As Always Smiled Marisol Figirova:

As Always I Smiled Marisol Figirova, 2015-12-22 Survivors of sexual assault are three times more likely to suffer from depression and four times more likely to contemplate suicide I was oblivious to matters of this nature until they personally affected me That s when my desire to want to continue life became non existent Many have questioned me as to why I wanted to leave this very earth on my own terms How could I no longer want to exist If you have never experienced such trauma in your life you cannot fully understand the wishes of a depressed human being In my book As Always I Smiled the world around me knew nothing of my illness I did what I needed to do to keep all evil thoughts and memories from escaping my very lips I pretended to be happy As I suffered from depression nothing mattered I had no feelings at all Without feelings for anything that existed it made it easier to do what I thought needed to be done commit suicide But we don t get to decide our fate God decides when our time has come and he had decided long ago that it wasn t my time Surviving suicide was worse than not Now I had to face my family and future
