McGinley, Melina Alexander, 2017-01-05 Parents and Families of Students With Special Needs Collaborating Across the Age Span teaches students the skills they need to effectively collaborate with parents and families to ensure a child's success in the classroom. Authors Vicki A. McGinley and Melina Alexander's text takes a lifespan approach with a special emphasis on the critical transition points in a child's life. Information is provided on what can be seen at each stage of an individual with disabilities' development and addresses concerns and needs that families may have during these unique phases of growth. Chapters written by professors and professionals who are also parents of students with special needs bring a diverse range of voices into the narrative. The authors provide an in-depth discussion of how parents and families are affected by particular disabilities, family system theory, the laws that affect individuals with disabilities, and assessments for individuals with disabilities.

Assessment in Early Childhood Special Education
Stephen J. Hernandez, 2024-11-29 This comprehensive guide to assessment in early childhood special education offers a macro and micro level understanding of the essential processes and activities relevant to the assessment of young children at risk of or having developmental delays or disabilities. The book provides insights into the laws, regulations, processes, culturally and contextually relevant practices and requirements that practitioners need to follow when engaged in assessment, in addition to an extensive overview of current and time-tested assessment tools designed for use by early childhood educators when evaluating young children with developmental challenges. It provides immediate guidance and support to a wide range of individuals engaged in service to young children who may have or are already identified as having a disability. Assessment in Early Childhood Special Education is an essential text for pre-service early childhood special educators as well as current practitioners including day care teachers, homebased and center-based certified early childhood special educators, and general education kindergarten through second grade teachers. It should be on the desk of every early childhood educator who works with children who may be or have been identified as being at risk, developmentally delayed, or disabled.
