Artificial Hells Participatory Art And The Politics Of Spectatorship:

Artificial Hells Claire Bishop, 2012-07-24 This searing critique of participatory art from its development to its political ambitions is an essential title for contemporary art history scholars and students as well as anyone who has thought Now that s art or That s art Library Journal Since the 1990s critics and curators have broadly accepted the notion that participatory art is the ultimate political art that by encouraging an audience to take part an artist can promote new emancipatory social relations Around the world the champions of this form of expression are numerous ranging from art historians such as Grant Kester curators such as Nicolas Bourriaud and Nato Thompson to performance theorists such as Shannon Jackson Artificial Hells is the first historical and theoretical overview of socially engaged participatory art known in the US as social practice Claire Bishop follows the trajectory of twentieth century art and examines key moments in the development of a participatory aesthetic This itinerary takes in Futurism and Dada the Situationist International Happenings in Eastern Europe Argentina and Paris the 1970s Community Arts Movement and the Artists Placement Group It concludes with a discussion of long term educational projects by contemporary artists such as Thomas Hirschhorn Tania Bruguera Pawel Althamer and Paul Chan Since her controversial essay in Artforum in 2006 Claire Bishop has been one of the few to challenge the political and aesthetic ambitions of participatory art In Artificial Hells she not only scrutinizes the emancipatory claims made for these projects but also provides an alternative to the ethical rather than artistic criteria invited by such artworks Artificial Hells calls for a less prescriptive approach to art and politics and for more compelling troubling and bolder forms of participatory art and criticism

Sonic Sculpture and the Performative Impulse Melissa Christine Warak, 2025-03-28 This study considers the performativity of sound producing sculptures made in the twenty first century through a cultural history of certain works A subfield of the sound art medium sonic sculpture presents new possibilities in sensory engagement with the viewer creating a mediated experience for eye and ear Contextualized within three linking nodes of sonic engagement sonic sculpture as a socially engaged art listening to history and the use of the human body as the material of sonic sculpture itself each chapter interrogates one or two works by a contemporary artist These in depth analyses of the works serve as lenses to the artists larger practices and engagements with things that sound Artists covered include Nick Cave Kara Walker Janet Cardiff George Bures Miller and Ragnar Kjartansson The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history sound studies musicology and cultural studies

Contemporary Performance and Political Economy Katerina Paramana, 2025-02-18 Contemporary Performance and Political Economy examines haunting concepts relations and artworks that demand our attention Under capitalism political and ethical considerations are subordinated to economic ones and this subordination creates ghost worlds Performance works however can offer insights into alternative politico economic models In this major contribution to the fields of contemporary performance and political economy Katerina Paramana proposes that the investigation of performance works as economies can make the insights performance works offer visible She positions the examination in relation to contemporary critiques of capitalism neo feudalism and their by products and proposes and develops the notion of oikonomia as a means to theorize artworks which through their house oikos rules nomoi propose ethico political challenges to the economies in which they are embedded For this Paramana looks at politically positioned performance works created and presented in Cuba Europe Mexico the UK and the US Her interest is in the politics ethics and effects of these works house rules and the insights they offer to the reconceptualization of political economy Ultimately this book aims to transform our understanding of economy s purpose It contributes to the development of a new ethico political paradigm upon which a reconceptualization of political economy can be based This inspiring study seeks to keep the fire for change alive by demonstrating that political economies much like performances are experiments that can be changed This work will be of great interest to students and scholars in performance studies theatre visual cultures politics cultural studies dance and visual arts and critical theorists

Off-Screen Cinema Kaira M. Cabañas, 2015-01-26 One of the most important avant garde movements of postwar Paris was Lettrism which crucially built an interest in the relationship between writing and image into projects in poetry painting and especially cinema Highly influential the Lettrists served as a bridge of sorts between the earlier works of the Dadaists and Surrealists and the later Conceptual artists Off Screen Cinema is the first monograph in English of the Lettrists Offering a full portrait of the avant garde scene of 1950s Paris it focuses on the film works of key Lettrist figures like Gil J Wolman Maurice Lema tre Fran ois Dufr ne and especially the movement s founder Isidore Isou a Romanian immigrant whose discrepant editing deliberately uncoupled image and sound Through Caba s history we see not only the full scope of the Lettrist project but also its clear influence on Situationism the French New Wave the New Realists as well as American filmmakers such as Stan Brakhage

