachia and its copious literary sources This monograph critically engages with the narrative of the Hypnerotomachia and with Poliphilo as a character within this narrative placing it within its European literary context Using narratological analysis it examines the journey of Poliphilo and the series of symbolic allegorical and metaphorical experiences narrated by him that are indicative of his metamorphosing interiority It analyses the relationship between Poliphilo and his external surroundings in sequences of the narrative pertaining to thresholds the symbolic architectural topographical and garden forms and spaces and Poliphilo's transforming interior passions including his love of antiquarianism language and Polia the latter of which leads to his elegiac description of lovesickness besides examinations of numerosophical symbolism in number form and proportion of the architectural descriptions and how they relate to the narrative Machiavelli Paul Oppenheimer, 2011-10-27 Niccolò di Bernardo Machiavelli is not only one of the most fascinating figures of the Italian Renaissance an outstanding author and statesman but indisputably one of its most influential political theorists whose fundamental contributions to ideas of political power as well as to the history of modern drama remain astonishingly pertinent His adventurous life led him to notable heights as a diplomat and reformer of the Florentine military with his replacement of mercenaries by a citizen militia His fall exile and eventual rehabilitation followed as briskly as his rise Unlike many innovative thinkers about politics he developed his radical theories of treachery and social transformation here explored in terms of their originality in an atmosphere of violence Based on his experience of government his insights led to a shift from understanding statehood war and society as forms of finitude and stasis to those of process All this unfolds in Paul Oppenheimer's compelling recreation of Machiavelli's life as he actually lived it Materialized Identities in Early Modern Culture, 1450-1750 Susanna Burghartz, Lucas Burkart, Christine Göttler, Ulinka Rublack, 2025-10-01 This collection embraces the increasing interest in the material world of the Renaissance and the early modern period which has both fascinated contemporaries and initiated in recent years a distinguished historiography. The scholarship within is distinctive for engaging with the agentive qualities of matter showing how affective dimensions in history connect with material history and exploring the religious and cultural identity dimensions of the use of materials and artefacts. It thus aims to refocus our understanding of the meaning of the material world in this period by centring on the vibrancy of matter itself. To achieve this goal the authors approach the material through four themes: glass, feathers, gold, paints and veils in relation to specific individuals, material milieus and interpretative communities. In examining these four types of materialities and object groups which were attached to different sensory regimes and valorizations, this book charts how each underwent significant changes during this period.

Colonization, Piracy, and Trade in Early Modern Europe Estelle Paranque, Nate Probasco, Claire Jowitt, 2017-08-03 This collection brings together essays examining the international influence of queens, other female rulers and their representatives from 1450 through 1700, an era of expanding colonial activity and sea trade. As Europe rose in prominence geopolitically, a number of important women such as Queen Elizabeth I of England, Catherine de Medici, Caterina Cornaro of Cyprus and Isabel Clara Eugenia of Austria exerted influence over foreign affairs. Traditionally male-dominated spheres such as trade, colonization, warfare and espionage were sometimes for the first time under the control of powerful women. This interdisciplinary volume examines how they navigated these activities and how they are represented in literature. By highlighting the links between female power and foreign affairs, Colonization, Piracy, and Trade in Early Modern Europe contributes to a fuller understanding of early modern queenship.

Piero di Cosimo Dennis Geronimus, Michael Kwakkelstein, 2019-03-25 The study of Piero di Cosimo belongs no less to the history of the imagination than to the history of art. As was true for Giorgio Vasari five centuries ago, Piero's intensely personal visual language remains a moving target for modern scholars. Yet as surprising and strange as his pictorial solutions appear, we have never known as much about Piero as we do today. Freed from the powerful spell of Vasari's biography cum cautionary tale, the Piero that emerges is not solely a conjurer of the uncanny but a sensitive observer of the emotions, the natural and manmade worlds, humans and beasts, surfaces and coloristic effects, phenomena, material and ephemeral. The conference from which the thirteen essays in this volume spring provided a forum for international scholars to continue the ongoing conversation and to ask new questions. The latter address Piero's relationship to his artistic contemporaries north and south of the Alps, the master's Marian imagery, his intellectual engagement with classical traditions, the dual themes of naturalism and exoticism and the latest technical findings. Topics of investigation thus range as broadly as Piero's own versatile production, uniting diverse fields and methods, traversing regional boundaries and often venturing far beyond Florence's city walls into the wild. Contributors are Ianthi Assimakopoulou, Marina Belozerskaya, Jean Cadogan, Elena Capretti.