Routledge Companion to Creativity and the Built Environment Julie T. Miao, Tan Yigitcanlar, 2024-03-29 This book critically examines the reciprocal relationship between creativity and the built environment and features leading voices from across the world in a debate on originating learning modifying and plagiarizing creativities within the built environment The Companion includes contributions from architecture design planning construction real estate economics urban studies geography sociology and public policies Contributors review the current field and proposes new conceptual frameworks research methodologies and directions for research policy and practice Chapters are organised into five sections each drawing on cross disciplinary insights and debates Section I connects creativity productivity and economic growth and examines how our built environment stimulates or intimidates human imaginations Section II addresses how hard environments are fabricated with social cultural and institutional meanings and how these evolve in different times and settings Section III discusses activities that directly and indirectly shape the material development of a built environment its environmental sustainability space utility and place identity Section IV illustrates how technologies and innovations are used in building and strengthening an intelligent real time responsive urban agenda Section V examines governance opportunities and challenges at the interface between creativity and built environment An important resource for scholars and students in the fields of urban planning and development urban studies environmental sustainability human geography sociology and public policy Arts in Place Cara Courage, 2017-02-03 This interdisciplinary book explores the role of art in placemaking in urban environments analysing how artists and communities use arts to improve their quality of life It explores the concept of social practice placemaking where artists and community members are seen as equal experts in the process Drawing on examples of local level projects from the USA and Europe the book explores the impact of these projects on the people involved on their relationship to the place around them and on city policy and planning practice Case studies include Art Tunnel Smithfield Dublin an outdoor art gallery and community space in an impoverished area of the city The Drawing Shed London a contemporary arts practice operating in housing estates and parks in Walthamstow and Big Car Indianapolis an arts organisation operating across the whole of this Midwest city This book offers a timely contribution bridging the gap between cultural studies and placemaking It will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners working in geography urban studies architecture planning sociology cultural studies and the arts The Politics of Art Hanan Toukan, 2021-06-08 Over the last three decades a new generation of conceptual artists has come to the fore in the Arab Middle East As wars peace treaties sanctions and large scale economic developments have reshaped the region this cohort of cultural producers has also found themselves at the center of intergenerational debates on the role of art in society Central to these cultural debates is a steady stream of support from North American and European funding organizations resources that only increased with the start of the Arab uprisings in the early 2010s The Politics of Art offers an unprecedented look into the entanglement of art and international politics in Beirut Ramallah and Amman to understand the aesthetics of material production within liberal economies Hanan Toukan outlines the political and social functions of transnationally connected and internationally funded arts organizations and initiatives and reveals how the production of art within global frameworks can contribute to hegemonic structures even as it is critiquing them or how it can be counterhegemonic even when it first appears not to be In so doing Toukan proposes not only a new way of reading contemporary art practices as they situate themselves globally but also a new way of reading the domestic politics of the region from the vantage point of art Politics as Public Art Martin Zebracki, Z. Zane McNeill, 2022-12-30 Politics as Public Art presents a keystone collection that pursues new frameworks for a critical understanding of the relationship between public art and protest movements through the utilization of socially engaged and choreopolitical approaches This anthology draws from a unique combination of interdisciplinary scholarship and activism where it integrates geographically rich perspectives from political and grassroots community contexts spanning the United States Europe Australia and Southeastern Africa The volume questions and reimagines not only how public art practice can be integral to politics including forms of surveillance and control of bodily movement It also probes into how political participation itself can be construed as a form of public artmaking for radical social change and just worlds This collection advocates for scholar activist inquiry into how socially engaged public art practices can pave the way for thinking through and working toward championing more inclusive futures and as such choreographing greater intersectional justice This book provides a wide appeal to audiences across humanities and social science scholarship arts practice and activism seeking conceptual and empirically informed tools for moving from public art and choreopolitical theory into modes of praxis critical reflection and action

Contemporary Arts Across Political Divides Alla Myzelev,Tijen Tunalı,2023-07-04 This book explores what art and artists can do to create democratic spaces forms and languages in a world devastated by multiple crises Artists activists art historians and art curators conduct timely and critical analyses across political divides informing the public search for an agency dialogue and self representation They analyze how artists transform these social relations through aesthetic means with a shared commitment to bridging political divides and conflicts The book uses case studies from Australia India Mexico USA Turkey Palestine Israel the Balkans Russia Italy Ukraine to discuss the possibility or impossibility of building avenues for participation equitable interaction self organization as well as the common creation of the imaginary and a culture of dialogue The book pushes for a broader and more conflict oriented understanding of art and politics

The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics Randy Martin,2015-02-11 The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics offers a thorough examination of the complex relationship between art and politics and the many forms and approaches the engagement between them can take The contributors a diverse assembly of artists activists scholars from around the world discuss and demonstrate ways of making art and politics legible and salient in the world As such the 32 chapters in this volume reflect on performing and visual arts music film and new media as well as covering social practice community based work conceptual interventionist and movement affiliated forms The Companion is divided into four distinct parts Conceptual Cartographies Institutional Materialities Modalities of Practice Making Publics Randy Martin has assembled a collection that ensures that readers will come away with a wider view of what can count as art and politics where they might find it and how it moves in the world The diversity of perspectives is at once challenging and fortifying to those who might dismiss political art on the one hand as not making sufficient difference and on the other to those embracing it but seeking a means to elaborate the significance that it can make in the world The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics brings together a range of issues and approaches and encourages critical and creative thinking about how art is produced perceived and received
